A DOPE FIEND — A dope fiend who made things uncomfortable for a number of Sackville citizens about two years ago, and who eventually was arrested by Chief Bowes, turned up again yesterday at the C.N.R. station. Officer Babcock ordered the man out of town after he had caused minor trouble at the depot. At the time the man was arrested two years ago he claimed Prince Edward Island as his home. Chief Bowes took two small bottles of dope as well as a "needle" off the annoying traveller on that occasion.—Sackville Post.

ROBERTS—MacRAE — At the Cornwall United Church Parsonage on Dec. 29, the Rev. J. R. Skinner united in marriage Ruby Erna, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Roberts and Kenneth Matheson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander MacRae, Glasgow Road. The bride who was attended by her sister Ruth was attired in a two piece costume of Fanconne crepe in Aqua shade. The groom was supported by Mr. James Crabbe of Charlottetown After the ceremony the bridal party motored to the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. James Crabbe, Villa Avenue, where a dainty supper was served. The happy young couple left the following morning for Hamilton, Ont., where they will spend the winter months with the groom's brother Melvin and Mrs. MacRae. For travelling the bride wore a black boucle coat with large fox collar and accessories to match. Their many friends wish Mr. and Mrs. MacRae every happiness.

BRIDAL SHOWER — On Monday evening, Dec. 20th the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Roberts Glasgow Road was the scene of a very happy occasion when upwards of one hundred guests assembled to do honor to their daughter Ruby Erna, prior to her marriage. To the strains of the wedding march played by Mrs. Chester Ford, the bride to be was escorted to the living room which was tastefully decorated in pink and white by her cousin Vaunda Watts As the guest of honor took her seat, beneath a large white bell a prettily decorated basket was wheeled in by her little niece Betty Ford and cousin Elwood Ford dressed as bride and groom. The gifts which were numerous and costly testifying to the popularity of the bride, were opened by Mrs. Lincoln MacRae and Mrs. Vernon MacRae, Miss Helen Ford read the accompaning good wishes to the bride, while Mrs. Ivan Turner arranged them on the table. Ruby in her very pleasant manner gave the usual Thank You to all present and an extended invitation to visit her in her new home. After the singing of For She's A Jolly Good Fellow, lunch was served by the ladies. The remainder of the evening was spent in dancing, music being furnished by Arthur Cudmore, Charlottetown accompanied by his sister, Mrs. Chester Ford

Taylor—McGibbon Nuptials

A quiet but pretty wedding was solemnized in Wesley Memorial United Church Wednesday afternoon, December 29, at 2.30 o'clock, when Rev. J. H. Freestone united in marriage, Jessie Carolyn, daughter of Mr and Mrs. William F. McGibbon, of Moore's Mills, Charlotte County, N.B., with Corporal Reginald Earl Taylor, son of Mr. and Mrs. R.G Taylor of Charlottetown, P.E.I.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, Charles McGibbon, of Sackville was gowned in white crepe fashioned on Princess lines with sweetheart neckline long sleeves with points over hand buttoned down the back with self covered buttons. She wore a floor-length veil held in place with orange blossoms, and carried a bouquet of Better Time roses and Baby's Breath.

The bridesmaid, Miss Joan Taylor, sister of the groom wore heavenly blue chiffon fashioned after the bride's dress and matching Juliet cap. Her arm bouquet was of pink carnations.

Cpl. El. Johnston was the groomsman, while the ushers were Walter Fowler and Bert Trerice.

For the nuptials the bride's mother wore a gown of brown crepe with matching accessories and a bouquet of pink carnations. The groom's mother chose a gown of grey crepe with black accessories and her bouquet was of pink carnations.

Miss Marion Murray presided at the organ and played the Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin as the bride entered the church, while for the Recessional she played Mendelssohn's Wedding March During the signing of the register, LAC. Jack Taylor, brother of the groom rendered in pleasing voice "Until."

