

THE KING'S COUNTY GUARDIAN

Offices in Montague, Capt. W. A. Johnstone, Agent, and in Souris, A. J. McDonald, Agent.

The latest news, first of all. Look up Jas Kelly & Co's Saturday ad for substantial saving on little things.

Fev Frederick A. MacMillan will preach in Christ Church, Cherry Valley, on Sunday August 29th at two thirty p. m.

Miss Gertrude Pike of Milburn, Lot 40, is home from Boston and is visiting her sister, Mrs Winslow Clark, of Mount Stewart.

SUNLIGHT SOAP advertisement with illustration of a woman washing clothes and text describing its benefits for household work.

Miss Katie Darrach, New Haven, is visiting friends at York.

John A. McDonald, cheesemaker at Mt Stewart, sold a fine Parkside Jr. mare to James Irving, of Cherry Valley, last week.

Ed McAney and wife arrived recently from British Columbia, to visit the former's parents, Daniel and Mrs McAney, Mt. Stewart.

J. E. R. McEwen of the Train Despatcher's office P. E. I. R., who has been visiting in Montague has left for Port Hood, C. B.

The Rev Mr McMillan will hold divine service and preach in Christ's Church, Cherry Valley, on Sunday next at 2.30 o'clock in the afternoon.

There will be service in Holy Trinity Church, Georgetown, on Sunday next at 11 o'clock in the morning and at 7 o'clock in the evening.

Mrs Chas W. Stewart of Heatherdale, accompanied by her little daughter Estella, left Tuesday morning for Nelson, B. C., where she will join her husband. Her many friends wish her a very pleasant trip and success in her new home.

B. C. Cox of Souris lost a valuable horse a few days ago. The animal was attached to a cart, when the breeching broke, and he ran away, colliding with a telephone post, the result of which was to upset the cart and break the shaft, turn the horse over and have the cart roll on top of the animal. The animal was so badly injured that it lingered only for a few days.—19.

Miss Marjory Lewis, York, is spending her vacation at Montague.

J. A. Webster, Station Agent, Pictou, paid a visit to Montague over Sunday.

A Winnipeg despatch of the 24th inst says:—A man named Prowse, of Murray Harbor, who came West with the harvest excursion went insane at Brandon, and is being returned to his home tonight.

Geo Matheson and Mrs Matheson, who have been visiting Montague, the guests of Geo H. and Mrs Montgomery, have left for the west. Their friends all join in wishing them a safe and pleasant journey home.

Among those visiting in New Perth last week was Miss Laura I. Duncan of Brookline, Mass, who is home on a two months visit to her parents Jas and Mrs. Duncan, Poplar Point, Lot 55, while here she was the guest of her grand-mother Mrs John Kaneen and aunt Mrs John Kennedy.

Dr D. N. McPhail of St Columbia Church, Lochiel, Ont., formerly of Mt. Stewart was, on the evening of Aug. 17, when a large company of people assembled in the Manse, presented by the ladies of his congregation with a very handsome and costly five piece parlor suit with centre table to match, a set of leather seat-ed oak dining room chairs, an eight day clock and a silver tea set, with a suitable address. The Dr replied in a most pleasing manner and thanked the ladies for their great kindness and assured the large company that the nice present by the assistance of the house-keeper would be put to very good use. Apart from the above present the Dr has just furnished the manse throughout. A number of addresses were delivered and refreshments served.

Rev. E. A. McPhee will conduct services on Sunday next, in Sturgeon, Georgetown and Montague at 10.30 a. m., 3 p.m. and 6.30 p.m. respectively.

Rev. E. A. and Mrs. McPhee, Montague; were passengers by the Northumberland last night from Halifax where they were delegates to the Baptist convention in that city.

The schooner J. W. owned by George Wightman, Montague has been driven ashore on the west coast of Newfoundland. She was in ballast bound for Sydney. The crew were all saved and an effort is being made to get the vessel off the shore. She was commanded by Captain Butt of Newfoundland.

HOOD'S The Painless Cathartic PILLS advertisement with text describing its benefits for various ailments.

Special sale of summer dress goods one third off. All our summer dress goods on the counter for the great August clean up sale. Watch for the values that will be shown—come early after them for if you do not you are going to meet your neighbor getting away with the piece that you wanted to buy. Moore & McLeod. 8-21dr4.

Two yards by one and a half yards, that is the size of the best twilled imported tartan carriage wrap that we are selling at $2.00, $2.25 and $2.50. They are the best value ever offered to horsemen and farmers that we know of. The patterns are all good. Jas Eaton & Co. 7-23drf.

