Randolph Carruthers, Charlottetown, Provincial Auditor outlined the routine procedure of the audit department regarding their approval of Fishermen's Loans.

W. E. Massey, Charlottetown, Deputy Provincial Treasurer was the next witness. While Mr. Mathieson was examining this witness Mr. Mathieson quoted from the External Audit Department to the effect that there was 2500 individual fishermen's loans amounting to $243,000 still uncollected.

Sgt. Percy Keyes, R.C.M.P., stationed in Montague when the alleged offence was committeed identified Watterworth., W. E. Massey, produced Fishermen's Loan Board cheques in favor of Mr. Watterworth amounting to $4,299.00 covering 1946-1947.

Wilfred Watterworth, Montague, first handled Fishermen's Loan checks in 1946. As general rule application for a loan went to Dr. T. V. Grant, Montague, for approval. On one occasion he took as many as 13 applications to Dr. Grant for approval. Also procured Mr. Saville's signature on application.

Some cheques he received were as high as $1000 covering five individual loans. From a conversation he heard at Loan Board meeting he was led to believe that loan application forms for William Gillis, Allan J. MacDonald and Harry Anstie were turned down. When he received cheque for $6,000 he did not know it covered their loan and received no instruction for payment.

At the time of taking 13 applications to Dr. Grant, M.P., for approval he said Dr. Grant said, "you are doing fine, continue, this is great, get as much as you can and get it out." Watterworth said he put it out as he was instructed in money, fishing nets and liquor.

He claimed he never got any money for himself out of cheques and said he lost money in dealing with the Board. Stated that Mr. Keir Clark, Montague and Mr. Joseph Campbell, Popular Point were above board in any dealings he had with them, and that Mr. Saville said he wanted to be good to returned men.

Following the verdict the court adjourned until Monday July 25 at 10.30 a.m. It was not known whether the Crown intends to proceed with the other two indictments against Watterworth.

posed stopping almost all dismantling in order to leave equipment for rebuilding of Germany. Britain insisted on continuing substantial dismantling operations and a compromise was reached this spring.

The American policy changes, Bevin asserted, were responsible for many delays in removing potential war plants from Germany.

Churchill joined Bevin in condemning the delay resulting from the Anglo-American dispute over dismantling. Referring to the early Morgenthau Plan, the former Prime Minister said: "If the document is every brought up to me, I shall say I do not agree with it and I was sorry I put my initials to it."

COLWILL — MacLEOD

A quiet but pretty wedding was solemnized at the United Baptist Church parsonage, North River on July 13th at four o'clock when Rev. H. Barber united in marriage Vera Joyce, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roderick MacLeod, Long Creek, and Stewart Witfield, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Colwill, Kingston.

The bride looked very attractive in a blue suit with matching accessories. Miss Edna Colwill, sister of the groom was bridesmaid. The groom was attended by his friend, Mr. John MacPhee. Following the ceremony the bridal party motored to the home of the bride where a wedding reception was held. The table was centred with a three tier wedding cake, topped with a tiny bridal couple which was later cut in the traditional manner. During the evening a jolly crowd of serenaders arrived who were generously treated to refreshments. The wedding presents were numerous and beautiful. A pre-nuptial shower was given in honor of the bride by her neighbors and friends. They will reside in Kingston where the groom is a prosperous young farmer.

ter of great regret" that responsible government was not returned to Newfoundland before the Island—which lost dominion status in 1934—decided its next form of government. Such procedure had been promised in the letters patent when Britain appointed a Commission Government and rescued Newfoundland from financial difficulties.

"Why the constitutional position was not followed is a matter for wonder," the editorial said, "and inevitably gives rise to a great deal of misunderstanding and arouses a great deal of suspicion. It is regrettable that these misunderstandings and this suspicion should have arisen, particularly as they could have been avoided had the position set forth in 1934 been adhered to.

"This constitutional mistake can be remedied by the people themselves, who now have an opportunity of restoring the Newfoundland Parliament, and having that Parliament determine the future of Newfoundland. We are unable to see how any other position can be justified. The restoration of the Newfoundland Parliament should be the aim of every Newfoundlander, whether he believes in the proposition that Newfoundland can be best governed by Newfoundlanders or whether he believes in the proposition that the greatest happiness of the people would be achieved by reducing Newfoundland to the state of a Province of Canada.

