He told the meeting that Rotary will be forty years old next February and he congratulated the Summerside club on its excellent showing last year, which was the club's first year. He advised the members to cooperate with each other and with their officers so that when this year is ended they can look back on a year of accomplishment.

P. O. J. Farquharson Home on Leave

(Toronto Telegram, Dec. 6)

Less than three weeks ago, Pilot Officer Jack Farquharson, D.F.C., 27-year-old son of Mrs. Rae Farquharson, of 117 Glengrove Ave, W., Toronto, formerly of Charlottetown, P.E.I., was receiving treatment in a British hospital for "from 60 to 70" shrapnel wounds he received August 29th when the Lancaster, of which he was navigator, was attacked by a Junker-88 ten miles off Sweden.

P.O. Farquharson was one of some 80 R.C.A.F. personnel who arrived today at the Union Station, home on leave. Among them were airmen who had seen operational service over Europe, the Mediterranean, the Middle and the Far East.

"Five of the crew were pretty badly shot up, including myself," Farquharson told The Telegram. "We were on our way to Stett'n when attacked by the Junker just off Sweden. Although pretty badly wounded, I managed to hold on until our ship got over Denmark. The wireless operator, an Australian, took over then."

Bullets from the Junker not only seriously wounded members of the crew, but put completely out of commission all the Lancaster's navigation instruments. The young Toronto airman smiled at this point in his story: "We had to come in using unorthodox means of flying."

Just previous to making the latter flight, Farquharson also participated in an operation over Stuttgart, during which two of his aircraft's four engines were "knocked out." One engine completely came off from the wing, he said.

Shot At By Navy

"We tried to land on the beachhead near Caen," he related, "but everyone started shooting at us: the Jerries on the mainland and later the Royal Navy over the Channel. I guess the Navy didn't know who we were. With only two engines keeping us up, we made England safely. The old ship just wouldn't let us down."

REPORT POLES CONSCRIPTED

NEW YORK, Dec. 19—(CP)—A Polish Telegraph Agency dispatch from London, quoting the Polish underground radio, said today that the Germans had ordered the immediate conscription of 360,000 Poles for "military auxiliary" service against the impending Russian offensive in Poland.

HEAVY PASSENGER TRAFFIC —Local railway officials report both freight and passenger traffic to be exceptionally heavy, taxing to its utmost all available rolling stock on the Island division. The passenger traffic has been heavier for the last few days than at any corresponding period in the past and is increasing daily. Railway authorities propose, beginning Thursday, to run a special train daily up to and including Saturday in order to take care of all Air Force personnel from the Charlottetown, Summerside, and Mount Pleasant stations who may be going on Christmas leave.

"THANKFUL TO ARRIVE"—They are having their own transportation difficulties on the mainland, as may be judged from the following item of news received from an Islander in Montreal: "We reached here at 3.30 p.m. Sunday instead of 8.10 a.m. according to schedule. The engine broke down, and a substitute had to be procured; then ahead of us there was a collision of two freight trains, both of which were more or less put out of commission. We were thankful to arrive when we did, for supplies ran short, and half the passengers had to go breakfastless, while all had to go without a midday meal."

ROTARY GOVERNOR'S VISIT —A visitor to Charlottetown this week was Mr. John MacMillan, North Sydney, district governor of Rotary, who met local Rotary committee chairmen and received their reports. He was particularly interested in the work done in raising funds for the treatment of crippled children. Dr. W. J. P. MacMillan, O.B.E., presenting the report on this phase of the club's activities told the Governor that some $30,000 had been raised and some 4,000 children examined and treated as a result since the work was started.

FUNERAL YESTERDAY —The funeral of the late Mrs. John N. Stewart was held yesterday afternoon from the Crossroads Baptist Church. Services at church and grave were conducted by the Rev. Sterling B. Sackhouse. The pallbearers were: Byron Jones, Silvain Peppy, E. Corragh, Amby Duffy, Malcolm McDonald, and Wellington McNeill. Interment was in the adjoining cemetery.

FERRY DIRECTORS' MEETING —An increase over 1943 of 5,003 passengers, 573 autos and 177 trucks on the Northumberland Ferries Ltd., service this year was reported at a recent meeting of the directors. The total traffic on the ferry was: Passengers 44,460; autos 5,788; trucks 1,458. It was stated that the "Prince Nova" will be on the marine slip at Pictou all winter and will undergo a thorough overhaul. It is planned to install a new auxiliary diesel engine and generator as a standby to handle the electric equipment and plans are being made to have her back on the run on May 1, 1945. Consideration is being given to the possibility of having an up-to-date hotel at Wood Islands to take care of the travelling public. Inquiries are now being made for a suitable site. The necessity of port improvements at both terminals, but especially at Caribou, as well as the importance of a second boat capable of carrying a full load of trucks was also discussed.

SERVICEMEN ENTERTAINED—A group of talented American artists entertained the men of Beach Grove Training Centre yesterday evening to a variety show which was received with much appreciation. Later the group, a part of the American organization known as the U.S.O., went to the local air port and entertained the men there. The show consisted of some very fine comedian work, singing, step dancing, etc. The group has been entertaining personnel of the Armed Forces throughout the Maritimes and will entertain the air men in Summerside this evening. Canny Scot Fails To Make Deal For Helmets

(By The Canadian Press)

OTTAWA, Dec. 19—Alexander McPherson Wilson, Ottawa's hard-bargaining Scot from Aberdeen, and L. K. Garwood of the War Assets Corporation failed to strike a bargain today for 30,000 army helmets, but both hope an agreement will yet be reached.

Wilson was willing to pay 30 cents apiece for the helmets, but he wanted the War Assets Corporation to pay delivery charges.

"The War Assets people want to sell those 30,000 helmets worse than I want to buy them," said Wilson, who planned to re-sell the helmets as hens' nests. "They'll be back with another offer, and at my terms."
