Every man and woman is eligible, whether now entered in contest or not. He or she has an equal opportunity to secure this valuable prize, as votes already issued for candidates will not count toward the winning of this valuable prize. Only subscription ballots issued during the next two weeks will count for the prize. All votes issued for this prize will count for the Automobiles and Pianos at the end of the contest.

HOW THIS PRIZE WILL BE WON

To the candidate regardless of district limitations to whom the greatest number of votes are issued on paid in advance subscriptions only, between midnight Saturday April 19th, and 10 p. m, Saturday May 3rd, will be given this special prize.

Every candidate starts even for this special prize, as votes issued prior to midnight Saturday April 19th, do not count for this prize, but all votes issued on paid in advance subscriptions during this period of two weeks will not only count for this prize, but will also count for the winning of the Grand Prizes and the district prizes of the Automobile and Piano contest. Votes clipped from the Guardian will not count for this prize, but will be accepted and will count for the district and grand prizes.

It will not be necessary for candidates to deposit ballots in the ballot box to win this prize, as the winner will be arrived at by his or her total votes for the period of two weeks as recorded at the contest department and not by the ballot deposited in the ballot box.

Remember---all eligible men and women are invited to enter the contest now and compete for this valuable prize, even though they do not care to continue and try for the other prizes.

Everyone starts even--so one person's chance is the same as another's.