"The Monitor deems it to be wholly and indefensibly wrong that the people should be urgent to commit themselves to union with another country except through an elected and representative government."

Mr. Cashin asked. "Is there anything wrong with that article?".

Nevertheless, following it, "hell broke loose and religious partisanship" swept the land.

"I'll tell the truth so long as God gives me breath," he said.

"The chairman of the convention" studying future forms of government had told "a religious meeting that it was time the protestant people got together before Catholics would dominate the country."

He said he thought any persons winning an election in such a manner and with such "diabolical letters should be ashamed."

"So would I," said Premier Smallwood from his chair across the floor.

"But you were backing them," Mr. Cashin said.

Premier Smallwood leaped to his feet and asked that Mr. Cashin withdraw the remark or "I will demand that he be expelled from the House."

Mr. Cashin withdrew the statement and apologized after Speaker Reginald Sparkes told him he was "skating on rather thin ice."

Then Mr. Cashin added:

"But why didn't the honorable Premier come out and denounce it? Did St. Laurent denounce it? Did any member of the Confederate Association denounce it?".

Mr. Cashin quoted the Orange circular—in the form of a resolution—as saying:

"...The nature of the campaign waged by the Monitor, the official organ of the Roman Catholic Church, the attitude of its clergymen, the nature of the argument used by its adherents, and above all, the records of the polls in various settlements and districts, indicate clearly an attempt to influence the result of the said referendum upon grounds having no relation to the merits of the various forms of government submitted to the people.

"...This, in the opinion of this Grand Lodge, constitutes an unwarranted invasion of and an effort to dominate the right of free choice of the individual elector.

"...This Grand Lodge in regular session assembled condemns such efforts as sectional domination, and warns the Orangemen of Newfoundland of the danger inherent in all such attempts to influence the result and calls upon them to use every effort to bring such attempts to naught."

CORONER'S JURY

killed a man.

Dr. MacKeen said 20 wounds were found on the body. Stab wounds had penetrated the heart and lungs and there were cuts on Keyes' hands. An autopsy disclosed no sign of alcohol.

He testified that the knife, identified by Mrs. Coffey, could have inflicted the wounds. He found human blood on the blade and hilt.

In the court, Detective Sgt. Todd fitted the hunting knife into the sheath he said he removed from Atkinson's left trouser pocket. He said before he took a statement from Atkinson, the accused asked him if Keyes was dead.

Atkinson was not present in court. The jury took 35 minutes to return their finding.

Trinity Church Annual Picnic

The annual Congregational and Sunday School picnic of Trinity United Church was held Wednesday afternoon at the Picnic Grounds, National Park, on the North Shore. It was the largest attended outing in the history of the Church with over a thousand taking part and enjoying a day on the beach.

The sports program was run off efficiently under the direction of Mr. Wendell Beaton. The many events were keenly contested and the older folk entered wholeheartedly into the spirit of the occasion.

There were the usual refreshments, sandwiches, cakes and icecream etc. to delight and satisfy the appetites of all.

The band of the Prince Edward Island Regiment (17th Recce) furnished music and added much to the color and gaiety of the occasion.

Attending the picnic and adding to its enjoyment were, the Rev. H.E.D. Ashford and Mrs. Ashford, the Rev. Dr. W.E. Dudley and Mrs. Dudley and the Rev. T.A. MacLennan and Mrs. MacLennan, Montreal.

The picnic was held under the auspices of the Men's Association of the Church of which Mr. Jack MacNair is the President. Committee Chairman was Lt.-Col. F. B. Conrad and Deputy-Chairman Lt.-Col. A.W. Rogers.

Prizes were presented by Mr. Justice George Tweedy.

Results of the sports program follow:

Liguorian Youth Club News

Well, here is the Liguorian Youth Club reporting again, and I hope we have room for all our news. On the whole the Club is getting better all the time—each committee coming up with something bigger and better every week.

The Spiritual Committee has just published the fourth edition of it's monthly new-letter, reminding the members of their monthly Communion Sunday, and also offering many hints and suggestions as to being better young Catholic men and women. Those who witnessed the Corpus Christi Procession were, no doubt, proud of the splendid turnout of L. Y. C. members who did their bit to honour Christ, their King.

