WILL LOCATE IN P. E. ISLAND

Arrangements Have Been Made for Settlement of Large Dutch Family.

Among the new Canadians that will arrive in Halifax this week-end, and according to the figures given out by steamship and railway officials last night, there will be at least 5000 new citizens of this country to land in Halifax today, Sunday and Monday, will be Ardian Dekker, a native of Holland his wife and twelve children. Arrangements have been made that this Dutch family, members of which are said to be among the very finest types of the people of the Netherlands, will become citizens of Prince Edward Island. E. Milligan, of Milligan and Morrison among the leading fox breeders and farmers of the Island province has accepted the family; will place them upon his property; has arranged for the employment of the father and eldest children and the schooling of the youngest. Among the children are two sets of twins.

The arrangements made for the settlement of what to all appearances, is one of the finest families brought to the country this year, were made by F. C. Biette, Placement Officer of the Canadian National Railways, Moncton. Mr. Biette's territory is exclusively the Maritime Provinces. He has already to his credit the successful settlement of a number of families of the highest type of people of Great Britain and the Dutch and Nordic countries. Through Mr. Biette's interests and efforts, Mr. Milligan became interested in the Dekker family and accompanied Mr. Biette to Halifax yesterday to meet Mr. Dekker who is a passenger with his family on the Nieuw Amsterdam that arrived in port yesterday afternoon, and disembarks her passengers this morning.

The Nieuw Amsterdam, incidentally, is bringing to Canada the largest single group of Dutch settlers ever to be brought on one ship to a Canadian port. The Dutch Consul General at Montreal, Mr. H. Coorengel, came on to Halifax to meet his countrymen and to assist in making arrangements for their settlement in Canada.—Halifax Herald.

The Markets

MONTREAL, Que., April 10. — The export trade in grain on the Montreal market Saturday was quiet, there being little demand from foreign buyers. Owing to the weakness in the Chicago future market for corn, spot prices here for cash corn were reduced one cent per bushel. Cah lots of American No. 3 yellow were quoted at 87 1-2 cents, No. 4 yellow at 82 cents and sample corn at 79 cents per bushel. Canadian western oats were steady. Extreme dullness marked the local and export trade in spring and winter wheat grades of flour, but prices were unchanged. The demand for all lines of millfeed continued good and values ruled steady. A steady feeling prevailed in the market for standard grades of rolled oats but the demand was quiet. A fair trade was done in eggs and the undertone was steady at the recent declines noted. The receipts were 2,770 cases. The principal feature of the local butter situation the past week was the decided weakening that prevailed in the market and prices scored declines amounting to six cents per pound. This was attributed to the increased production. The volume of business transacted was fair. Eastern townships No. 1 pasteurized quotes at 43 1-2 cents to 44 cents per pound. The receipts Saturday were 336 packages. The trade on cheese continued extremely dull, but values were steady. Western grades were quoted at 16 1-2 cents to 17 cents per pound. The receipts were 281 boxes.

So live that you'll never have to bellow for your constitutional rights.

ADDRESSED RAILWAYMEN.—Mr. W. L. Best, Ottawa, vice-president National Legislative Representative, delivered a very interesting address to Railway and other Government employees yesterday afternoon on the Workmen's Compensation Act, and other legislative work. The chair was capably filled by J. A. Monaghan. At the close of the address complimentary remarks were made by J. J. Trainor, who moved a vote of thanks to Mr. Best, which was seconded by George A. Beer and supported by F. Tierney J. J. Duffy and others.

MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER — On Monday evening, March 28th, upwards of seventy-five invited guests assembled at the home of Mrs. Ella Ferris to tender her a miscellaneous shower, prior to her marriage. About nine o'clock Mrs. Pope Bagnall ushered Mrs. Ferris to the drawing room, where all had assembled. Then a basket laden with presents was brought in, and opened by Mrs. Annie McEachern, while Mrs. Stephen Bertram read the accompanying verses. After the presents had all be opened, which included silver, china, linen and several substantial cheques. Mrs. Garfield Stevenson came forward and read an address, while Mrs. Benjamin Craswell presented Mrs. Ferris with a beautiful Cathedral Gong Parlor Clock, in behalf of the Women's Institute of which Mrs. Ferris was a valued member. Mrs. Ferris thanked all present for their thoughtfulness, after which all joined in singing "For She's a Jolly Good Fellow." The ladies then served lunch which was enjoyed by all. Mr. Daniel Nesbit favored the guests with several solos, and the remainder of the evening was spent in music, social conversation and playing games. The accompanists for the evening were Miss Irene Weeks, Miss Alma Weeks and Mrs. Russell Nicholson. After crossing hands and singing "Auld Lang Syne," all dispersed to their homes wishing Mrs. Ferris many years of future happiness.

