THE SUMMERSIDE GUARDIAN
and PRINCE COUNTY CHRONICLE

Sunday Services At Summerside

Special Christmas music was rendered in the different churches at Summerside on Sunday.

TRINITY UNITED CHURCH

Rev. Mr. Pierce of Charlottetown was the speaker in Trinity United Church and delivered appropriate sermons both morning and evening on the birth of the Saviour. In the evening the Men's Choir rendered special Christmas anthems. A men's chorus sang that beautiful carol "Follow the Guiding Star", by Loring. Anthems sung, "O Come to My Heart Lord Jesus", by Ambrose, and "There Were Shepherds," from the cantata, The Christmas King. Taking solo parts were L. B. Crue, Mrs. Frank Daley and Albert Huestis.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH

At the morning service in the Christian Church special music was rendered. The anthem chosen was "The Birth of Our Saviour." The solo part was taken by Miss Nina Schurman. Rev. Carlyle Watterworth preached an eloquent sermon, his subject being "Good Tidings" taken from the text St. Luke, Chap. 2, Verses 10 and 11. In the evening his sermon was "Behold a greater than Solomon is here", from St. Luke, Chap. 11, Verse 31. The beautiful anthem, "Around the World" was sung by the choir, Mr. Willard Graves taking the solo part. At the morning service, Rev. Mr. Watterworth gave a special address to the children.

BAPTIST CHURCH

The Junior Choir had charge of the special Christmas music on Sunday morning in the Baptist Church. The anthems sung were "Wonderful Star", "Herald of Hope" Lullaby. "This Glad Day" was the opening hymn and "Chiming of Bells." Special parts were taken by Mrs. Jack MacLeod, Miss Ruth Dodds and Ilene Huestis. The children are to be congratulated on their beautifully rendered program of music. At the evening service the choir sang the anthem, "Around the World", solo parts being taken by Mrs. Currie, Mrs. Leard and Mrs. MacLeod. Mrs. Colin Stewart sang the Christmas Glory Song and Miss Ruth Simmons rendered very effectively "Bethlehem." Another anthem sung was "O Little Town of Bethlehem." An Obligato by Mrs. Currie and solo by Mrs. MacLeod, "Lo There Were Shepherds," were special numbers. Rev. Mr. Wilson preached appropriate sermons at both services.—S.

ST. PAUL'S CHURCH

Christmas Day was ushered in at St. Paul's Church with the observance of Midnight Mass. The sacred edifice was filled to the doors, many not being able to obtain seats. The altar was brilliantly lighted and decorated in the Christmas colours of red and green. To the right of the altar was depicted the scene of the Nativity of Our Lord.

Before the service, a quartette of male voices, G. Houghton, J. P. MacInnis, Earle Campbell and Mr. Coffin sang that beautiful carol "Silent Night." Leonard's Mass in B. Flat was chosen for the Midnight service, the solo parts being taken by W. H. Noonan, J. P. MacInnis, G. Houghton, Leon LeBlanc and Earle Campbell. The "Adeste Fideles" was sung by Edgar Houghton very effectively. Rev. Fr. O'Hanley was the Celebrant, Rev. Dr. MacLellan, V.G., and Rev. R. V. MacKenzie, of St. Dunstan's University assisting with the Communion. The story of the Nativity of Christ, His lowly birth, and His reception by the people of Bethlehem was told in beautiful language by Rev. R. V. MacKenzie, who delivered the Christmas message to the congregation. The organist played softly during the Communion.

Children's Mass

On Christmas morning at nine o'clock, Rev. Dr. MacLellan, V.G., celebrated the children's Mass, the music for the Mass being sung by a special children's choir. Mass was also celebrated at 7.30—S.

ST. MARY'S CHURCH

St. Mary's Church, Summerside, was filled on Christmas morning for the celebration of the Nativity of Our Lord, which was observed with all the colourful ceremony of the Church of England. Ven. Archdeacon C. de Wolfe White, D.D., was the Celebrant at the Choral Communion service. The setting chosen was Dyke's Communion in G Sharp, which was rendered very exquisitely by a full choir. The solo parts of the Agnus Dei were very beautifully rendered by Miss Dorothy Wyatt. The Archdeacon brought a message of goodwill to his congregation from the beautiful story of Christ's Nativity. A very large number took Communion.

