The Story Of Cape Hatfield And The Apparition

HALIFAX, April 26.—One of the stories of the "Unknown" which were retold during the recent American manifestations at Caledonia Mills and while Dr. Frank W. Prince, New York, of the American Research, was conducting his investigations into the mysteries was that which concerned Captain George A. Hatfield, well-known deep-sea mariner of Parrboro, N. S.

In the spring of 1876 Captain Hatfield left Cienfuegos, Cuba, in the barque J. T. Smith, bound for Boston with a load of sugar. On the night of April 26, with the weather clear and the wind favorable, Captain Hatfield retired leaving the mate in charge of the ship. He had been sleeping for some time when he was suddenly awakened by what seemed to be a man shaking him by the right shoulder and telling him to keep the vessel off one quarter of a point. Aroused from his slumber the Captain saw a man disappearing through the cabin door. Thinking it was the mate he went back and questioned him, but the mate, expressing much surprise assured him that he had no one in the cabin.

By this time a thunder-storm had suddenly broken, but wind still blew from a favorable quarter. Captain Hatfield went below and was soon asleep. The same messenger as before awoke him and he was able to distinguish, before the visitor disappeared on deck that he was dressed in a gray suit and wore a white straw hat. When the Captain went again on deck no sign could be seen of the stranger.

On the following day at noon the lookout sighted what he thought to be a lighthouse. Captain Hatfield thought that near should be near and ran for the object. It was soon seen to be a schooner waterlogged and sinking and on closer approach was found to be the American schooner, D. Talbot. A boat was sent to her and Captain Amesbury of the distressed vessel, his wife and young son and several of the crew were rescued. Within a short time the disabled schooner sank.

PAINS IN BACK AND SIDES

Relieved by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Lindsay, Ontario.—"I used to have very bad pains in my back and side and I was unable to do my work. I tried many medicines but they did not help. I saw Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound advertised in the Toronto Globe and now that I have helped me I recommend it to all of my neighbors. I keep it in the house all the time and I feel that it is worth a sound of bells. Elizabeth J. Lindsay, 13 St. Paul St., Lindsay, Ont.

It may cause your back to ache or a pain in your side, it may make you nervous and irritable. You may be able to keep up and around, but you do not feel good. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a medicine that will ease the cause of these troubles and restore them to normal health.

Go To Church Or Pay Stiff Fine Latest Scheme

This Method of Fining Proposed to Secure Better Church Attendance

LONDON, April 26.—The alternative of going to church on Sunday or paying a fine is suggested by the Rev. Robert Forman Horton, one of England's most noted Non-conformist ministers, as a means of raising sufficient revenue to run the country without plunging into bankruptcy. Such legislation, he declares, would net 25,000,000 pounds a year.

Dr. Horton's suggestion is said to be based on a law passed in the reign of Edward VI, when anyone absenting himself from church "without lawful or reasonable excuse" was fined one shilling. The law was repealed, but reenacted and rigidly enforced in subsequent reigns.

The fifty or more churches in the square mile around the Bank of England contained full congregations in those days, but few persons enter them on week days except American tourists, and the Sunday congregations, Dr. Horton declares "do not exceed a baker's dozen". The Bishop of London has even gone so far as to suggest that some of them be demolished and the valuable sites sold to provide funds with which churches could be built in other parts of the city.

This suggestion brought a deluge of complaints upon the Bishop, but strange to say, they were not from persons identified with the church affairs. Almost without exception they came from financiers, who maintained that the sight of these old churches served a very good purpose in softening the hearts of "money-mad crowds" who gazed upon them as they hurried by.

OTTAWA, April 25.—A delegation representing the Tanners and Shoe Manufacturers of Canada, waked upon Mr. Fielding, Minister of Finance, this morning at a place before him "in view of tariff matters." Mr. Fielding announced some days ago that he would be unable to receive tariff delegations after the 22nd of the month, but it is understood that this is a postponed appointment from an earlier date.
