TORONTO, ONT., Jan. 22nd, 1900.

DR. A. MCKAY JORDAN,
Mgr. Boston Optical Co.,
Charlottetown, P. E. I.

DEAR SIR:—
I regret to say that owing to unforeseen circumstances that I will not be able to get a competent Optician at a reasonable salary to relieve you. Now the only thing to be done is to close everything out at once REGARDLESS of cost, and you to come here. Make slaughtering prices regardless of value. Hurry on just as soon as possible.

Yours hurriedly,
M. G. THOMPSON.

Now we will close out everything in the Eyeglass and Spectacle line at SLAUGHTERING PRICES! Come at once if you want a fine pair of Glasses at prices never heard of before. I will remain and make all tests free until the entire stock is SOLD OUT. Come early and get your pick. By patronizing this sale you will get quality and style combined, with prices that will justify you to wear the best. You know what you paid for them before we came here, and you know what you will have to pay after we have closed out.

Yours respectfully,

A. MCKAY JORDAN,

THE hockey match at the old exhibition rink last evening, between the Crescents and Wanderers, resulted in an easy victory for the former team on a score of 8 goals to 1. In the first half the Crescents shot four goals, while the Wanderers were blanked. In the second half the Crescents scored four more goals, while the Wanderers got but one. The game was too one-sided to be interesting. W. A. Henry gave satisfaction as referee. —Hx. Chronicle.

THE Halifax Herald of Feb. 3rd publishes an extract from an interesting letter published in the columns of THE GUARDIAN some days ago. The Herald adds:—"Arthur Mellish was lieutenant of a military company in P. E. I. and A. D. C. to the governor, and like other plucky Canadians, he was one of the first to offer his services for the war. Finding he could not get an appointment as an officer, he enlisted as a private in G. company (N. B. and P. E. I.) of the first contingent."

ONE of the chief requirements of the traveller and tourist is first-class hotel accommodation. Under the head of hotel happenings the Maine Central, a journal of travel says: "The Hotel Dufferin, at St. John N. B., is always doing something neat. Its Christmas bill of fare was most attractive, with "Christmas Greeting" on the cover in embossed silver and the hotel crest in the lower corner. Inside on the title page is the bigger, dressed in his attractive red coat and sounding the reveille, a welcome call to a dinner fit to set before the Queen of England. The menu is shown on other pages bordered with sprigs of holly printed in red and green. The whole affair is tied with a heavy silk cord and tassel and reflects the taste shown by the management of this well known hotel which is enjoying a continued extensive patronage under J. J. McCaffrey."

It behoves all careful buyers of whitewear and household goods, to compare quality as well as price. An article may be low in price, yet worthless. Quality tells every time. To be absolutely safe compare! If you buy a worthless article, at no matter how low a price, you lose your dollars. Stanley Bros 3 2 i

ONLY ONE MORE MONTH

Our celery will only hold out about one more month. Some of the wise ones are ordering a quality to be kept in reserve for them. We have held on to the best for the last (the famous English Red Celery.) In this respect we resemble children who keep the most dainty part of their lunch to the last, and at the rate it is going, the time will soon come when there will not even be a last. The moral to the above is quite plain, no need to read between the lines. It is, enjoy it while it lasts.

We also have Hubbard Squash, Cape Cod and Island Cranberries, Spanish and Canadian Onions, Brussels Sprouts, Red Cabbage, White Cabbage, Carrots, Beets, Parsnips, Turnips, Beans, Peas, Parsleys, Lettuce, and Mushrooms in a few days at Gay's stalls. Market. Telephone 180.
