MONTREAL WANTS TO SEE MCKENNA-FONTAINE BOUT

Sports Writer In Montreal Standard Says It Would Be The Match Of The Season.—Both Claim Canadian Middleweight Title.

"McD", writing in the Montreal Standard, with reference to a McKenna-Del Fontaine bout, has this to say:
Nova Scotia Boy Making Good
Here's another chap we would like to see box in Montreal.
He is Jack McKenna, of Pictou, N. S., who is the Canadian middleweight champion, or at least he claims that title.
This boy is making them all sit up and take notice in the United States.
He is bowling them over like nine pins.
An earnest, conscientious worker, he is willing to show his wares at all times.
During the past four months he has knocked out Howard Bentz, Red Grange, Jimmy Cox, Tony Ross and Tubby Noble, besides winning decisions over Walcott Langford and Johnny Gerardi.
McKenna scales in the neighborhood of 155 pounds but his main hobby is taking on the big ones. When he fought Noble, the latter weighed 185 1/2 against 154 for McKenna but Noble lasted only three rounds.
It would be an energetic action on the part of some local promoter to bring this Nova Scotia bear-cat into the ring with Del Fontaine, of Wimping, who also claims the Canadian middleweight championship, and see which of the two is the better man.
That would give some much-needed variety to the game in Montreal.
What About Del Fontaine-McKenna Bout?
Del Fontaine is well known in this city as a real fighter. In his last fight in Montreal he dropped a close decision to Rene Devos, who has proved himself to be among the best in the world in the middleweight division. In his fight with Fontaine here Devos had to call up all his reserve strength to beat the durable French-Canadian, who was coming on like a house-afire in the finishing rounds.
Devos was enabled to obtain the decision because of his greater ring experience, he having had over 100 fights to his credit against about 40 for Del Fontaine.
Del Fontaine has since been several sensational fights in the United States, meeting such warriors as Red Uhlman, Walcott Langford, Young George Dixon, Joe Roach, Lefty Cooper, Billy Alger, Joe Anderson, Dave Shad, Everett Strong and others.
A McKenna-Del Fontaine bout would be a corker for local fans.
McKenna also fought Rene Devos, and in this bout staged a Halifax nearly a year ago, the Maritime Province boy nearly had Devos on the canvas in the fifth and tenth round. He also fought over twenty bouts in the United States and lost one out of the lot by a close decision, that was to Chicago Joey Brown, who it is understood fights McKenna in Sydney, the first week in September.

Dutch Mermaid Wins Olympic Swim

(Canadian Press)
AMSTERDAM, Aug. 11.—Miss M. Braun, sensational Dutch swimmer became the woman's Olympic champion in the hundred metres back-stroke here today. She swam the distance 1.22 flat to defeat Miss King and Miss Cooper, Great Britain, who were second and third respectively. Marion Gilman, United States, was fourth, Eleanor Holmand, Lisa Lindstrom, United States fifth and sixth.

JACK MCKENNA MATCHED TO FIGHT HERE EX. WEEK

Frankie Burns, Manager Of Roy Mitchell And Others To Bring Boxer Here.—Expects To Take McKenna's Measure.

Mr. James Pendergast, well known Island sport promoter informed the Guardian last evening that he is watching Jack McKenna, sensational Canadian middleweight champion with another hard-hitting New York, Boston middleweight.
Mr. Pendergast has been in communication during the past weeks with Eddie Mead, McKenna's manager, with a view to having McKenna show his wares here again during Exhibition Week, and has been successful, after closing on a large guarantee. His first attempt was to match Roy Mitchell with McKenna, but Mead declined as Mitchell outweighs the hard punching Canadian by twenty pounds and has him every other way in reach, height, etc. However through Frankie Burns, Mitchell's manager, Pendergast has succeeded in getting Burns' word that he would have a boxer here by the latter part of this week whom he feels sure will take McKenna's measure. However, that as it may be, and "Big Jim" expects to announce the name of McKenna's opponent within a day or two.
After his bout in Charlottetown Jack fights Chicago Joey Brown in Sydney. This is the boxer who won a close decision from McKenna in his first bout in the States.
McKenna, accompanied by his manager Eddie Mead and Mrs. Mead are expected to arrive in the city next Saturday or Monday. They are motoring from Cleveland, Ohio.

Peculiar Judging In Olympic Bouts

AMSTERDAM, Aug. 11.—(By W. H. Ingram, Canadian Press Staff Correspondent)—The boxing decisions being rendered in the Olympic tourney here are generally incomprehensible to most sport writers. It is agreed that the English school has been supplanted by the rising Argentine-Italian school in which the scientific rules of the National Sporting Club of London have given way to the boring, slug-ging, holding and even wrestling type of fighting.
If the bare facts of scientific boxing are given round by round it is possible, all things being equal, to predict the natural result, but in the fighting now proceeding at the Olympic Stadium anything can happen at the last minute to utterly change the natural decision.

The first pose is the one Sam employed when in the heyday of his career. The only difference is that he is much heavier now. The other pose shows the old Langford smile. This world wide known pugilist is accompanying the Lynch Shows which will be at the Exhibition Grounds during Fair Week.

