—FOX PELTS STOLEN—Some valuable fox pelts were stolen from a house in St. Eleanor's on Saturday night. The loss is estimated at about $125. The police are looking into the matter. S.

—MASQUERADE DANCE—The C. M. B. A. held an enjoyable dance last Friday evening in their hall in Summerside. There were about two hundred present and many came in costume. The prize for the best ladies costume was won by Miss Edna Wedge who was dressed as a young lady of fashion of fifty years ago. The gentlemen's prize was won by Mr. Arthur Perry as a Chinese gentleman. This will be the last dance until after Advent. S.

—FOX PELTS MOVING—Fox pelts are coming into Summerside in large quantities at the present time. The Fox Breeders' Association have taken in to date two hundred more skins than they did up to this date last year. Good prices are being obtained for the very high grade furs. The different buyers are handling a considerable quantity of the good skins for the Montreal, New York and London markets and some large shipments have been made for the fall sales. The outlook is very hopeful for ranchers with good skins. S.

—WEDDING BELLS — A quiet, but pretty wedding took place in St. James Church, Summerfield, on Wednesday morning, November 9th, when Miss Eleanor Deighan, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Deighan, Freetown, was united in marriage to Mr. William Curley, Summerfield, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Curley, Kelly's Cross. As the peals of the wedding march, played by Mrs. James B. Croken, rang forth, the wedding party entered the church, where the pastor, Reverend Frances MacDonald, performed the marriage ceremony and Nuptial Mass. The bride looked charming in a beautiful blue dress of silk crepe with hat and coat to match. She was attended by Miss Minerva Curley, sister of the groom and wore a blue crepe dress with hat and coat to match. The groom was supported by Mr. Charles Deighan, brother of the bride. After the wedding breakfast, which was served at the home of the bride's parents, the bridal party left on a short honeymoon to the mainland, followed by the best wishes of a host of friends.—E.

—DEATH OF ROBERT KIRK—There passed away on Monday at the home of Mr. Wilfred Hutchinson of Lot 16, Mr. Robert Kirk at the advanced age of 94 years, after only a few days' illness. Mr. Kirk was well known in Lot 16, where he farmed at one time and also in Summerside where he had resided for many years. He had been to sea a number of times and had during those periods been to almost every sea port in the world. He was a very interesting man to talk to and told many stories of his life at sea. One of his sons, generally known as Captain Teddy Kirk, was reported drowned at sea last winter. He has another son, James, in Medicine Hat, Sask.; Mrs. M. K. Hammond of Lynn, Mass., is a daughter. Mrs. Peck, another daughter, arrived home last night. Funeral arrangements will be announced later. S.