Following the nuptial ceremony, the bridal party and guests motored to the Queen Hotel where a reception was held and a buffet luncheon was served. The bride's table was centered with a three-tiered wedding cake and Autumn flowers decorated the dining room. Rev. J.H. Freestone proposed the toast to the bride, which was fittingly responded to by the groom.

After the reception the happy couple left amidst a shower of confetti and good wishes for a honeymoon trip to be spent in New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island. For travelling the bride wore a rose wool suit, muskrat coat with black accessories and a corsage of yellow roses.

The bride is a graduate of the Provincial Normal School, Fredericton, and of the Margaret Eaton School of Toronto, while the groom is a member of the instrument branch of the Royal Canadian Air Force stationed at No. 8 S.F.T S. here.

Out-of-town guests at the ceremony included Mrs. W. F. McGibbon, Moore's Mills, Charlotte County; Mr. and Mrs. R.G. Taylor and Miss Joan Taylor, Charlottetown, and Charles McGibbon of Sackville.

Flight Of Film Sleuth Forms Basis Of Story

A detective's efforts to clear himself of a murder charge by bringing the real criminals to justice, forms the theme of "The Falcon Strikes Back," newest of the RKO Radio film series about the suave sleuth, with Tom Conway playing the Falcon, the character created and popularized by Michael Arlen.

The Falcon's well-known susceptibility for a pretty girl gets him in trouble as soon as the picture opens. An alluring damsel decoys him into a trap, and he awakens to find the police have over-whelming evidence against him in a daring bond-theft which also involved the murder of a bank messenger.

His only chance of freeing himself is to catch the real criminals, and this he sets out to do with exciting results. With the aid of his loyal pal, Goldy, and an alert newspaperwoman he locates the crooks' headquarters at an expensive resort hotel. He goes there, and a series of exciting events ensue, with a number of mysterious persons taking part in the suspense-packed "The Falcon Strikes Back" which opens today at the Capitol Theatre.

Painful, Pus Filled Boils the Cause of Much Misery

If you suffer from boils you know how sick and miserable they made you feel.

Boils are an outward indication of impurities in the system, and just when you think you are rid of one another crops up to take its place and prolong your misery. All the lancing and poulticing you can do may not stop more coming.

To help overcome boils you should purify the blood, so why not give that old, reliable blood medicine, Burdock Blood Bitters, a chance to show what it will do in helping you get rid of them? Thousands have used it for this purpose for the past 60 years. Why not you?

CLOUD OVER CORATON

"There are advantages in living on a farm," Derek remarked.

"So I'd heard," replied Peter, "but I never realized it until now".

"We earn it" Derek said as he poured out tea. "You will realize that, too if you stay at Coraton." Peter chuckled as he buttered a scone.

"You'll have to use a club to get rid of me. And this time yesterday I was eating a war bun and drinking warm ditch water."

It pleased Derek to see how Peter enjoyed the good things. By the time they had finished the sun was out and Derek suggested a walk round the farm.

"Rather!" said Peter, and off they went. Three hundred acres takes a deal of walking over, and it was two hours before they got back to the house. Derek pulled up.

"Looks better now the sun is out, doesn't it?" he said rather wistfully.

"A lot". Peter agreed. He gazed at his friend

"What's up, old man?"

"Nothing," said Derek hastily.

"But there is Listen! You've got a wonderful place, I know enough of land to see that this farm is in fine fettle. It's lovely country, good air, you're practically out of the war and I know it's the sort of life you've always longed for. But I know you, too, and instead of jumping for joy, you're in the dumps. Own up! Isn't there money to run the show?"

"Enough," Derek answered hastily

"Is your leg bothering you?"

"No, I shall always be a bit lame, but I get about all right." Peter frowned

"You're not in love?" he growled. Derek's laugh destroyed all Peter's doubts on this point.

"Come into the house." Derek said "and I'll try to explain."
