OUR NEWS BUDGET FOR OUR SATURDAY SUBSCRIBERS

MONDAY

RETURNS TO HOSPITAL—Friends will regret to learn of the continued illness of Mrs. Percy Douglas, Stanhope. She is back again in the Prince Edward Island Hospital for treatment.

—SLIGHT FIRE — Summerside firemen were called to the home of Mr. Heartz Godkin, Duke Street, at 11.45 yesterday morning for a slight blaze. The fire was believed to have originated in some clothes in the warming closet of the stove. There was only minor damage.

INVITATION EXTENDED — Chief of Police A. Birtwhistle has received an invitation to attend the banquet of Class 14 R.C.M.P. School at Rockcliffe, Ontario this week. Among the graduates of this class will be Sgt. A.J. Dowling of the local police force.

There was a large congregation at both the morning and evening service at St. Paul's Anglican Church yesterday. The special preacher at both services was the Right Reverend George Frederick Kingston, M.A. Ph. D., Bishop of the Diocese of Nova Scotia.

His Lordship for his morning address chose his text from Jeremiah, 10-24: "O Lord correct me, but with judgment, not in Thine anger, lest Thou bring me to nothing".

On Saturday morning, 26 Sharp-tailed grouse were released at a point between T. Hill and Pownal. The birds were purchased by Island Pheasants Unlimited from Twin Lakes Game Farm, Lacombe, Alberta, and are part of a 100 bird order placed last fall. The initial shipment consisted of 30 birds at a cost of $8.00 each. Two birds died enroute and two others were so weak they were not turned loose and died shorty after being placed in a pen with a view of nursing them back to health.

RECEIVES CERTIFICATE —The office of Mr. C. T. Montgomery, Superintendent of the C.N.R., was the scene of a presentation on Saturday morning at 11 a.m. when Hon. Dr. W. J. P. MacMillan read a citation and presented a certificate and badge on behalf of the Commandery in Canada of the Venerable Order of the Hospital of St. John of Jerusalem to Miss Margaret Irving of the C.N.R. staff. The citation conveyed appreciation for devotion and service in the cause of humanity during the Second World War.

TRYON MINISTER RECEIVES CALL—At a congregational meeting of the Aylesford United Church, Auburn, N.S., held at the close of the Sunday evening service, it was unanimously voted to call Rev. J. A. Jardine, now at Tryon, P.E.I., to this charge. Mr. Jardine has accepted the call. Rev. R. W. Braine, who resigned this charge several weeks ago, has accepted a call to Wesley United Church, Yarmouth. Subject to approval of the courts of the United Church of Canada, these changes will take place the last of June.

FUNERAL AT BALDWIN'S RD. —The funeral of the late Mrs. John Cairns, nee Mary Catherine Baldwin, took place on Saturday morning, March 22, from the home of her son Edward Cairns, Baldwin's Road, to St. Cuthbert's Church, St. Teresa's. A solemn Requiem High Mass was offered by the Pastor, Rev. Basil Croken, assisted by Rev. Edward Baldwin, C.SS.R., rector of Holy Redeemer Parish, Charlottetown, and nephew of the deceased, as deacon, and Rev. Phalen McKenna Morrell, as sub-deacon. Rt. Rev. Maurice MacDonald, Vernon River, was in the sanctuary. The pallbearers were: Peter McKenna, Terence McKenna, Joseph Baldwin, Milton Baldwin, Alan Corcoran and Henry Goodwin. Rev. The treasurer reported $681.52 raised with a balance of $33.38 on hand. Mrs. J. C. Profit was elected president owing to the resignation of Mrs. Callaghan. Officers hold office for two years consecutively as from last March meeting. Mrs. Perle McNeill was appointed to act on executive in Mrs. Profit's place Mrs. M. M. Foley was appointed to act on the sick committee in Mrs. Leavitt's place. Plans for a pantry sale at Alfred Foley's store early in April were discussed. Sister John Baptist addressed the meeting, thanking the members and officers for their splendid work during the past year. A delicious lunch was served by the Hospital staff.

BIRTHDAY ANNIVERSARY — On the evening of March the 8th a number of invited guests gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Newman to celebrate with them the eightieth birthday of Mrs. Newman's mother, Mrs. Louisa Bryenton. Notwithstanding her advanced years, and the fact that she was taken entirely by surprise, Mrs. Bryenton entered fully into the spirit of the occasion, and before the guests departed thanked everyone for the very pleasant surprise they had given her. Among the gifts received was a beautiful bouquet of roses and carnations from her daughter Lyla of Boston. The evening was pleasantly spent with music, singing and games, after which a delicious supper climaxed by a large decorated birthday cake was served by the hostess, Mrs. Harry Newman and her sister, Mrs. James Maund. Congratulations and best wishes for many more happy birthdays and the singing of Auld Lang Syne brought this happy event to a close.

ROOF FIRE AT YORK PT. — The City Fire Department was called out about 1.40 yesterday afternoon to assist in combatting a roof fire at the home of Mr. Malcolm MacPhail, York Point. The local firemen using a booster pump soon had the flames under control and damage was confined to a large hole in the roof.

URGE IMPROVED ROAD — Four delegations seeking improved road conditions in their respective areas met with Government members including Premier J. Walter Jones, Saturday. The delegations were from York Point, West River, Crapaud-Victoria and Hampshire-Kingston districts. The York Point delegation petitioned for an improved roadway following along the North River. The West River delegation sought road improvements from Cornwall and West and the Hampshire-Kingston delegation petitioned for better road communication between Cornwall and Charlottetown. The Crapaud-Victoria delegation sought an improved highway along the south shore.

