RUTHLESS WARFARE EXTENDED TO THE INCAPACITATED.

(Canadian Press Despatch.)

LONDON, Feb. 13—The Foreign Office has issued a statement showing that just before the rupture of diplomatic relations between Germany and the United States, Germany, through an American channel, notified Great Britain that she would no longer permit, as heretofore, the transportation of British and German incapacitated war prisoners on hospital ships to and from Holland, such method of transportation being, "no longer considered safe, owing to changes which have occurred."

It was added that henceforth transportation would only be permitted on either Dutch paddle wheel steamships, which guaranteed safe conduct from the German side, or by hospital ships to Southern France, outside the prohibited maritime zone, and thence to Switzerland.

The German notification further announced that the transport of severely wounded English was temporarily suspended until Great Britain replied to this note.

FARMER 74 YEARS OLD

Tells How Vinol Made Him Strong

The following letter from farmer Lester adds another link to the great chain of evidence which proves that there is nothing equal to Vinol to create strength for feeble, weak, run-down conditions and after sickness.

Vestal Centre, N. Y.—"I am a farmer 74 years of age and got into a weak, run-down condition as a result of the grippe. Our druggist suggested Vinol to build me up and I noticed an improvement soon after taking it, and it has restored my strength so I can now do a good day's work. My wife has also taken Vinol for a run-down condition with splendid results." H. W. LESTER.

The reason Vinol is so efficient in building up strength for weakened, feeble, old people is because it contains beef and cod liver peptones, iron and maganese peptonates and glycerophosphates, the most successful tonics known.

We wish every person in Charlottetown who is suffering from a weakened condition would try Vinol on our guarantee to return their money if it fails to benfit.

IN MEMORIAM

MRS SOPHIA ROCHFORD.

The death occurred at her home the Waverly House, Summerside, P. E. I., on the 13th inst., of Mrs. Sophia Rochford widow of the late Sylvain Rochford adopted son of Sylvian Frank Arsenault. Mrs. Rochford was in her 81 year, a daughter of the late Rubin Depres of Kent County, N. B., She leaves to mourn one brother Sebastian Depres and one sister Mrs. Agnew Gaudet of Tignish, P.E. I., and seven surviving children. Frank of San Francisco, Charles and George of Dawson City, Albert J. of Tignish, P. E. I.; Mrs. Arnold Driscol of Moncton, N. B.; Mrs. William A. Enck, Boston, Mass; Mrs. J. Henry Gaudet of Summerside, P. E. I. Her remains were taken to Tignish and will be laid to rest on Friday morning beside that of her husband who predeceased her thirty-six years ago in the family plot in St. Simon St. Jude Cemetery.

MRS. R. ELLIS, SR.

On Thursday afternoon a very large crowd of people met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Huestis, of Union Vale, in order to pay their last respects to Mrs. R. Ellis, Senior, the mother of Mrs. Huestis, whose spirit passed away a few days previously at the age of 53. The service at the home was led by the Rev. R. Brodie. The Rev. Mr. Murray, also assisted by offering prayer. After the service over fifty sleighs took part in the funeral march to the Methodist Church, at Springfield, where another service was held in order to give the friends of the deceased the opportunity of a last look at the familiar face. The interment took place in the little cemetery adjoining the church. The casket was accompanied by three beautiful wreaths. The deceased leaves three sons and three daughters to mourn a matchless loss, to whom the sympathies of the community go out towards. —W.

DUNCAN McDONALD

After a few months of sickness which he endured with Christian patience and resignation to the Divine will Duncan McDonald of Shamrock died on the 5th day of January aged 61 years.

He was a very honest and inrespected by all in the community in which he was born and lived all his life till he was called to his eternal home to be forever with his Saviour whom he loved of which his Christian life and character bore testimony

Many years ago he was elected to the office of an elder in the congregation of Strathalbane and during his life time he performed all the duties of that sacred office faithful to his Saviour and to the satisfaction of all concerned. He was formany years a leader in choir of the church which he attended regular his seat being seldom vacant. He took an active part in every thing which he considered to be beneficial to the temporal and eternal welfare of mankind.

The deceased is survived by his bereaved wife and seven of a family to mourn their loss but they do not mourn as those without hope for they expect to meet him where there is no parting. The family is as follows: Donald, Barrister and Solicitor in Larcel, B. C.; Angus M. Principal of Eleume School, Vancouver, B. C.; Neil, Catherene and Florrie at home; Mamie trained nurse at St. Paul's Hospital, Vancouver, B. C.; Margaret, teacher, Thistle and Shamrock School. The funeral service at his late home and the grave was conducted by his Pastor Rev. John McCall. The large number of people which met at the funeral to show their respect to teh depthted and show the esteem in which he was held by them and many can say, that the oftener they met him the more they were attached to him.