The service at St. John's Church, St. Eleanors, was held at nine o'clock and was attended by the whole parish. The choir rendered very effectively the music for the Holy Communion.—S.

Mystery House Consistently Searched

NEW YORK, Dec. 25—(A.P.)—The eerie house of mystery where Miss Victoria Muspratt lived alone and died alone—by a killer's bludgeon—was searched today for the secret of her death.

Bank books showing deposits of $2,341 were found, but police continued to poke through the littered rooms to determine if rolls of bills, as rumor had it, were hidden there. A killer who believed the tale of secreted wealth and who sought to get it for himself was blamed by investigators for the killing.

Like a spectre in the fog that drifts in from the narrows stands the three-storey death-mansion with its leaky mansard roof. Behind its shutters, always fastened, there was no electricity to help Miss Victoria read her 100-year-old Bible; no running water for her to drink; only an open wood fire in her bleak back parlor for heat and the cooking of her meagre meals—and not one bed.

Perhaps Miss Victoria was afraid to go to bed, for she slept by a window in a great easy chair, nodding over her Bible.

At her elbow was the fireplace. There she boiled water and cooked. For the water she depended on her neighbors since the health department closed her back-yard well.

Every room of the house of death was littered and crammed with a profusion of curios as Victorian as was Miss Muspratt; with 75-year-old magazines, yellow newspapers, creaky furniture and even a wheezy organ.

When Miss Violet, her sister, fell dead of a heart attack in the house six years ago a builder offered Miss Victoria $200,000 for the crumbling structure. She refused.

The theory that Miss Victoria hid money in the house was bolstered by the stories of tradespeople to whom she hobbled on her crutches. They said she paid her bills with notes of large denominations.

Stop Rheumatism At its Source

Rheumatism is caused by uric acid in the blood. Uric, a blood impurity, should be extracted by the kidneys. If kidneys fail, and uric remains, it changes to uric acid which in minute crystals lodges in joints or between muscles causing excruciating pains. Avoid rheumatism by keeping your kidneys in good condition. Flush them every three weeks with Dodd's Kidney Pills—for over three generations the favorite kidney tonic and remedy. Non-habit forming.

GEN. BLOMBERG NOT TO RESIGN AS MINISTER

Denies Report Germany Is Importing Aeroplanes Secretly.

(By Louis P. Lochner)
(Copyright, 1934, by The Associated Press)

BERLIN, Dec. 25—General Werner Von Blomberg, defence minister of Germany, in an intimate half-hour chat today referred all questions regarding military policy to Chancellor Hitler for reply, but otherwise, for the first time in months broke silence to assure the world Germany is not importing aeroplanes secretly.

He declared further that he is not thinking of resigning as defence minister, that he favors universal military training as a substitute for the present professional army, and that Germany's storm-troop labor service may constitute a vast reservoir from which this conscript army will be drawn.

"The question you raise—regarding Germany's position with reference to armaments—is one which of course I am not authorized to answer," the General observed.

"Let me explain, Herr General,' I said, "what prompted my visit to you. Scarcely a week passes but our office is queried concerning Germanys' position with reference to armaments. May I read a few of these queries to you?"

The General nodded. I produced at random a story that deadly new gasses were allegedly being manufactured at Mossburg, Bavaria; the United States senate munitions committee's intimation that military aeroplanes were being smuggled from America to Germany.

An amused smile played about the lips of the Defence Minister.

"You know we read so many absurd statements daily about our military affairs that we have given up even trying to deny their arrant nonsense,' he said "Take the specified charge that we are secretly smuggling aeroplanes from abroad.

"The French, like ourselves know that American planes are among the world's best. The French themselves bought a number of samples of different American types. Why Because they want to test out these types with a view to deciding whether negotiations should be entered into with American constructors for acquiring the right to manufacture them under license.

"But we are neither smuggling planes secretly, nor can those which are thus imported add to our 'potentials de guerre.'"