TUESDAY

An income tax of 5 per cent on corporations in Prince Edward Island will be imposed by the Jones Government under authority of the new Dominion-Provincial tax agreement bill, it was revealed in the Legislature yesterday.

The tax will go to the Dominion Government and will be in addition to the existing 30 per cent corporation income tax now imposed at Ottawa.

A brief electrical storm in Prince Edward Island last night apparently did no damage. It was accompanied by heavy rain in many districts. Only a few flashes of lightning were observed in Charlottetown.

From Truro, N.S. came word of a 15-minute blackout caused when lightning struck hydro wires outside the town.

NEW RESIDENTS WELCOMED —The people of Union Road and vicinity met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Francis P. O'Donnell and family to welcome them to the district. An address was read after which they were presented with two beautiful gifts. Mr. O'Donnell replied thanking the people for their kindness. A dainty lunch was served and the remainder of the evening spent in amusements.

ESTABLISH LITERATURE COURSE — Sister Mary Polycarp, BVM, has established a course in Canadian literature at Mundelein College, Chicago. "Forty have registered for the course and they seem to be enjoying glimpses of a world physical, political and literary of which until the present, they were but dimly aware." Toronto Globe and Mail. Sister Mary Polycarp is a daughter of Mrs. Catherine McInnis, Dorchester St.

NOTICE OF EVICTION—A notice of eviction from the City of Charlottetown has been served on Mr. George Tulle, proprietor of the Charlottetown Bowling Alleys located in the basement of the City Market Building. Served Monday, the notice of eviction gives Mr. Tulle until April 10th to vacate the premises. Reason for the eviction as stated in the notice was due to a breach of contract through the sub-letting of the premises by the proprietor without the written permission of the City of Charlottetown. Future plans for the building were not disclosed but it is understood that the matter will be discussed in full by civic officials at a future date.

Frederick H. Dickieson, 55, of 15 Grove Street died in Whitinsville Hospital, Whitinsville, Jan 28, after two weeks illness. He lived there for 23 years, and had been employed as a stock clerk in the Whitin Machine Works for 25 years. A member and deacon of the North Uxbridge Baptist Church, he was born in Prince Edward Island, son of James and Sarah (Hardy) Dickieson. Surviving are his wife, Minnie (Damon) Dickieson; two sisters, Mrs. Sadie Roach, Malpeque P.E.I. and Mrs. Dan Horn, Greendale, Mass. Six brothers, Isaac of Auburn, Mass; Sylvanus of Worcester, Mass; Curtis of North Dakota; Heber and Dawson of Darnley, P.E.I., and Ernest of New Brunswick.

An event of unusual interest took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Dickieson, when friends and neighbours gathered at their beautiful home to extend best wishes on his recent marriage to Mr. Ernest Houston and to welcome his bride (nee Alma Crockett) and her daughter Beverly. To the music "Here Comes the Bride" played by Miss Ruth Dickieson, Mrs. George Dickieson escorted Mrs. Houston to the living room, Mr. Eddie Rollings accompanied Mr. Houston, while Miss Eunice Rackman was escort to Miss Beverly. Mrs. Howard Ling read a very appropriate address, while Miss Elsie Laird and Mrs. Nelson McDonald presented the happy couple with a beautiful bevelled mantle mirror and a substantial purse. Miss Shirley Campbell presented her cousin Beverly with a lovely birthday ring. Mr. Houston in his usual jovial mood thanked his friends for their kind remembrances and good wishes. For They Are Jolly Good Fellows was heartily sung. Some of the younger men gave Ernest a jolly bounce. The remainder of the evening was whiled away with singing, games, contests and a general social intercourse. A bounteous lunch was served in Mrs. Dickieson's usual good style assisted by a number of ladies. Mr. Houston extended an invitation for all to come and visit them in their home.

West Kent School hockey team, conquerors of Queen Square and Souris in the Island playdowns skate out tonight for the last act in their defence of the Island interscholastic hockey title and the Hawley Crockett Trophy when they tangle with a strong Tignish team at the Forum in a sudden death encounter.

—A RESIDENTIAL PROPERTY on Spring Street, Summerside, adjacent to the White Star Laundry property owned by the estate of the late Duncan Palmer has been purchased jointly by Mr. Eric Sheen and the White Star Laundry. The house will be sold and moved away and the lower half of the property will be incorporated into the White Star Laundry property. Mr. Sheen also purchased the property to the north of the Palmer property owned by Mr. Matt Gallant last fall and he plans to erect an automobile show building this spring as he has the agency for Frazier-Kaiser automobiles. The proprietor of the White Star Laundry is Mr. Eldon Hickey.—S.

I. O. O. F. ENTERTAINMENT—A fantasy, entitled "A Gypsy Camp Fire" was presented to a capacity house at the I. O. O. F. Hall last night by Alpha Rebekah Lodge, No. 10. The performance was under the direction of Mrs. Jean Crockett, P.G.M., and Stewart Dickson. The cast, numbering over twenty, performed their individual parts with much skill and their efforts were heartily applauded. Following the entertainment, a dainty lunch was served under the management of Mrs. Annie Garnhum, P.G.M., after which the remainder of the evening was spent in dancing. Arrangements are being made to have the fantasy repeated in the near future.