EDWARD KINSMAN

It was with profound sorrow, the citizens of Freeland, Lot 11, and Prince County in general, learned of the death of Edward Kinsman which occured on Wednesday 7th February. Aged 58 after an illness of two weeks of pneumonia, being skillfully attended to by the family physician Dr. J. Stewart and who at other times brought him through similar illnesses. The late Mr. Kinsman was born in St. Eleanor's, and moved with his parents in his infancy to Freeland where he resided half a century.

His father, William Kinsman, predeceased him twelve years. He leaves to mourn his aged mother, who resided with him; also his grief stricken widow formerly May Phillips, daughter of the late Robert Philips of this place, and a family of one son and three daughters: William H. on the homestead, Mrs. Livingstone Williams and Mrs. William Philips of McNeill's Mills and Mrs. Arthur McDonald of Boston, Mass.; also one sister, Mrs. John Morrison, Darnley, P. E. I.

The heart felt sympathy of all who had the pleasure of Mr. Kinsman's acquaintance is extended to his bereft widow and family, but though the family circle is broken here, there is the comforting assurance which was manifested ,that he died in the faith and believed that Jesus died and rose again, even to them also that are fallen asleep in Jesus will God bring with Him. He was a prominent member of the Episcopal Church and was ministered unto in his last illness by his devoted Pastor Rev. J. Bamford. It is hard to realize that Edward is no more with us. He certainly was a devoted husband, a true father and a lovable boy with the boys. His whole hearted, soul-inspiring laugh, which was ever a true indication of his presence everywhere will be retained in the memory by all who had the pleasure of knowing him.

life. He was a very honest and industrious gentleman, kind and considerate in all cases and causes worthy of consideration.

His word was his bond which was a characteristic of his whole life. The funeral, which took place on Friday the 9th to St. Peter's Church Burying ground in Lot 11, consisted of a very large concourse of mourners and friends, over 90 sleighs being in attendance. The pall bearer were Messers William J. Palmer, Joshua Henderson, G. Shelton Sharp, Ernest Hardy, John McCarvell and A. A. Ramsay. Au revoir.—(Prince County Papers please copy.)

FREDDA McWILLIAMS.

The mystery of death entered into the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. McWilliams of Milburn, on Wednesday, carrying away the spirit of one of the sweetest darlings that ever lived, namely, their little daughter, Fredda, at the perfect age of seven. This being the first break in their family made the blow more keenly felt for which all hearts in the community sympathised with the dear parents. It fell to the duty of the Rev. R. Brodie to conduct the last earthly rites of the darling child, to which over forty sleighs made their way to the home of the parents on Friday morning. The service being as follows: Hymn, "Asleep in Jesus;" prayer by Rev. R. Brodie; hymn, "Safe in the Arms of Jesus;" address by Rev. R. Brodie; prayer; hymn, "Death of a Child;" benediction. The little casket was then taken to the Methodist Cemetery at Milburn, where the Rev. R. Brodie again officiated. On the casket a beautiful wreath was laid by one of the Sunday-school members. Hazel Wedlock. —W.

THE "WELCOME" PHOTOGRAPHIC EXPOSURE RECORD AND DAIRY 1917

"A short Guide to Photographic Practice" is the title of the opening artice in the new edition of this valuable annual. It might very well be the title of the whole compact publication, than which we know no other which gives so much real practical guidance in photography in so little space. It deals with every essential phase of photography, and from exposure to the final touches to the finished print it provides not merely the advice of experts but its cloaks that advice in crisp, understandable English free from confusing and distracting verbal embellishment, and makes it intensely practical by the provision of really useful tables and by that simplest of all exposure estimators—The "Welcome" Photographic Exposure Calculator.

Naturally the question of tank development receives full attention, and tables are given for timing development with all varieties of plates and at all possible temperatures.

In this connection it is interesting to note the introduction of a Brilsh product, 'Tabloid' 'Tancol' Developer, prepared especially for use in tanks.

Among the many tables which contain a vast amount of information in the minimum of space, and represent the carefully tabulated result of much calculation and expert experience we may mention:—

Time Tables for Development at Various Temperatures and with different classes of plates.

Factors for Factorial Development.

Contact printing at different distances from the light.

Focussing by Scale.

Correct Temperatures for Various Photographic operations.

Imperial and Metric Weights and Measures.

Exposures for Interiors.

Exposures in Telephotography.

Exposures in Copying, Enlarging and Reducing.

Exposures for Moving Objects.

Exposures for Photography at Night.

Exposures by Artificial Light.

Relative Exposures required by different films, plates, bromide papers and lantern plates, etc., etc.

With its diary, its memo pages and spaces for recording notes on exposure, its pencil and wallet, this pocket book provides a companion which no photographer should be without.