GREETINGS FROM GOVERNOR AND PREMIER

Following are the Christmas Day messages of His Honor, the Lieutenant Governor, and also of the Premier of the Province, which were broadcast by Station C.H.G.S. on Tuesday, December 25th, through the courtesy of R. T. Holman Limited, Summerside.

The Governor's Message

I am indeed grateful to R. T. Holman Limited for their kindness in granting me the privilege of extending, through their Station C.H.G.S., a brief message of Christmas and New Year's greetings to the citizens of Prince Edward Island and the neighbouring Provinces.

First of all, I wish to take this opportunity of thanking you, my friends, for the many kindnesses and expressions of good will accorded to me in so many different ways during the year now drawing to a close. The knowledge that I have your loyalty and good-will means a great deal to me and is appreciated far more than I am able to express in words.

Since assuming my present high position, I have tried my best to serve the people of this Province to the utmost of my ability. As I look back over the past twelve months, I am conscious of the fact that I have failed in many respects in accomplishing all that I would like to have done, but in the words of the Prince of Wales "To have no failure is to have attempted nothing."

While conditions are not by any means normal, nevertheless we find just cause for encouragement in the unmistakable signs that business in this Province and throughout Canada is on the up-grade and that the future looks brighter and more promising than it has since the dark days of October, 1929. What is true of Prince Edward Island and the Dominion is equally true of the great British Empire, so let us enter upon the New Year with hearts full of gratitude for countless blessings received during 1934; and go forward with a sure trust in the Sovereignty of God with a fervent love and patriotic zeal for our beloved King and Empire, and with an unwavering faith in the destiny of this Dominion and Province such as inspired the Fathers of Confederation to do their work, so that when our day is done it may be said of us that "Providence being their guide, they builded better than they knew."

With my whole heart I wish you one and all a very Merry Christmas and a New Year full of Happiness, Good Health and Prosperity.

GEORGE D. DeBLOIS,
Lieutenant Governor

The Premier's Message

To have this opportunity of sending a message of greeting to the many listeners-in of Radio Station C.H.G.S. is indeed a great privilege.

We of the Maritime Provinces are coming through these difficult times in a manner which compares more than favorably with any other part of Canada. I believe the example of unbounded courage and devotion handed down to us by our pioneer forebears has been of tremendous value to us during the days of depression.

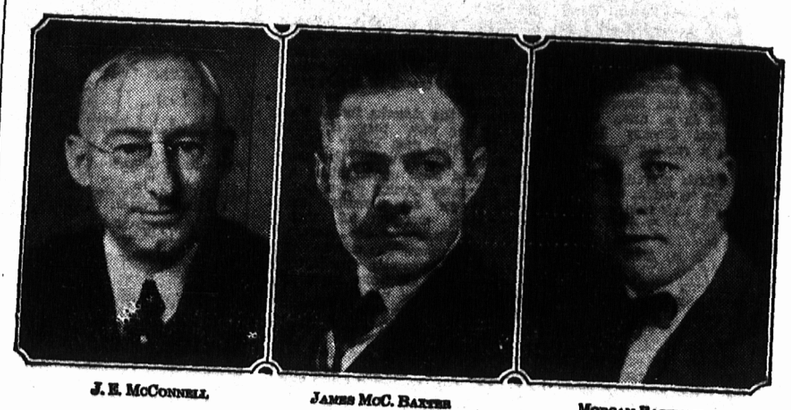
On every side there are indications of improved conditions and I would ask all persons who can possibly do so to endeavor to make Christmas happy for some family in less favoured circumstances. There is a real joy in giving and in helping and there are many opportunities this year.

A very Happy Christmas and all good wishes to the people of Prince Edward Island and to listeners residing in our sister Provinces of Nova Scotia and New Brunswick."

W. J. P. MacMILLAN,
Premier

If vegetables retain their fresh color after cooking, you may be sure that they have retained most of their food value also. Green beans, asparagus and peas will keep their color if added to briskly boiling water and cooked quickly until tender. Drain off the water and serve. Time the cooking so that these vegetables may be served at once, for if left standing in water for reheating later, they change color and develop a strong flavor

One of Canada's Oldest and Largest Advertising Agencies Enlarges Organization



J. E. McCONNELL — JAMES McC. BAXTER — MORGAN EASTMAN

McConnell, Baxter & Eastman Limited to succeed McConnell & Fergusson Limited, known as business leader in Canada for over thirty years.