Weissmuller Is An Easy Winner In Swim Classic

AMSTERDAM, Aug. 11.—Competition for the remaining Olympic swimming championships was limited today to elimination and semi-final trials to determine finalists in the men's and women's 100 metre free style, the women's 100 metres backstroke, and the women's high diving.
Among the men's remarkable performances was the speed of Miss King of Great Britain, in winning her heat in the semi-final of the backstroke event in 1:21 flat. This bettered the new Olympic record which had been set up by Miss Marie Braun of Holland, who stroked the distance in 1:21 3-5.
Johnny Weissmuller of the United States, in his favorite event, the 100 metres free style, swam to a new Olympic record in winning his semi-final heat in 58 3-5 seconds. Zorilla, the Argentine who won the 400 metres in spectacular style, will be a contender.
Miss McDowell of Great Britain, easily won her heat in the women's free style, and will be opposed in the final by Miss Russell of South Africa, two girls from the United States, one from Germany and one from Denmark.
Mrs. Betty Pinkstone, of Detroit, led the qualifiers in the high diving with 32.6 points.

The Middletown Meeting

MIDDLETOWN, N.Y., Aug. 11.—The last meeting of the Orange County Circuit will be held over the Harry Clay track next week in connection with the County Fair. At this point there will be four days racing, four late closing events have been added to the series that produced such remarkable contests on the trip from Endicott.

At no time in the history of the Circuit has there been so much high class racing as has been seen this year. While the two year old trotters have not shown as fast as in former years all of the other events have been faster.

The time for the meetings at Endicott and Elmira average 2:09. With favorable weather it will be faster here as none of the tracks in the state has better footing than can be found at the Middletown course.

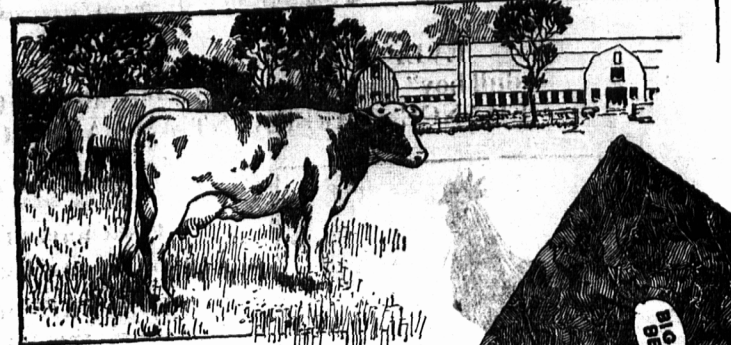

So far the pacers have been the leaders. Silver Weather sprang a surprise when he won at Endicott in 2:05 1-4. At Elmira the clip was faster as Highland Scott defeated the Hartford better ball in 2:04. On Wednesday Grattan Bars is named to start against Winnipeg and Volo Rico while on opening day Joe Lewis and Louis Direct is in with Bonnie M., Hollywood Jacquelin and Jeanette Royal.

Hollywood Colin and Guy Ozark took like the best in the two trots will be decided on Tuesday. Both of them won at Endicott and Elmira. On Wednesday the two year old trot will result in another battle between Bob Galloway, Hayes, and the Guy Axworthy colt Carewin the three year old event. He jumps occasionally but when he flattens Plucky can race as fast as colts go on the two lap courses. Hollywood Dick should round out the day by winning the 2:16 trot.

So far the 2:11 trot has proved one of the best contests in the circuit. At Endicott Heter Skeller and Guy Worthy were on the front end. At Elmira the contest lay between Dewey McKinney and the old time champion Czarworthy. All of them will meet again at Middletown with a few others to keep them company. This race with the 2:25 trot in which Bronx looks like the best and the 2:45 pace round out the card for Thursday.

At this time it is well to stop and see what the leading drivers are doing. Up to the close of the Elmira and Marion meeting Vic Fleming led the drivers with eighteen races to his credit. He won seven events at Mansfield, Ohio with Grattan

GOLF

Three players advanced into the semi-finals of the club championship over the week-end. C. W. MacKinnon disposed of W. K. Rogers in Saturday's downpour by 4 and 3. Morris MacKinnon eliminated A. W. Hyndman 5 and 4, while the ambidextrous Rev. E. Scott Fulton played E. Gunsalus Jr. among the slain. The fourth semi-finalist will be the winner of a battle between Vic Saunders and Lloyd Wellner. Saunders is favored to win but Lloyd has the reputation of springing surprises, so no one is quite sure of the outcome.
A feature of last week's program was the play-off between the winners of the weekly 5 o'clock matches. E. Gunsalus, G. G. Hughes, Ben Conrad and Morris MacKinnon played 18 holes medal play to decide the winner of the club prize. When all the divots were replaced, the last match ended in a tie between MacKinnon and Gunsalus with a net score of 72 while Ben Conrad was close behind with a 73.
Rain on Saturday seems to have become a regular handicap for Charlottetown golfers. However each Saturday has seen a sturdy band of mariners heave to with their manliness et al and in spite of the elements hand in fairly respectable scores. Especially so did Mr. Ben.

Conrad who not content with scoring a birdie 3 on the ninth, wrote a birdie 4 on his card for the long and difficult first hole. Ben played a brilliant game and only for a few excursions into the long and very wet grass would easily have beaten off all competitors. It was a loss-up among the spectators whether Gordon Hughes was shooting ducks or playing golf but on examination of his score, no "birdies" were disclosed all of which relieved the gun-shy and his rivals very much. Members are anxious to pair up Dr. C. H. Beer and "Dick" Hughes as they play in the same "suit."
The following are the faithful who turned out to play in the second stage of the Wellner trophy.
