Paul Harding Committed To Supreme Court

Paul Harding was committed to stand trial at the next session of Supreme Court by Magistrate W. E. Darby yesterday on a charge of arson. The charge arose from the burning of Glover's store Nov. 11, 1936. Eric McEwen, arrested on a similar charge, pleaded guilty when arraigned last Tuesday and was remanded a week for sentence.

Six witnesses were called to the stand during today's hearing, before a crowded courtroom. McEwen was questioned for some time, while Roy MacKenzie, customs officer, C. R. Staver, insurance agent; Bernard Hughes, giving evidence in connection with the insurance, and Corporal Caldwell of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, also were called.

L. G. Lewis and Staff Sgt. Anderson conducted the prosecution and W. Henry Noonan and C. D. McCallum appeared for Harding.

napping and mail extortion. In Washington, D. C., the Department of Justice issued on a poster the first official description of the kidnapper. Advising the public of the $10,000 reward offered for information leading to his arrest, the poster thus described the wanted man:

"Age, about 30 years; height, five feet seven or eight inches; weight, 145 to 165 pounds; complexion swarthy. Peculiarities: Did not stand erect, dimple in chin, high cheek bones, nose appeared to be broken a little below centre, had hairy hands; speech, slightly foreign accent, spoke brokenly, appeared of Southern European extraction."

Police harvested a crop of potential suspects all over the far west, including new arrests in San Diego, Sacramento, Portland and San Rafael; sought "suspicious characters" in Seattle and in Chicago, Calif., and questioned another in Santa Rosa.

Public temper flared significantly in Portland when a man questioned and released went into a restaurant and remarked he had been "connected" with the case. Patrons rushed at him but police intervened and took him back to headquarters for a mental examination. He gave his name as DeForest Powers, 28, a laborer.

California officers still were reported seeking Fred Orrin Haynes, former Folsom convict named by Warden Clarence Larkin yesterday as being wanted for questioning. A cafe proprietor in Chicago, Calif., reported he believed Haynes had applied for work there Friday, the day the Everett automobile was stolen.

Several sources reported the Everett automobile's connection with the case was becoming more evident hourly.

Stolen from an Everett resident Friday night, possibly about the time little Charles was killed, it was found yesterday morning with stolen license plates, and was impounded by police.

A federal agent and Washington State Patrol Chief William Cole alerted human blood was found on chains and on a handkerchief in the machine.

Government scientists presumably compared the stains with little Charles' blood but remained silent as to what they found.

northwest of Madrid in the sector controlling the approach to El Escorial and the Guadarrama foothills. Its occupation by the militia was regarded as an important preparatory step in an impending offensive against the combat-wearied insurgents.

Fighting in the University City sector, which began at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon, was featured by many acts of bravery on both sides. General Miaja said tonight. Much of the action took place around the Spanish-American war memorial. A column of militiamen went over the top in this sector, and rifles and grenades in their hands, and rushed the enemy. The fighting after a stubborn fight, screened by a curtain of fire from new automatic ordnance, they also Honorable members of the Senate: Members of the House of Commons: It affords me much pleasure to meet you at the commencement of another session of Parliament.

The people of Canada, in common with the peoples of the other parts of the British Commonwealth of Nations, learned with deep concern of the decision of His Majesty King Edward the Eighth to renounce the Throne for himself and his descendants.

In accordance with the Statute of Westminster steps were taken immediately to set forth the request and consent of Canada to the enactment of legislation by the Parliament at Westminster for the purpose of giving effect to His Majesty's instrument of abdication and providing for the succession to the Throne.

In accordance with the same Statute the assent of Parliament will be sought to the alteration in the law touching the succession."

The speech announced Canada would be appropriately represented at the coronation next May 12 and that an Imperial Conference would be held in London after the coronation.

European Situation The anxiety with which the Government views the international situation was reflected in the speech but satisfaction was expressed with conditions in Canada and with the relations prevailing among nations on the North American continent.

Testimony to the beneficial effects of the Government's fiscal policies was seen in a steady improvement in conditions throughout the year, it said.

Vigorous promotion of the sale of agricultural produce at home and abroad would be continued, the speech said. No effort had been spared to expand Canada's trade and following out the Government's policies ministers had visited Great Britain and other countries and Hon. W. D. Euler, Minister of Trade and Commerce was on the way to Australia and New Zealand to discuss revision of existing trade agreements.

