MRS. J. F. REEVES

After an illness of several months duration, the death occurred at her home in Sydney, N. S., of Mrs. Edith May Reeves, widow of the late Capt. J. F. Reeves. Although her death was not unexpected it came as a great shock to her family and friends. During her illness she was tenderly cared for by her family.

The late Mrs. Reeves was highly esteemed in the community in which she lived and was beloved by all who knew her. She has left to cherish the memory of a kind and loving mother, five sons, Arthur E., Alden W., and Sidney A of Sydney, N. S., Milton J. and George W. of Halifax, N. S., also three daughters, Marion, Mrs. Kenneth Howett of Port Hawkesbury, (Irene,) Mrs. Robert Crooks, Sydney, N. S., (Ena), Mrs. John Buchanan of Sydney, and several grand children. Also left to mourn the loss of a dear sister are, one brother, Capt. G. A. Peters of Sydney and six sisters.

Mrs. Bessie Graves, Moncton, N. B., Mrs. W. C. Stewart, Calgary, Alta., Mrs. C. B. Fraser, Medford Mass., Mrs. D. M. MacDonald, Montague, Mrs. Mildred Beaman, Charlottetown, Miss Bernice Peters, Calgary, Alta.

Through all pain at times she'd smile
A smile of heavenly births,
And when the Angels called her Home
She smiled farewell to Earth.

PATRICK TRAINOR

On Sunday, March 14th. the many friends and neighbors of Patrick Trainor, South Melville were shocked and grieved to hear the sad news of his sudden call to the great beyond. He had been around his various duties as usual and although he had contracted the prevailing cold, nothing serious was anticipated and his unexpected death early that morning was a distinct shock to his family. His pastor Father Keefe was hastily summoned and administered the last Rites of the Catholic Church of which he had always been an adherent. Born in 1869 son of Patrick and Mary A. Trainor, he had spent his whole life on the homestead at South Melville. His wife the former Annie Dougherty predeceased him twenty-five years ago. Also predeceased are his brothers Frank and James E. of New York City as well as four sisters: Mrs. James Bradley, Charlottetown, Mrs. William Cullen, North Wiltshire, Mrs. Thomas P. Cass, North River and Miss Teresa Trainor of New York City, Rev. Frederick L. Cass of St. Dunstan's College and Rev. John D. Cass S. J. of the Jesuit seminary, Toronto, are nephews of the deceased. Of a genial, unassuming disposition he had many friends and being gifted with a keen ear for music and a talented violinist, his renditions of old time music was a source of pleasure, much in demand and always appreciated by everyone. He is sadly missed in the home by his daughter, Mary and son Charles while there are also left to mourn two other daughters, Mrs. Daniel Curley of Jamaica Plain, Mass. and Mrs. Edward Daly of Somerville, Mass. Another daughter Eileen, Mrs. Pius Moran, Boston, Mass., predeceased him seven years ago. His funeral took place to St. Joseph's Church, Kelly's Cross, March 16th. under the direction of F. J. Trainor and son. The pallbearers were George Villett, John Trainor, James Flood, Harry Dunsford, Peter Toole and Peter Greenan. Requiem Mass was sung by Rev. W. A. Keefe who also read the committal prayers in the adjoining cemetery where the remains were laid away to await the final Resurrection. A large number of Mass cards, letters and cards of sympathy were received by the family.

May his soul rest in peace.

In Memoriam

MRS. EMILY CONNOLLY

In the early hours of Thursday morning, April 8th, 1948, the gentle soul of Mrs. Emily Connolly passed peacefully to its eternal reward. She was the elder daughter of the late James and Jane (Kelly) Laird of Hope River where she lived until her marriage to Henry Connolly of Kelly's Cross Parish. On her husband's death thirty-five years ago she moved with her young family to Charlottetown where she has since resided. In her 82nd year she had a long and useful life. Being left a widow with four young children she had a double responsibility of providing and caring for them. She planned for their education and watched over them with tender devotion.

Of a quiet, kind and generous nature she endeared herself to all especially to those who had the privilege of being close to her during her life.

During her more active years she was never too busy to give of her time and charity to help those in trouble or sorrow and it was with much regret that her many friends learned of her passing. Although death came very suddenly she was not unprepared. A devout Catholic she died fortified by the last rites of her Church administered by Rev. Dr. McMahon.

Left to cherish the memory of a good mother, are her two sons Herbert H. and Daniel B., who will long miss her loving presence in the home, and two daughters Lillian M. (Mrs. John Framaham) and Irene A. (Mrs. Leo J. Duffy); also six grandchildren and one great grandchild.

The funeral took place Saturday morning at 8.45 to St. Dunstan's Basilica where Requiem High Mass was celebrated by Rev. David McTague who also conducted the service at the grave.

The pallbearers were: Messrs. Patrick Dennis, Patrick J. Cullen, Pius Clarkin, Leo Bradley, Joseph Dowling, Walter Cusack. Interment was in the church Cemetery.

Eternal rest grant unto her O Lord and let perpetual light shine upon her.

CARD OF THANKS

The family of the late Mrs. Emily Connolly wish to extend their heartfelt thanks and appreciation for the acts of kindness, Mass Cards, Messages of Sympathy and beautiful floral offerings received from their kind friends and neighbours during their recent bereavement in the loss of their beloved mother.

In Memoriam

6In memoriam of my dear Mother, Mrs. I. J. Horne, who departed this life May 5th, 1946.

Peacefully sleeping, resting at last,
Her weary trials and troubles are past,
In silence she suffered, in patience she bore
Till God called her home to suffer no more.

Lovingly Remembered by Husband and Daughter.

In Memoriam

In loving memory of Mrs. Cleve Roberts, who passed away May 4th, 1947.

Two deep bright eyes, tender smile
A loving heart that knew no guile.
Deep trust in God, that always right,
Her joy to make some other bright.
If sick and suffering one she knew
Some gentle act of love she'd do.
No thought of self, but of the other
I know He said, "Well done Dear Mother."

Inserted by Husband and Family.

In Memoriam

In loving memory of Mrs. Joseph Gillis, who died May 5th, 1947.

We are thinking today of you, Mother
Thinking of the past
Picturing you in memory
Just as we saw you last.

You left behind many broken hearts
That loved you so sincere
That never did and never will
Forget you Mother dear.

Lovingly Remembered by Husband and Family.