Y. M. C. A. Service of Song

Mr. Ed. Otter of the National Council Y. M. C. A., Toronto, was the speaker at the regular evening service last night his message was one of Service and he appealed to the young men and young women present to look into their own lives and see if they were fulfilling their obligations with respect.

Mr. Otter told the story how the Y. M. C. A. came to be organized in London, Eng., in 1844. by Sir George Williams, then just a young boy in his teens, fresh from the farm. The object of the Associations was to raise the moral standards of the young men of that era which was at a very low ebb. Drinking was the curse at that time and it was at that evil that the Association had to level its first forces.

COME AND SEE Monsignor Benson's Passion play at Notre Dame Academy Tuesday, the 12th, tickets at the door. 4815-4-11-2i.

LINES OPEN.—The train from Borden arrived in the City with mails and passengers at 11.10 Saturday night. Yesterday the lines were reported all open with plough trains operating between Charlottetown and the following points: Tignish, Souris and Murray Harbor.

DIED AT EARLY AGE —Mr. and Mrs. Seymour Farquharson, of Hillsboro, have the sympathy of their many friends, in the loss of their son Earl, who at the early age of 17 years, died yesterday morning with scarlet fever. The Funeral will take place this afternoon from his late home to Mermaid. Funeral will be private.

NATIONAL COUNCIL Y. M. C. A. SECRETARY IN TOWN— Mr. Ed. Otter of Toronto, Young Men's Secretary for Canada arrived in town Saturday evening for a two days visit. Tonight Mr. Otter will be the chief speaker at the Y's Mens club meeting at 6 p. m. when the Y's Men Club will have as their guest a number of young men interested in the formation of a Jr., Y's Men's Club.

PERSONALS

Mr. John D. Sinnott, Morell who has been spending the past three months visiting his daughters, Mrs Henry, New York and Mrs Robiteel, Halloston, Mass., arrived in the city Saturday morning and left for his home on the afternoon team.

Mission Activity In China Ended

(Canadian Press)

SHANGHAI, April 8. — Christian missionary activity in China has been reduced nearly to the vanishing point, it was stated today. The prospects for resuming endeavors in the near future are declared to be dark, at least as far as Protestant organizations are concerned.

These statements were issued this afternoon by a group of more than a dozen officials of various mission boards, including Rev. Dr. James Endicott, moderator and Secretary of the board of foreign missions of the United Church of Canada, who conferred with newspaper correspondents for the purpose of enlightening the North American public as to the exact status of mission work in China.

BRITAIN'S DEBT TO U. S. 6,700 TONS OF GOLD

LONDON, April 9.—Great Britain's debt to the United States would make a lump of gold weighing 6,700 tons, Lieut.-Col. L. S. Amery, Secretary for the Dominions estimated in a speech at the annual dinner of the Mining and Metallurgy Institution.

"Therefore" he added, "our debt to America is more one for the the prospector and mining engineer than for the financier."

The British debt to the United States was funded in 1923 at $4,600,000,000.

Mr.: Our budget has a deficit of a hundred and fifty dollars.

Mrs.: How shall we spent it?

✚ ST. JAMES CHURCH ✚

Last evening at St. James' Church, Rev. W. Bruce Muir opened the first of a series of sermons on the "Last Seven Words From the Cross." The solemnity of a powerful sermon on the text "Father Forgive them for they know not what they do," was enhanced by the impressive and inspiring rendition of "The Palms" by Mr. Raoul Reymond. These services, preparatory to Communion next Sunday, will be continued each evening this week starting at 7.30. On Good Friday a special service will be held in the afternoon at three o'clock.