The social side of our lives is breezing right along. On April 29th we held a very successful "Dogpatch Nite", complete with Li'l Abner, Daisy Mae, Mammy and Pappy Yokum, and all the other lovable characters of Dogpatch. Mammy Yokum, being a leader of society in the Dogpatch social circle, also had as special guests for the evening, Joe Palooka, Maggie and Jiggs, Mutt and Jeff, Blondie and Dagwood and a host of others. The grand opening of the L. Y. C. Nightclub—"The Ruby Roof" took place on May 5th, complete with floor-show. The week following this a farewell party was held by the Club, wishing bon voyage to our pioneer Entertainment Committee, which had done a swell job. On May 21st a very successful Parent's Night was held. Mom and Dad were treated to a Variety Show put on by the members, and afterwards took over the floor and really showed us younger folks how to dance! Oh, for the good old days! Well, we could go on telling you what we do week after week, but since space is limited, we'll just say, we've had outdoor dancing, a lobster boil, weiner frys, films, games, novelty shows, quiz programmes and whatnot.

On the sports side of things we've been doing alright too! On July 14th the Bowery Bombers and Dodgers met in a hard fought game in which the Bombers came out the underdogs. This win gave the Dodgers the lead in the L.Y.C. League. Excellent pitching was displayed by both pitchers, Tom Biso of the Bombers and Mike Connolly of the Dodgers. The heavy hitters of the game were Lou Costello and Jack Gaudet, while Clarence Peters did some excellent fielding. The standing in the Boys' Softball League as as follows:

Bowery Bombers (Capt. Ivan Monaghan) won 4, lost 2, average .666.

Cubs (Capt. Gene Kenny) won 3, lost 3, average .500.

Dodgers (Capt. Lou Costello) won 2, lost 4, average .333.

In the Boys' Volleyball League there are 5 teams and an all-star team. The L.Y.C. All-Stars are entered in the City League and they won their first game against the Brighton Horseshoe Club. There are hopes that the All-Stars may get a game against the Summerside R. C. M. P. team.

In the Girls' Volleyball League there are at present 3 teams, The Rockies, the Walkies and the Talkies. There have only been a few exhibition games played and the Talkies can not only play a good game but can talk a good game as well. This is their first year in sports and they have taken to it with relish with the result that the girls have been sporting some sore knuckles. In the Girls' Volleyball League some of the girls are playing their first season on the diamond and are finding the competition rather tough. But a few flashes of speed have been shown and there were only a few minor injuries. There will also be another team entered in the Girls' Softball and Volleyball League.

On the Tennis Courts there has been keen competition and there will be an L.Y.C. entry in the junior championship for the Island.

The senior tournament of the L. Y. C. will be held in the near future. Dates for these tournaments will be announced later.

Congratulations are in order for our Athletic Committee for the fine work they are doing. They have kept things moving at a fast clip on courts and diamond.

The Athletic Committee of the L. Y. C. held a number of athletic events on the Holy Redeemer Tennis courts Wednesday evening. An all-star volleyball team from Summerside shaded the all-star L. Y. C. team by a score of 15-1, 15-3, 15-4.

The girls volleyball team of the L. Y. C. took a close game from the K. of C. all-stars by a margin of 15-12.

An added attraction was a number of games between our L. Y. C. teams.

The L. Y. C. tennis stars provided stiff competition for the representatives from the Charlottetown K. of C. Tennis Club. The following are scores of the different matches.

Ladies Singles: Helen Larter defeated Teresa Arsenault 6-1, 6-2.

Men's Singles: Jim Crewys defeated John Molyneaux 6-1; Jack Hennessey defeated Jim Crewys 6-2.

Ladies Doubles: Mary Morgan and Leah McMahon defeated Clare McDonald and Winnifred Doyle 8-6, 6-3.

Men's Doubles: Jim Crewys and Paul Kays defeated Jack Hennessey and John Molyneaux 6-4, 6-3.

C.N.R. Relations Director In City

Mr. Walter S. Thompson, C.B.E., Director of Public Relations, Canadian National Railways, Montreal, is visiting the Province in connection with the sittings of the Royal Commission on Transportation which will take place in Charlottetown Monday and Tuesday of next week. The scope of the present Commission is much fuller than that of the previous Duff Commission, said Mr. Thompson. While he could not even hint at any changes which might result from the findings of the Commission, he believed that the hearings which are taking place in all parts of Canada from Victoria, B.C. to St. John's, Newfoundland, allow the Governments and local organizations to think of their problems, write down their grievances, and offer their suggestions for improvements. This is in accord with the democratic method of living and working together. After concluding the regional sittings, the Commission will return to Ottawa and will hear the Federal Government and Railways briefs some time in October.

