Some farmers in the section of the country near Carleton have changed owners. The old farmers are going to the Great West and the young ones are taking their places.

At the last regular meeting of Court North Wilshire, C. O. E. the following officers were elected for the ensuing year. C. R. Dugal, Moderator; V. C. H. Fred Eiten; R. S. Daniel, Cumtongue; T. S. Elison, Euster; Tress, John M. Nicholas; Chap. James Holmes; S. W. R. best, Dunlop; I. W. Aquilla, Bowman; S. B. Louis, Campbell; J. B. Melvin, Younker.

The half yearly examination of Kingsboro school was held on the 21st inst. The presence of quite a number of parents and friends was a pleasing feature of the occasion. The pupils were examined in a number of branches by D. McDonald, of Red Point school. At the close of the exercise, M. J. Robertson one of the pupils, on behalf of the school presented the teacher Miss Ethel Ross with a valuable and comfortable fur collar. Dorothy A. MacDonald, another pupil read an appropriate address expressing the respect and esteem of the pupils for their teacher and wishing her a happy Christmas and prosperity throughout the New Year.

An adjourned meeting of the Alameda Presbytery was held in Westminster Presbyterian Church yesterday evening (Dec. 26, 06) to consider a call extended by the North Point congregation to Rev. J. R. Coffin of Picton Presbytery, Nova Scotia. The members present were Rev. D. M. E. Reed of Alameda, and Rev. B. Glover of Estevan. Elder Olson represented North Point congregation. The call was sustained and the new pastor will come within a short time to enter on his new minister. Rev. J. R. Coffin has been in the west before and has many friends and acquaintances in the Estevan district, who will welcome him back amongst them. He is a father of Estevan's well known citizens, Walter S. Coffin. The Estevan Mercury (Rev. Mr. Coffin is a native of Savage Harbor, and was at one time settled at Blouin 11, in this Province.)

The annual meeting of the Maple Leaf Farmers' Institute took place in the Summerside school, December 31, at 7 p. m. The president occupied the chair and after briefly reviewing the work for the past year, which showed a balance of $214 to the credit of the institute, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year. President, J. F. Jenkins; Vice, President, Thomas Dunn; Secretary, Charles McMillan; Orator, John A. Dewar. Instructors Robert Keenan, William Galt, Alexander Murphy, Thomas McLean, Thomas Hynes. A vote of thanks was moved by P. J. D. Edmonds to the retiring officers for their service for the past year. John A. Dewar replied in behalf of the officers, and explained that he and the secretary had not sufficient time to devote to the duties of president and secretary. The next meeting of the Institute will be held in Summerside school, January 15. Subject for discussion, Potato Growing, a Profitable Investment. Should the night prove unfavorable, meeting will be held first five night.

It now appears that Jimmy Williams, the Charlottetown boy who has been the star player on the New Glasgow, N. S. hockey team has been secured for the Canadian Soo team. After seeing Jimmy play at Montreal the Soo men were bound to get him.

There is nothing new to report regarding the broken cable under the Northumberland straits. Mr. James, the Superintendent of the Anglo-American Telegraph Co., says that no arrangements have been made to use the wireless system. While the ice is running in the straits there seems to be little prospect of the cable being repaired.

The date of the great carnival in the Arena has been postponed for a week and will take place on the 22nd inst. This will afford time for many ambitious people, who are bound to eclipse all previous records, to appear. Beau Brummel, Henry the Eighth, Rojstevensky, Marie Molesan, Cleopatra, Currie Nation, Randolph Hearst, Col. Sam Hughes, the Minister of Railways with snow shovel and Mr. Brodeur, with the model of the Moncalm have been sent copies of the present time table and are expected to arrive in time.

On Thursday night the basket social at Marshfield was one of the most enjoyable events that have ever stirred the social life of that happy community. A most excellent program of songs, readings, quartettes, etc., was rendered in a style which gave pleasure to all, and those who filled the role of performers deserved great praise. Senator Ferguson presided and in announcing the proceeds of the meeting which amounted to almost $50 realized in aid of the Baptist Church thanked everyone who had contributed to the successful outcome.