The now firmly established improvement and confidence in the outlook of the Dominion over the "long pull" is recognized today by the announcement of McConnell & Fergusson Limited, one of Canada's oldest and leading advertising agencies, of the enlargement of their organization under the name of McConnell, Baxter & Eastman Limited. J. E. McConnell, President of the firm is well-known in Canadian business and financial circles. He is nominated for election as a Director of The Bank of Canada, is Vice-President of Canada, Gypsum, Lime & Alabastine (Canada) Limited and a Director of Canada Trust Company, the Northern Life, Brantford Roofing and other businesses. The firm is looked upon as a leader, their monthly chart of Business Conditions appearing regularly in the press across Canada.

The new set-up includes the name of two well-known Canadian advertising men. Major "Jim" Baxter—a member of the firm for the past ten years and senior vice-president is immediate past-president of the Empire Club of Canada and a prominent and popular figure in business and national affairs. A former newspaperman, Major Baxter, became Advertising Manager of Ford Motor Co. of Canada after four years service overseas, joining McConnell & Fergusson as Manager of their Toronto Office. He now goes to Montreal to take over the management of McConnell, Baxter and Eastman at that city, L. J. Benison, formerly Vice-President and Manager at Montreal, having resigned.

Morgan Eastman succeeds Major Baxter as Vice-President in charge of Toronto Office. Before joining McConnell & Fergusson some years ago, Mr. Eastman was head of his own agency in Vancouver, and is well-known in Western Canada. As a Rotarian he served as Governor of Rotary International for the Pacific Northwest. As organizer of Tourist Publicity and sales and advertising director for a consolidated group of lumber mills on the Pacific Coast, he is known as a business organizer of exceptional ability. Morgan Eastman has rapidly forged ahead in the East as Chairman of the Plan and Merchandising Board of the Company. He has just returned from a business trip which took him from Halifax to Vancouver where he addressed business meetings and met leading executives. Mr. Eastman is recognized as a foremost authority on advertising and merchandising. He becomes a Vice-President of the new organization.

These two executives, with Mr. McConnell, form the Plan and Merchandising Board of the agency. Both Major Baxter and Mr. Eastman as vice-presidents of the agency will be actively engaged in the interests of their clients in both Montreal and Toronto.

"The constantly changing trends in merchandising necessitate providing business with the very best in advertising ability and service," stated Mr. McConnell in making the announcement today. "Not only are we aggressively meeting the challenge of highly competitive business changes, but we have already made provision for the continued expansion of Empire Trade by the establishment of an office in London, England, in charge of Major W. D. Moffatt, who is to be elected a Director of the Company. We look forward with confidence to the steady improvement in conditions throughout the Dominion. The daily and monthly reports from our offices at Vancouver, Winnipeg, London, Montreal and Toronto have for some time past reflected the improved purchasing power of Canadians in all parts of the Dominion. Advertisers we serve plan courageously for the future. I believe 1935 and ensuing years will justify their faith and that we can anticipate greatly increased expenditures in newspaper and other forms of advertising."

The theme for worship and discussion was "surrender" an Oxford Group principle. At the close of the Discussion refreshments were served.

The Oldest Colony and the Prince Edward Island Clubs held their annual meeting together Saturday night in the form of a banquet after the Senior Play. ON KEEPING WARM

These last few days are just th.. right ones for producing chills and colds if one is not very careful.

There are certain vulnerable parts of the body that should be kept warm, and so help to create a general feeling of comfort as well as aiding good circulation.

If you are a chilly mortal, then the wrists should be covered with close-fitting cuffs. Dresses should have tight-fitting sleeves, but not so tight as to restrict circulation. Sweaters with closely knitted cuffs help to keep the hands warm also.

The back of the neck between the shoulders is another place that shoulders receive attention in cold weather. Frocks that fit well on the shoulders at the back of the neck, and sweaters that come up fairly high round the base of the neck, are also aids to warmth and general comfort.

The third place that requires well-fitting is the waist. A loose frock often produces a chilly thrill down the back, but one that has a belt or fits the figure closely is much more warming and comfortable.