A former Scotsman, who served his newspaper apprenticeship on the Alloa Journal, Mr. Thompson has been with the Publicity Department of the C.N.R. for the past thirty-five years.

Here From England On 3-Month Holiday

Hale and hearty at 84 years, Mrs. Alice Walker stepped off the Aquitania at Halifax last Tuesday to spend a three-month Island holiday with her daughter Mrs. D. H.R. Durber.

Mrs. Walker travelled alone from her home in Kent, England and was met at Halifax by Mr. and Mrs. Durber. Mr. Durber is manager of the government cold storage plant in Charlottetown.

Declaring that she had a "marvellous trip", Mrs. Walker said she is astonished at all the good things that can be bought in Canada. She intends to see the "full extent of the Island" and is staying at the Durber's summer cottage at Rosebank.

Swimming News

KENSINGTON BEACH, CHARLOTTETOWN

The swimmers at Kensington Beach saw swimming strokes at their best on Tuesday afternoon at the Red Cross bath house. Mr. James Mair, supervisor, projected two films: Learn to Swim, and Water Safety, before the afternoon swimming period.

It was a real novelty for the boys and girls to sit inside the bath house and watch expert performers carry out the skills which they themselves try to do each day.

Many of these young citizens went into the water after the show with a secret determination to acquire the poise and endurance exhibited by the champions.

SCARBOROUGH, England — (CP) — Policemen make the best listeners, Brig. P.D.W. Dunn, commandant of a police college, told a conference of representatives from police authorities.

Fined For Game Law Infractions

R.C.M. Police game patrols have been active recently and this past few days a number of offenders have been hailed into Court. Stipendiary Magistrate Gilbert A. Gaudet fined two residents of York each $10.00 and costs or 20 days under the Special Fishery Regulations for fishing trout out of season. (offense committed in March) and also fined a resident of Vernon $2.00 and costs or 10 days for angling without a license. During the same period Stipendiary Magistrate Joseph W. MacDonald fined a resident of Malagash, N.S. $2.00 and costs or 10 days for angling without a license and a resident of Taunton, Mass., was fined $5.00 and costs or 10 days for the same offence. The infractions were committed at York, Vernon, Cherry Hill and Whitlock's Pond. The case were investigated and prosecuted by the R.C.M. Police.

HOLMAN STORE NEWS

G. H. M.

Have things quick and easy in the "Good Old Summertime!!" Don't gasp and groan over a hot cook stove. The COLEMAN HOT PLATE is the answer to the Summer cooking problem. This two-burner plate has blue flame burners, instant heat regulation—high, medium and low, removable fuel tank for safe and quick filling (capacity 2 pints), it is finished in ivory and brown baked enamel, with welded wire grates. You'll be tickled pink with the ease and speed of a Coleman Hot Plate—the price is 16.50 and it's well worth the price. Come in today and buy a Coleman Hot Plate in the Hardware Department of either the Charlottetown or the Summerside Store.

If you're a member of the "Stork Club" this Summer—The Ladies' Wear Department has something special for you—MATERNITY SLACK SUITS, they're comfortable, they're smart and they're concealing. In colors navy, brown, black, aqua and green—made of fine quality Alpine Cloth with short sleeves, back pleats in the loose jacket—and of course an adjustable waist. The sizes are 12 to 20—priced at 13.95. Several of my friends are wearing these Slack Suits and they say they're simply wonderful. You'll find the color you want and the size you want in the display of Maternity Slack Suits in the Ladies' Wear Department.

Truly delicious—that's the verdict of all the people who have tried the different prepared meats in handy rolls of less than 1 pound. The selection includes Luncheon Meat, Bologna, Salami and Chopped Ham—the Chopped Ham is 65 cents a roll, all the others are 55 cents a roll. These Rolls stay fresh, they're easy to slice in just the thickness you want. Choose your favorite—have it ready in the "frig" for any meal or to take on a picnic. The family will really "go" for these Meat Rolls—you'll get them in the Grocery Department.