"You will be pleased to learn," said the speech, "that an agreement in principle has been reached between His Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom and Canada with respect to a new trade agreement. The agreement itself will be submitted for your approval during the present session."

Unemployment The year just closed has witnessed a steady improvement in conditions throughout Canada and has borne testimony to the beneficial effects of the fiscal policies of the administration, and of other methods employed to achieve national recovery. A very definite restoration of confidence is in itself an augury of the continuance of recovery.

A marked increase in trade and commerce has been accompanied by a noticeable improvement in the general economic position. Outstanding features of this improvement have been an expansion of markets, a revival of industry, an increase in employment, and upward trends in wages and prices. In the primary industries improvement has been especially noteworthy.

There has been a pronounced increase in the volume of farm products exported. It is the intention of the Government to continue a vigorous promotion of the sale of agricultural products at home and abroad.

The Government's efforts to expand Canada's trade have been unremittent. Since the last session of Parliament ministers of the Crown have visited Great Britain and other countries, to participate personally in the negotiation of trade agreements. At the present time, the Minister of Trade and Commerce is on the way to Australia and New Zealand to discuss the revision of existing agreements.

You will be pleased to learn that an agreement in principle has been reached between His Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom and Canada with respect to a new trade agreement. The agreement itself will be submitted for your approval during the present session.

With the assistance and co-operation of the National Employment Commission, progress has been made in coping with unemployment and relief. Relief camps were closed on July 1. A registration of unemployed persons on relief has been completed. Dominion-Provincial agreements have been entered into respecting a farm employment plan, under the terms of which work has been provided for thousands of single homeless men.

A Home Improvement Plan has been put into operation. Measures will be taken, in co-operation with the provinces, to assist in the establishment of unemployed young people.

A comprehensive program to meet the serious conditions created by widespread and intense drought in Western Canada was adopted during the summer months.

The amalgamation and consolidation of certain branches of the public service, for which provision was made at the last session, have been effected. The Board of Governors of the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation and the Board of Directors of the Canadian National Railways have been appointed and have entered upon their duties. Through the purchase of stock and the appointment of directors, authorized by Parliament, the Government has assumed a predominant interest in the ownership, and an effective control of the Bank of Canada.

Measures will be introduced to provide for the establishment of a Trans-Canada air service; to extend the authority of the Board of Railway Commissioners, and to revise the capital structure of the Canadian National Railways. Among other proposed legislative enactments to which your attention will be invited, will be bills to facilitate the making of loans for the repair and improvement of rural and urban homes; to amend and consolidate the acts which relate to companies in trade and industry, and to provide for pensions to the blind at a lower age than seventy years. A measure will also be submitted with respect to the discharge, in any coin or currency which is legal tender, of debt payments at present required to be made in gold or gold coin.

Members of the House of Commons: The Public Accounts of the last fiscal year and the estimates for the coming year will be submitted for your consideration.

Honorable Members of the Senate: Members of the House of Commons: In again inviting your careful consideration of the important matters which will engage your attention, I pray that Divine Providence may guide and bless your deliberations.

Development of airplanes and long range bombers, officials emphasized today, now would permit destructive raids on London—centre of finance and government—as well as on ships transporting food supplies.

As a result plans are underway to build up food reserves, designed to assure a supply of bread and other foodstuffs for six months. Gradual accumulation of wheat and other reserves is being considered by the newly constituted Food Defence Plans Department.

The gas mask distribution is only part of the anti-air raid protection. A system has been installed to give quick notice of the arrival of enemy airplanes along the coast.

To stimulate lagging recruiting for the Territorial Army, two anti-aircraft divisions were organized and have sole charge of London. The total strength of the Territorial Army is to be increased from 130,000 to 150,573 men.

Instantly Killed In Auto Accident

AYLESFORD, N. S., Jan. 14—Melvin Stewart, 26, single, was instantly killed near this Annapolis Valley village today when a light truck he was driving left the highway and crashed into a telephone pole. Doctors said his neck was broken in the crash.

Stewart, a native of Freeport, N. S., and Fred Tibert of Little River, N. S., were engaged in a fish business and it was after making deliveries in Aylesford the former was killed.

Representatives On Coronation Commission

(C. F. by Guardian's Special Wire) LONDON, Jan. 14—Canada's representatives on the commission responsible for the forthcoming Coronation of King George VI were announced today as Prime Minister King, Hon. Vincent Massey, Canadian High Commissioner, and G. P. Vanier, secretary of the High Commissioner's office.