SHIPPING NEWS. Entered—Aug 26th.—S. S. City of Ghent, Hare, Halifax; Schr. Polar Star, Burke, Pictou; Schr Sarah L. Oxmer, Delaney, Cardigan. Cleared—Aug. 26th.—Schr. Henry H. Dicks, Dicks, Cape George; Schr. Maud Carter, Bruhoe, Cape George; S. S. City of Ghent, Hare, Summerside.

BORN. COMPTON—At Peake's Road, August 1st, 1909, to W. H. and Mrs Compton, a son.

DIED. JENKINS—In this City, Aug 25th, Hilda Jane, daughter of the late John Jenkins, formerly of Mt. Allison, in the 17th year of her age.

Funeral will take place from her mother's residence, 37 Passmore St. today at two p.m. Interment Birch Hill Cemetery.

McLAURIN—In this city, August 26th, at the P. E. Island Hospital, of heart failure, Robert McLaurin, of A. Kennedy & Co., in the 68th year of his age. (Funeral will leave his late residence, Prince Street, on Saturday afternoon at 2.30. Interment at Sherwood.)

CHARLOTTETOWN MARKETS. Corrected for every Wednesday and Saturday's issue. Table listing prices for Beef quarter, Flour, Oatmeal, Potatoes, Hay loose per cwt, Hay pressed per ton, White Oats, Black Oats, Butter fresh per lb, Eggs.

Table listing prices for Straw (pressed per ton), Straw (loose) cwt., Beef small, Veal per quarter, Veal small, Lamb, Cherries per qt, Blueberries per qt, Gooseberries per qt, Raspberries.

"Anne of Avonlea" by Miss L. M. Montgomery is a sequel to "Anne of Green Gables," and promises to be even more popular than the latter book, which has had a big sale and delighted everyone who has read it. The new Book will be on sale at Carter's Bookstore Sept. 1st. Leave your order for a copy now. The first edition is limited and will sell quickly. Phone 79. 8-26dr1w.

"Beaver" Flour advertisement featuring an illustration of a beaver and text promoting its quality for baking bread.

18c cotton for 1c $2.50 dress goods for 9c per yard $1.78 silk for 9c per yard

In return for the very liberal patronage extended us, we are going to end the season's trade by conducting the most novel, the biggest 8 days sale ever attempted in this city. On May 7th and 8th last, we conducted a similar sale which was continued for one day only, and drew large crowds from city and country as the time was short we then promised that we would repeat it later in the season. So bear in mind that this sale will be conducted for 8 days only, will be the biggest the most interesting sale yet held here in this country. Every fifth yard of cotton no matter if the price be 6c or 18c will be sold for 1c, every 5th yard of dress goods even if the price be 1.00 or 2.75 will be sold for 9c per yard, every fifth yard of any material in the store apart from cotton will be sold for 9c per yard and every 5th yard of cotton for 1c per yard. We want to make this ad plain so that every one can understand it—as we want every one to profit by it. For instance you purchase at our store any day during this sale; say 10 yards of our 14c English print cotton, the first 4 yards will cost you 14c per yard, the 5th yard costs you only 1c, the next 4 yards costs you 14c and the next only 1c if your purchase amounts to 100 yards you get 20 yards for 1c per yard. This applies to any goods in our store. Come and visit us during this interesting event in our business. We want to make out store known in every home throughout the length and breadth of this province. Remember the date Aug 27th to Sept 4th if you miss this you miss one of the best opportunities of your life.

Advertisement for Dress Goods, Silk, Table Linens, Toweling, and Flannelette, listing various items and their prices.

Advertisement for Flannelette Blankets, Wool Blankets, Ladies' Hose, Ladies' Golf Jerseys, and Custom Tailoring, listing various items and their prices.

Advertisement for Men's Hats and Caps, Ladies' Gloves, Ladies' Underwear, Corsets, and Ladies' Coats, listing various items and their prices.

Advertisement for Ladies' Skirts, Men's Suits, Men's Shirts, and Men's Underwear, listing various items and their prices.

Our stock is so large, so varied, that it is impossible for us to innumerate all the lines we carry. It would require a special edition of the newspaper to do so. We carry every thing in general dry goods, clothing, men's furnishings, tailoring. If there is any thing you want that we haven't got we will get it for you. This interesting sale will be conducted as outlined above—every fifth yard of any goods in our store for 1c and 9c, exactly as advertised, and every 5th article of the one price no matter if it costs 2c or $50.00 will be sold for 9c each. Sale begins on Friday morning Aug. 27 at 9 a. m. and will be continued until Saturday evening Sept. 4 at 10 p. m. 8 days only. The opportunity now is yours. Remember the first principle of this business is never to make a statement in the press that it does not fulfill in the store. No misrepresentation, everything marked in plain figures. Money cheerfully refunded and satisfaction guaranteed.

S. A. McDONALD.