PATENT LUMINOUS GOLD GLASS SIGNS AND DOOR PLATES
CAN BE READ IN THE DARK.

The signs are one fourth inch moulded glass. The lettering which is black is placed inside, back of which is a waterproof cement. The outside edge (representing the gold frame) is finished inside with Gold Paint. The white portion back of name is luminous, making the sign readable in the dark. They never fade as only the thick glass covering is exposed to the atmosphere.

For beauty they are unequalled, will last a lifetime and are easily the best signs and nameplates ever produced. Easily attached to door of residence or office or to the building itself with brass fasteners which are furnished gratis. They have a very extensive sale to Doctors, Dentists, Lawyers, Undertakers, Professional Men and private citizens generally besides being used in churches. We put large figures in them for a house number or the number and a person's name both. Drop me a Post Card asking me to call with samples.
Prices from 75c to $1.50.

Mr. Balfour Blushed Like a Girl at the Greeting of his Colleagues in the Commons.

LONDON, July 15.—A. J. Balfour was today formally greeted as Great Britain's premier, and the new regime began its work. The momentous change was marked by only one really dramatic incident, the resignation of Sir Michael Hicks-Beach, the chancellor of the exchequer. It is safe to say that Sir Michael is only the first of several whose names have figured largely before the public in the last half century who now will disappear from the political arena. Nothing absolutely definite is yet settled but the Unionist party expects shortly to hear of the resignations of Earl Halsbury, lord high chancellor; Lord James of Hereford, chancellor of the Duchy of Lancaster, and Earl Cadogan, lord lieutenant of Ireland.

For Sir Michael Hicks-Beach's place, Right Hon. R. W. Hanbury, now president of the board of agriculture, is the favorite. In the pending reconstruction which may not be completed for some time, Mr. Balfour will remain leader in the house of commons and first lord of the treasury with Mr. Chamberlain still in command of the colonies as his first lieutenant. If Lord Halsbury, on account of his great age, fills predictions by retiring, Lord Alverston will succeed to the woolsack, Sir Richard Henry Collins becoming lord chief justice, Sir R. B. Finlay succeeding him as master of the rolls; Sir E. A. Carson, now solicitor general, becoming a attorney-general and probably Charles Alfred Cripps, attorney-general to the Prince of Wales, succeeding to the solicitor-generalship.

On one point the members of the house of commons, who throughout the day animatedly discussed the new state of affairs, seemed practically unanimous and that was the Austen Chamberlain, financial secretary to the treasury, would be promoted, a majority mentioning him as likely to succeed Mr. Hanbury should the latter take the chancellorship of the exchequer.

There is absolutely no serious anticipation of a general election.

Mr. Balfour's first appearance in the house of commons as premier, was characteristic of the men and of the assembly. Peers come into the stranger's gallery and leaned expectantly upon the rails. Sir Michael Hicks-Beach sat gloomily among the colleagues he was soon to leave. Suddenly the clatter ceased and there stole from behind the speaker's chair the long, thin figure of the prime minister. From all sides of the house there rose a chorus of "Hear, hear," the members rose and kept up the applause till Mr. Balfour, who sidled along the treasury benches nearly falling over Sir Michael Hicks-Beach's feet, reached his seat and buried his head in a voluminous question paper. He was blushing like a school girl.

Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, the Liberal leader, stopped further business by making such a feeling personal reference to Mr. Balfour as is seldom heard in legislative bodies, and which was delivered with an emotion that quite unnerved the premier. When Mr. Balfour rose to reply the ovation was renewed but his voice faltered and he was only just able, hesitatingly, to declare that he was

The powder puff may help to hide the ravages of time but it avails little to hide the ravages of disease. When the face is disfigured by eruptions, the treatment must go below the surface to the blood, which is corrupt and impure.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures disfiguring eruptions which are caused by impure blood. It cures scrofulous sores, erysipelas, boils, pimples, eczema, salt-rheum and other eruptive diseases which impure blood breeds and feeds.

"I was troubled with eczema from the crown of my head to the sole of my feet," writes Mrs. Ella Quick, of Cass City, Tuscola Co., Mich. "Could not walk at times nor wear my shoes. Thought there was no help for me—at least the doctor said there was none. I went to see friends at Christmas time and there heard of the good that Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery had done for them, and was advised to try it at once. For fear that I might neglect it my friend sent to the village and got a bottle and made me promise that I would take it. I had been getting worse all the time. I took thirteen bottles of the 'Golden Medical Discovery' and ten vials of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, and used 'All-Healing Salve,' which made a complete cure. It was slow, but sure. I was taking the medicine about eight months. 'I would say to all who read this; try Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery before wasting time and money.'

The sole motive for substitution is to permit the dealer to make the little more profit paid by the sale of less meritorious medicines. He gains; you lose. Therefore accept no substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery."

Dr. Pierce's Pellets cleanse the clogged system from accumulated impurities.

ANOTHER EARTHQUAKE AT SALONICA.

Therapia, European Turkey, July 14.—Another severe shock of earthquake is reported to have occurred at Salonica.

U. S. BATTLESHIP DAMAGED
AT CHRISTIANIA.

CHRISTIANIA, NORWAY, July 14.—While the United States Battleship Illinois was standing in the harbor to-day, leading the squadron, her steering gear failed and her helm jammed hard to starboard, with the ship headed straight for the shore. Both anchors were let go and her engines were backed promptly, but the port anchor chain parted. The ship struck an obstruction and a hole was punched in her bottom.

COULDN'T EAT TACKS.

TORONTO, July 14.—Princess Rita, the young elephant imported by the Toronto Street Railway Company at a cost of $1,200 and presented to the city's zoo at Riverdale Park, died today. The animal somehow got a big carpet tack into one of its teeth and could not chew its food, dying of indigestion.

WRITING ACADEMY
CH'TOWN, P. E. I.

This College will re-open for the fall and winter course on Thursday, August 14, Prox.

Intending students will consult their own interests by entering as soon as possible after the date of opening. Last year we were most successful in placing our students in positions. To enable us to do the same this year they must enter early in the session. There are lots of splendid positions waiting for competent persons to fill.

Business men are acquainted with our course and method of instruction and apply to us for competent young men and women. Come and get a live education; if with some backbone in it. If, perchance, you have made a mistake in the past, try an education in which you will be rewarded as you exert yourself. The past is gone, the future is yours. A special course in Shorthand and Typewriting will be given as soon as the term begins. "Phonography, What it is and What it Does," by Ben Pitman; also full particulars relative to the College will be cheerfully furnished on application to