The United Kingdom will be represented by those persons who are members of the Coronation Committee of the Privy Council. Prime Minister J. A. Lyons, High Commissioner Bruce, former Governor-General Sir Isaac Isaacs, Sir John Latham and Sir George Rich will act for Australia.

New Zealand's representatives will be Prime Minister Savage, Finance Minister Nash and High Commissioner Jordan.

The South African delegation, previously announced, is Premier Herzog and Charles teWater, the High Commissioner.

The Duke of Gloucester, brother of the King, will be chairman of the Commission.

FIGHT ON TO RETAIN BIBLE IN GERMANY

New Move To Give Anti-Semitic Ren-dition Of Gospel To Appease Nazis.

(C. F. by Guardian's Special Wire) BERLIN, Jan. 14—Extreme Nazis and Catholic church leaders, usually at opposite religious poles, were agreed today in hostility to an effort to give the Bible a new, anti-semitic rendering, denying Jesus was a Jew.

The neopaganists, professing the German faith that rode into favor with the Nazi tide, saw in the translation work of the Evangelical Bishop Weidemann of Bremen an obstacle to their efforts to get rid of the Bible entirely, especially the Old Testament.

Bishop Weidemann published a new rendition of the gospel according to St. John, part of an ambitious Nazi project to retranslate the entire Bible. Within two weeks two editions were issued, totaling 2,000 copies, and the second edition was almost gone.

General Erich von Ludendorff, Germany's Great War quartermaster-general, expressed the neopaganist viewpoint.

"We call the Bible what it is—a deceptive work of man for Jews, Rome and an ambitious priesthood."

The Germanic faith movement is trying to suppress the Bible and draw Christians of all faiths from the church.

"Thousands of upright people are leaving the church; when are you going to resign? We give advice free."

Thus read an advertisement in a Stuttgart newspaper, giving the address of the local office of the Germanic faith.

WOULD TAX "TRAVELLING STORES"

(C. F. by Guardian's Special Wire) WINDSOR, N. S., Jan. 14—The West Hants municipal council in annual session today was asked to levy a license of $50 on "travelling grocery stores" and other peddlers.

Twenty-five merchants signed a petition saying the travelling stores which operate in many sections of rural Nova Scotia should be subject to a form of taxation that would equal the amount paid by regular merchants for their property.

MRS. WILLIAM H. MOASE

A wide circle of friends learned with regret of the passing of Mrs. Wm. H. Moase, New Annan, whose death occurred at her home January 7th after a long illness.

The deceased formerly Miss Robina Cairns, was born in Freeport Dec. 11th, 1856, and was a daughter of the late Robert and Mrs. Cairns.

Of character she was a true Christian woman, loved by all who knew her and always ready to help those in need.

Before her marriage she was a well known school teacher. Besides her sorrowing husband there are left to mourn three sons and one daughter, namely Harry of Charlottetown, Robert of New Annan, Albert and Louise at home.

The funeral service was held from her late residence Saturday afternoon to the People's Cemetery, Kensington. Rev. B. C. Salter officiating.

"The Lord is My Shepherd" and "Forever with the Lord" were very nicely rendered.

Negro Awaits Trial On Murder Count

(A. P. by Guardian's Special Wire) NEW YORK, Jan. 14—Major Greene, 33, negro porter, tonight awaited trial on a charge of murdering Mary Robinson Case, pretty Queens housewife, after authorities said his pleas of innocence had been battered down by a flood of bloody evidence.

Conviction carries a mandatory sentence of death in the electric chair.

District Attorney Charles P. Sullivan said the wiry little negro confessed after he was confronted with an array of evidence which he thought he had destroyed.

Continuing the top-speed tempo which marked the affair from the time the 25-year-old victim's body was found in the bathtub of her apartment Monday night, Sullivan immediately began laying plans for a trial, possibly within three weeks.

His first step was to go before the grand jury to seek an indictment charging first degree murder.

Bill: "Tom, are you ever troubled with sleeplessness?"
Tom: "I am. Some nights I don't sleep three hours."
Bill: "I pity you, then. I've got it awfully bad. I've been afflicted now for about three years. The doctor calls it 'neuro insomnia paralytica.'"
Tom (grunting): "I've had it about six months; but we call it a baby."
