Two Killed In A Collision On N. Y. Elevated

NEW YORK, Dec. 31.—Two persons were killed and others injured tonight in a head-on collision at the 42nd street station of the Ninth Avenue Elevated Railroad. The accident occurred at about seven o'clock. Passengers were heading a south-bound train when another, traveling in the same direction, crashed into it. The dead and injured were caught in the rear car of the stationary train and were pinned in the wreckage. The police and firemen had to chop this wreckage away before they could be released. Anthony Gabriella, motorman of the moving train who was among the seriously injured, was arrested pending an investigation.

Worms in children's work have, these pests attack the tender lining of the intestines and, if left to pursue their ravages undisturbed, will ultimately perforate the wall, because these worms are of the hook variety that cling to and feed upon the intestinal surfaces. Miller's Worm Powders will not only exterminate these worms of whatever variety, but will secure to repair the injury they have done.

—SEVERE STORM—Heavy snow drifts on the country roads of the surrounding districts have been reported, the result of the wild storm of Thursday night which started at about 11 p. m.

—A BIG CATCH—Mr. B. A. Arsenault of Summerside, has made a record catch of smelts of 48 barrels, probably the largest shipment made by any one man to New York and the other American markets this season.

—ISLANDER DEAD—Word has recently been received from Worcester, Mass., of the sudden death from heart failure of Mr. Thomas Watson, deceased who was 29 years of age, formerly lived at Alberton and was a brother of Mr. Patrick Watson of this town.

—WHIST AND DANCE—Very enjoyable whist and dance was held at the Knights of Columbus in their home on Central street, Summerside, Thursday night, a large attendance proving the popularity of these social entertainments of the Knights. The whist drive, Mrs. Charles Arsenault won the ladies prize, while Henry Perry, it is the intention of the Knights of Columbus to hold these entertainments each week during the winter months.

—FISH SHIPMENT—Mr. B. A. Arsenault of Summerside, received one of the largest shipments of frozen smelts in Summerside last week for a long time. Mr. Arsenault is one of the most prominent leaders of the smelt industry in the province. The shipment would have been much larger, owing to the heavy storm of Friday night, which destroyed 40 barrels, were they not owing to the loss of the above mentioned smelts are being consigned to the New York Markets in carload lots.

—MORTGAGE CASE—The case of Alexander Campbell, Assignee against the Royal Bank of Canada, J. Edward Gallant, and J. E. Crockett, of Summerside, to set aside a mortgage given by Colin Milligan that he signed to the bank, in which the bank was paid their claims in full was argued before the Court of Chancery, last week, occupying three days, when judgment was given by Mr. E. Bentley, K. C. for the complainant and Attorney General Johnston for the defence.

NOTICE SERVED ON CHRISTIAN SCIENCE BELLIGERENTS TO APPOINT RECEIVER TO MANAGE SOCIETY WISELY.

BOSTON, Dec. 31.—Judge Crosby of the supreme court, announced late today that unless the trustees of the Christian Science Publishing Society and the directors of the First Church of Christ, Scientist, agreed by next Tuesday upon a new trustee to succeed Leonard Rowland, whose removal by the court recently, was upheld by a temporary receiver for the society. The receiver he said, would necessarily be of the Christian Science faith but would be a person in whom the court could repose confidence to manage the society wisely and for the best interest of the trust created by the late Mrs. Mary Baker Eddy.

NOTABLE STORM

The snow showed was heard about in the town of Summerside on Saturday morning, when the fierce storm expected, which held the doors of many homes, had lessened somewhat in ferocity, but some sections of the town showed drifts reached a height of some feet, while other parts of the town were comparatively clear. The storm, which was very heavy in the streets, was those who were called out by necessity and there were very few vehicles moving. At the St. R. T. Hubert Hotel, a substantial luncheon was prepared at noon for the scores of employees who did not wish to face the storm and many of the stores closed early in the evening to permit the employees to reach their homes before Summerside's first train to leave Summerside since Thursday night started out for London at 6.50 a. m. Saturday morning.