✚ ST. DUNSTAN'S CATHEDRAL ✚

Yesterday being Palm Sunday, palm was blessed at the 11 o'clock service by His Lordship Bishop O'Leary, assisted by Rev. Fr. Patrick Walsh, deacon Rev. Fr. Patk. McMahon and Rev. Fr. A. J. McIntyre, master of ceremonies. After the blessing of the palm Mass was celebrated by Rev. Fr. Gavan Monaghan and Rev. Monsignor McDonald preached. The latter also celebrated and preached at the 9.30 mass. In the evening His Lordship preached the last of the series of Lenten sermons using as his text "My God, My God, Why Hast Thou Forsaken Me." Rev. Monsignor McDonald gave Benediction.

Next Wednesday, Thursday and Friday evenings at 7 o'clock the office of Tenebrae will be sung.

✚ ZION CHURCH ✚

Notwithstanding unpleasant weather conditions the forenoon service was fairly well attended. Rev. M. Scott Fulton took for his text the "Sixth Word from the Cross." as recorded in St. John's Gospel, Chap. XIX. Verse 30: "It is finished" —The full and deep meaning of these words are not always given the study and thought we should give them. What was finished? His work of suffering for human salvation; the completion of the plan of salvation; the ending of the old dispensation and the ushering in of the new. The treatment of this subject impresses one with what a beautiful life we may lead here if we study the life of Christ as the true example to follow.

The quartet was well rendered and fitly chosen as a part of the service. The choir was almost up to full strength and the singing very good.

The evening service at Zion Church was well attended. There was an Easter note in music and address. The Minister delivered a well thought out, logical and beautifully illustrated sermon on "An Unshaken Kingdom."

The earth and the heavens can be shaken; but there are things that cannot be moved.

Faith in a living God; faith in a living Christ; and faith in a living Hope.

Mr. Walter McNutt was organist for the day in the absence of Mrs. Keith Rogers who is spending the week end in Halifax.

The music while simple was much appreciated and carried with it a strong evangelical appeal.

A duet, quartette and hymn by the choir was the special program for the service.

A chief feature of the service of song was a seven minute address delivered by Mr. Alex. Matheson, P. W. C., his topic being—"A Locked up Piano."

Mr. Tucker, a visitor, sang "His Eye is on the Sparrow."

✚ TRINITY UNITED ✚

On Wednesday last the Women's Missionary Society held its Easter meeting, Mrs W. H. Spencer, the president, in the chair. There was a large attendance and a pleasing programme. One interesting number was an Easter chorus by the children of the Mission Band, directed by Miss Tait. The Easter offering amounted to $148.00. Mrs Fletcher and Mrs McNair were appointed delegates to the Presbyterial which meets in Summerside early in June.

The examination on the Teacher Training Course, which has been conducted by Rev. Dr. Ramsay since last autumn, was held on Thursday evening. Thirteen candidates took the test which is given by the Religious Education Department of the United Church of Canada. Those who show due proficiency will receive diplomas. The ministers and session have arranged to hold a series of Passion Week services as follows:

Monday—The cleansing of the temple.

Tuesday—The great commandment

Wednesday—The parable of the Vineyard.

Thursday—Christ before Pilate

Friday—Preparatory service, —"There they Crucified Him".

Sunday—Easter Communion.

All the weeknight meetings will be held at 7.30 o'clock and all will be in Heartz Memorial Hall except that of Friday evening, which will be in the church.

The subject of yesterday mornings sermon was appropriate to Palm Sunday, being the story of Christ's official entry into Jerusalem. The preacher was Rev. Dr Ramsay. Our Lord's entry was an acted parable. It was intended to demonstrate to the city that He was King. He claimed the allegiance of the people, as the fulfilment of the monarchical hopes of Israel.

