Spavinoff a guaranteed cure for Spavin. This remedy, if used according to directions, will remove a spavin, splints, warts, ring bone windgalls, thoroughpins, spring knees, curbs, and all unnatural enlargements of the joints. This wonderful discovery has been used with unflinching success on some of the fastest horses on the American track today. We will be pleased to furnish literature and give full directions. Just how to use this wonderful remedy. Surely you would pay $2.00 to have that lump removed from your horse. For sale at Red Cross Drug Store or Jas. A. McNeill's, Summerside, also P. J. Gillis & Sons, Charlottetown.

A quiet, but pretty wedding took place at the home of H. B. and Mrs. Huestis, O'Leary, when their eldest daughter, Lulu Winnifred, became the bride of Armstrong Raynor, on the evening of the 29th inst. At 6 o'clock, the bridal party entered the well-known parlor in response to the strains of the wedding march which was rendered by Miss Hattie Metherell. The bride was given away by her father, and the ceremony which united the young couple, was solemnized by Rev. Geo. Miller, in the presence of about fifty guests. The bride was prettily attired in a princess costume, of white, wearing a bridal veil. Miss Bessie Raynor, sister of the groom, in a pleasing manner performed the duties of bridesmaid, while the brides' brother Alvin ably supported the groom. At the conclusion of the ceremony the happy company sat down to enjoy the highly pleasing repast prepared by Miss Huestis. Music and games of high merit were enjoyed by all until the hour of midnight when the happy gathering dismissed, after having enjoyed the treat of the season. Myriads of dainty presents confirm the affection in which the young couple are held. Congratulations.
