Lost His Life While Taking up lobster Traps - Body Not Recovered yet

A sad and somewhat peculiar drowning accident occurred last Friday at New London. Jabez Tuplin, a carpenter and fisherman, residing near New London went out alone in an eighteen foot motor boat to attend his lobster traps.

PRAYER ANSWERED. ST. LOUIS, July -After three days of fasting following years of earnest supplication to Heaven for the power to speak foreign languages, Miss Ethel Ruth Harris declares that her prayers have been answered.

THE new doctrine she was not permitted to teach openly, but she taught it to many of the college students in her rooms. Miss Julia Boyer, one of those students and a confidante, says Miss Davis did not trust her religious views upon others but was always glad to aid them.

MISS Davis did not go immediately to Macon, but went from St. Louis to Dallas, Tex., where she is now visiting. RUSSEL WILL CASE. BOSTON, Mass., July 6-The famous Russell will case is due for another airing in the courts at East Cambridge next week, but owing to the summer vacation season it is thought likely an adjournment of the trial until Fall will be agreed upon when the case is called on Monday.

WHALERS IN BOSTON HARBOR. BOSTON, July 6-It's no use going away down into the South Atlantic or the South Pacific after whales-for there's rare sport and profit, too, for whalers right at the door of Boston harbor. Capt. Crowley of the British bark Sunlight from San Domingo stood on the deck of his square-rigger for hours shooting at the monsters as scores surrounded the big molasses ship.

ELECTRICAL STORM IN SYDNEY. SYDNEY, July 6-The electric storm which passed over this city yesterday was the heaviest ever experienced in this section of the Province. The storm began about 10 a. m., with a heavy lightning and continued until after one o'clock. The lightning flashes were blinding, and the crashes of thunder were terrific.

STRANGE FIND

ST. JOHN, July 7-A strange discovery was made in an old well on a farm near the city yesterday, a wall containing $10 and a set of single harness being brought to the surface. About a month ago a family leased the place, and it was while cleaning out the old well that the find was made. How the money and harness got into the well seems a mystery.

LIVE FROG IN WOMAN'S STOMACH

WASHINGTON, July 8-A live frog that crawled and crawled and croaked lived for nearly year in the stomach of Mrs. L. V. King, of Deannwood. After reducing the woman to a living skeleton, the frog was finally extricated by the physicians of the Emergency Hospital with a large pump. It is now preserved in alcohol. It measures seven inches.

NOVA SCOTIA FIRM FAILS

HALIFAX, N. S., July 7-Some interesting incidents are developing in connection with the failure and disappearance of the members of a billiard firm of Kuzma & Hadji, who carried on a clothing and dry goods business at New Glasgow with a branch at Sydney. They established in a whole sale way in New Glasgow a year ago, starting a branch in Sydney five months since. They disappeared some days ago leaving liabilities of $60,000, chiefly in Montreal, but some in Halifax. They paid their bills promptly at first and left no liabilities whatever in New Glasgow. Kuzma, it is said, brought a letter from Rev. Dr. Barclay of Montreal, recommending him as a good Freemason, but the lodge did not accept him. The Presbyterian church, did however, and he joined the United Presbyterian church. Kuzma married one of his clerks three weeks ago. She is a Stellarton girl and is now at home with her parents. They slaughtered their goods in tremendous fashion at a low one dollar. A lot of goods worth $5,000 was recently sold to a jobber in New Brunswick, it is said, at ten cents on the dollar.

A BIG MAN.

MONTREAL, MONTREAL, July 6-Sir William Whyric, recently elected a director of the Canadian Pacific Railroad, has been connected with railroading for fifty years, and is probably the best informed and most practical man in that line of work in Canada. A native of Fife-shire, Scotland, of humble parentage, he began as a freight handler at Cobourg, Ontario for the Grand Trunk Railway. Little by little he rose to the position of general superintendent of the Western division of the Canadian Pacific, having jurisdiction over 1,455 miles of main line and 700 miles of branch line. King George knighted him for his important part in the maintenance of an Imperial highway across Canada.

KING AND QUEEN AT HENLEY RACES

HENLEY ON THAMES, Eng., July 6-Henley regatta, England's famous water carnival, today reached the culminating point in all the big events and for the first time since its institution in 1864 received the patronage of the king. His majesty accompanied by the queen and Princess Mary came from London to Henley by train. On arriving, King George and Queen Mary embarked upon the Royal Barge which was brilliantly emblazoned with red and gold, and manned with king's watermen in their liveries of centuries ago. Their majesties then proceeded up the course to the royal stand from which they watched the final heats of the British aquatic championships.

DECISION GIVEN

NEW YORK, July 8-President Barrow of the International League announced today that he had ordered the protested game between Toronto and Baltimore on June 27 to be played over on a date to be determined later. The game was protested by Baltimore on the ground that Dalton, who played for Toronto, was under suspension. Manager Kelly of the Toronto team claimed he had not at the time received any notice of Dalton's suspension.

STATE TAX ON TITANIC VICTIMS.

ALBANY, N. Y., July 8-State Controller Schomer said that he will not take any steps looking to the appraisal of the estates of Colonel John Jacob Astor, Isidor Straus and Benjamin Guggenheim victims of the Titanic disaster, until attorneys representing the estates show an inclination to invoke the law which authorities a discount of five per cent in transfer taxes are time of death. It is estimated that the State tax the three estates will be between $5,000,000 and $6,000,000. It was said that no intimation has been received that the tax will be paid within the six months. This period does not expire until next October. It is usual for those interested in large estates to obtain this discount. Attorneys have asked to be designated as special counsel to represent the late in appraising these estates. Comptroller Schomer says they will not make such designations unless it is absolutely necessary.