As Jesus laid claim to the lordship of Jerusalem, so he claims the lordship of every city. He comes in our own century. He comes to Charlottetown, and expects obedience. He comes to society, to the state, the social order, and claims recognition. The ethic of Jesus Christ is the authoritative ethic in the state as well as in the church. But we cannot expect to find the social order submissive to the law of Christ until it yields submission to the person of Christ as the Son of God. We have seen war, industrial strife, envy and anger, all those things that should not obtain among God's children. What is the remedy for all this? The generations are renewed every thirty of forty years, giving a new chance for humanity. Education changed Germany in forty years, and by education we can bring up a new generation that will recognize Christ in the social order. The distinction between the sacred and the secular will be obliterated, and all things will be sacred. But Jesus Christ will not come into the social order until He comes into the hearts of the individuals making up the social order. Men must accept or reject Christ as Lord and Saviour. So long as they delay and do not accept, they reject Him.

Rev. W. M. Ryan preached at the evening service, on "The sins that Crucified Jesus."

It is true that the sins of the whole world crucified Christ, but in a special sense it was the following four sins, namely the envy of the chief priests, the avarice of Judas, the slander of the multitude and the time serving servility of Pilate. Every one of those sins is common in the world today.

At the morning service the special music consisted of the hymn "Bearing His Cross" by the Harmony Male Eight, and the anthem "When o'er the steep of Olivet" (Maunder) by the choir. The evening anthem was Handel's "Holy Art Thou" and at the same service the Harmony Male Eight rendered Matheson's beautiful hymn—"O Love that will not let me go."

IN MEMORIAM

MR. HUGH MACDONALD

In the early morning hours of Monday, March 21st, 1927, there passed peacefully away at his home in Lorne Valley, Hugh McDonald, aged 45 years. Mr. MacDonald underwent an operation on March 14th., for appendicitis by Dr. P. MacIntyre, Montague, assisted by Dr. Grant, but it was too late to be successful, and he passed away on the above date.

He was a son of the late Alexander MacDonald and Isabella MacSwain. Mr. MacDonald was a man of sterling character and will be greatly missed in the community, in which he had always lived. Why one so useful and in the prime of life, should be thus suddenly taken away, is hard for us to understand. But we do know God doeth all things for the best. He married nine years ago, Miss Sarah Nicholson, Cardigan Head, who with two children, Warren aged 8 and Ruth 6 are left to mourn the loss of a kind husband and father. There are also left two brothers, Alex. H. and Malcolm, and one sister, Mrs. W. A. MacSwain all of Lorne Valley, and five sisters living in U. S. A., and an aged and invalided mother. The funeral was held on the 22nd to the Lorne Valley Church. The service being conducted by the pastor, Dr. Genge. One hymn sung "Safe in the Arms of Jesus" it being a favorite of the deceased. The pall bearers were Reuben McCannell, David McSwain, David MacDonald, Murdock MacDonald, Joseph Campbell and Joseph Curran.

IN MEMORIAM

GEANIE BELLE DIAMOND

Geanie Belle Diamond of Rustico Road, P. E. I. died in Charlottetown April 1, aged 36 years. On Sunday April 3rd, a memorial service was held in the Fairview Baptist Church, Rustico Road, as a tribute to her consistent Christian life. Miss Diamond was baptized into the fellowship of this church, upon profession of her personal faith and she showed the reality of her faith by her interest in all the activities of the church and in every good cause which she could assist.

Rev. W. R. MacWalker conducted the memorial service, speaking from the words: "In my Father's house are many mansions." The choir rendered suitable selections, expressive of the Christian hope based upon the Divine promise: "Where I am there shall also my servant be."

ANGUS MCLEOD

Seldom has the dark cloud of sorrow moved the hearts of the people of Montague and surrounding communities to such a degree as when it was learned that Angus McLeod, a bright young man, well beloved by all, had passed away in the P. E. I. Hospital, Charlottetown.

"Angus", though young in years, just twenty three, was well and favourably known for miles around, having catered to the public in the "McLeod" mills for upwards of eight years. Being a bright and cheerful young fellow, he won for himself the friendship of all with whom he came in contact.

His prospect for greater success was never brighter, than at this moment, but Providence decreed otherwise, and in the midst of his busy life work he was laid aside, first seemingly, temporarily, with a severe ear trouble, which developed to mastoid, and later to a brain abscess.

