SPRING VALLEY W. I.

The 13th annual meeting of the Spring Valley Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. W. J. Harrington. Thirteen members paid dues. One new member was welcomed. Meeting opened as usual. The president thanked the members for their co-operation and help during her term of office. Two sick calls were made and fruit taken. It was suggested blinds and towels were needed for the school.

The secy-treasurer gave an itemized account of the year's work showing a balance on hand of $89.69. A letter was read from the they would show films in the hall Nov. 29th if suitable. Institute members decided to sell candy and apples. Committee reported the proceeds of the Halloween dance were $43.86.

The election of officers was as follows:

President, Mrs. Fred Profit; vice-president, Mrs. Camillus Gillis; secy-treasurer, Mrs. Hiram Harrington, re-elected; directors, Mrs. M. Brennan, Mrs. Wesley Cole and Mrs. Chas. McLellan; auditors, Mrs. Dan Bryanton and Mrs. Harry Sudbury; Red Cross convener, Mrs. Robt. Glover; sick committee, Mrs. Dan Bryanton and Mrs. Chas. McLellan; school, Mrs. Robt.

Glover; program, Mrs. Wesley Cole, Mrs. Keith Harrington and Mrs. Hiram Harrington.

Each member was asked to donate a flour bag at the next meeting and to send to the Red Cross for sewing and knitting.

Mrs. Robt. Glover invited members for the December meeting; roll call an exchange of gifts. A delicious lunch was served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. Keith Harrington. Meeting then closed with the National Anthem.

Quite a number from this district had the pleasure of hearing Colonel Drew speak when he addressed a large audience in the Empire Theatre and were indeed greatly impressed with the appearance of both he and Mrs. Drew.

This community was shocked and saddened to learn of the passing of Mrs. John Doyle whose husband was a former resident of North Rustico. Those who knew her will remember her as a sincere Christian friend. Deepest sympathy is extended to the sorrowing family.

Mr. Stanley Orr arrived in St. John Friday evening where he was met by his brother Leith. Stanley plans to remain there for the winter months and he will be greatly missed by his friends here, but their very best wishes go with him.

Race fans enjoyed the last race of the season at Parkview race track. Messrs. Alyre and Amos Gallant who are the owners of this enterprising concern, gave the use of the track to the members of New Glasgow ice racing club for the purpose of raising funds to help out with the winter's fun. Beautiful prizes were donated by interested merchants and others in these terms, the sport of kings.

The Sunbeam Mission Band met at the home of Miss Sheila Dickieson Nov. 12th. In the absence of the president, Miss Marion Stevenson, conducted the meeting opening same by singing on verse of Jesus Bids Us Shine followed by repeating the purpose and prayer in unison. Minutes of previous meeting read and adopted. Roll call answered by 11 members, also four visitors present. It was moved by Sheila Dickieson and seconded by Doris Andrew that next meeting be on Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Andrew where program will be arranged for special service. Collection $5.05. Commission on calendars $1.05. Devotional period was opened by repeating the 23rd psalm in unison. Prayer for Miss Holt missionary in China by Sheila Dickieson. Mrs. Gough gave a splendid lesson on the missionary work in China which is very important in this day when one realizes that the Chinese make one quarter of the world's population. The repeating of the Misaph Benediction brought the meeting to a close. Mrs. R.L. Dickieson in her hospitable manner served a delicious lunch after which thanks were given to Sheila and her mother.