He was operated on for mastoid on Nov. 27th., which only gave temporary relief. As the case began to look too serious his sister, Miss Christine McLeod, of Bellevue Hospital, New York City, who was herself a graduate of the Royal Victoria Hospital, Montreal, wired to said hospital for a specialist, and Dr. Scrimgeour came and operated for abscess on the brain on Dec. 9th., which at first promised the desired result.

Afterwards, however, it was found that the patient began to weaken, till on Monday morning, Dec. 13th., his gentle spirit went to God Who gave it. All that the best medical skill available could do for him was done, and tenderly nursed by his two sisters, Mrs. David Schurman, City, and Miss Christine McLeod, both graduate nurses, it seemed that he could not be kept here any longer.

It seems as if God was calling him from being a sweet singer in the militant choir here below to swell the glorious melody of praise in the Triumphant Choir above, to "Him Who saved him and washed him in His precious blood."

This being the first break in the large family of eleven children of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. McLeod, formerly of East Valleyfield, the sorrow of the whole family was very great indeed. Beside the father and mother, three brothers, and seven sisters are left to mourn. The brothers are: John in the Manitoba Theological Seminary, Winnipeg; Neil and Stanhope in Vancouver, B. C. The sisters are (Mary), Mrs. Hugh Laurie, Fort William, Ont.; (Sadie) Mrs. David Schurman, Charlottetown; (Catherine) Mrs. Russel Moore, Albion; (Ruth) Mrs. Chas. Pegg, Saskatoon, Sask.; Jessie, Winnipeg General Hospital, and Miss Florrie at Lome.

The deceased took an active part in the Presbyterian Church services, being a valued ammber of the Montague choir, he became a member of the Presbyterian Church, Valleyfield, over eight years ago, where he often worshipped and was so highly welcomed.

The remains were taken to Montague on the evening train, and were met by a large number of sorrowing friends, and conveyed to his home, from which on Wednesday, Dec. 15th., after a short service, conducted by Rev. J. A. McLellan, were taken charge of by the Oddfellows, and removed to the Baptist Church, where the regular service was held.

Rev. A. S. Stewart conducted this service excellently. Splendid and touching addresses were given by Rev. C. Armstrong, Rev. John Sterling, Rev. R. H. Stavert and Rev. J. A. McLellan.

The service was interspersed by some special selctions by the choir, a male quartette composed of Leslie Poole, John P. Beer, Geo. A. Poole, and Donald Ross, sang beautifully a favorite of the departed, "The Wayside Cross". A duet, "Tread Softly", by Mrs. John P. Beer, and Mrs. Wm. Garick was also beautifully rendered.

The funeral was one of the largest ever seen at Montague, showing the high esteem in which he was held by the people from all sections around.

The floral tributes were many and very beautiful. Some of the flowers being arranged around the face of the departed in the casket, which still wore the characteristic smile, of which death itself seemed unable to rob.

The contributions were as follows:—

Pillow—The family.

Wreaths: —Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Laurie, Fort William; Mrs. and Miss Laurie, Fort William; Mr. and Mrs. Alex. McLeod, Ch'town; Mr. and Mrs. Norman J. McLeod, Ch'town; Mrs. Wm. Sutherland and family, Ch'town; Annie and Lauchlin McDonald, Ch'town; Russel McLaurin and family, Montague; Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Murdock, Montague; Poole and Thompson families, Montague; Montague Girls' Guilds, Montague; Montague teachers, Hillside Lodge, No. 123 I. O. O. F., Montague; Mr. and Mrs. John McDonald, Valleyfield.

Crescents:—Mr. and Mrs. John P. Beer, Montague; Mr. and Mrs. A. C. McKay, Montague; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Garrick, Montague; Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Coffin, Montague; Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Cudmore, Ch'town; Wm. Matheson and family, Valleyfield; Mrs. A. E. Smith, Montague.

Sprays—Mr. and Mrs. John D. Bruce and family, Valleyfield; Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Mitchell, Ch'town; Miss Mary McPherson and Mr. L. M. McPherson, Valleyfield.

The pall-bearers were —Messrs. Cecil Wightman, Donald Martin, Etham Stewart, L. H. Poole, David Wright and W. Nicholson.

The regular service at the grave was conducted by Rev. R. H. Stavert, after which a very impressive service was held by the Oddfellows. Interment was in the new cemetery, Montague.
