Premier Bennett's Masterly Address In Treaty Debate

Closing Speech Of Prime Minister On Nov. 3 In Reply To Opposition Criticism Of Anglo-Canadian Agreement. Liberal Leader's Insincerity Scathingly Exposed.

Following is the full text of the speech of Rt. Hon. R. B. Bennett, Prime Minister, which closed the debate in the House of Commons on the Anglo-Canadian agreement negotiated at the Imperial Conference:

Another objection strongly urged was that this is a usurpation of power by the executive, and that they have done what they should not have done in that regard.

Some hon. MEMBERS: Oh, oh.

Mr. BENNETT: You will find this in unrevised Hansard, page 312, where the right hon. gentleman says:

And the other dominions, so far as I know, also had Tory governments. It is a Tory conspiracy.

A Tory conspiracy! Who were these Tories? Six of them had borne arms against the British crown.

Mr. MACKENZIE KING: All protectionists.

SCATHING REPLY

MR. BENNETT: I said that “Tory conspirators” were the words used by the right hon. gentleman.

Now I pass on to something which I think is much more important in that regard. No reason has been given for this bald change of front.

That is the same as the clause in this agreement; but listen to this:

11. If the President of the United States under authority of the United States Tariff Act of 1922 determines to reduce the duties imposed by such act on the following articles, that is to say, cattle; wheat; flour; oats; barley; potatoes; onions; turnips; hay; fish as enumerated in paragraphs 717, 718, 719 and 720 of the said Tariff Act of 1922, the governor in council may by order in council make such reduction of duties on such articles imported into Canada from the United States as may be deemed reasonable by way of compensation for such reductions on Canadian products imported into the United States.

Where is parliament there? The power given to the executive by parliament under section 10 is subject to ratification by parliament, but as to the items referred to in section 11, they could be dealt with by the mere drawing of a pen across a sheet of paper, making reductions “such as may be reasonable by way of compensation for reductions on Canadian products.”

Whereas under our present economic arrangement—

And so forth.

Therefore be it resolved—that, in the opinion of this House, the government should immediately take measures looking to the setting up of a co-operative commonwealth in which all natural resources and the socially necessary machinery of production will be used in the interests of the people and not for the benefit of the few.

ative commonwealth, your Soviet administration. And last night behold the sight! Day after day for three long weeks we found opposition offered to this agreement, and then last night they stood up like men and voted for this agreement with something added at the end of it!

Mr. VALLANCE: The question of privilege is this: In the words of the Prime Minister himself, I have been misquoted.

Mr. BENNETT: Well, Mr. Speaker, with this short review of the history of a great party that was, with all its traditions and history, I will leave the hon. gentleman and the misquotation to all these who heard him say what I have read.

Mr. VALLANCE: Go on, continue Mr. BENNETT: The hon. gentleman's red qualities are beginning to manifest themselves, but this is not the place for it. There is no reason why Soviet rule should now be exemplified by one of its followers in this House.

Mr. VALLANCE: Mr. Speaker— Some hon. MEMBERS. Order. Mr. VALLANCE: He has the floor now; I will have it later. (To be continued.)

Flies Flag Older Than Union Jack

SAINT JOHN, N. B., Nov. 12.—When the new steamship “Saint John” sailed for Boston recently from this port there flew from her mast head the ancient flag of Nova Scotia—the only flag of its kind to be flown from a ship sailing from St. John since the 17th century.

The ancient province of Nova Scotia comprised the present three Maritime provinces of Nova Scotia, New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island, and in addition the Gaspé Peninsula, in Quebec.

It is a flag older than the Union Jack, and it flies also on the “Acadia,” sister ship of the Saint John, plying between New York and Yarmouth, N. S.

The ancient province of Nova Scotia comprised the present three Maritime provinces of Nova Scotia, New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island, and in addition the Gaspé Peninsula, in Quebec.

This huge territory was set apart by King James I for a grand colonization scheme under Sir William Alexander, who was appointed for the purpose on Sept. 10, 1621.

Charles I, son of King James created the hereditary order of the baronets of Nova Scotia on July 12, 1625, and proclaimed in detail under the rules of heraldry their coat of arms, and the flag which now flies along the Atlantic coast from the “Saint John” and the “Acadia.”

Is that sort of thing what is desired by those who have moved the subamendment? You cannot deflate or inflate currency in such a way that it will help only those who have next to nothing, and who help in some cases those who may possess something. Each works all around. Inflation like deflation is a two-edged sword when it comes to dealing with financial matters.

SWING TO THE LEFT

Yet last night it was: “Up guards and at em!” And they voted on the one hand for inflation and on the other to approve the agreement—an agreement they had opposed for three weeks—if we would only add something to it! So the swing to the left is complete. Is that why they have opposed this agreement?

An hon. MEMBER: Yes.

Mr. BENNETT: That is the reason—I thought so. I was just going to refer to this fact in order that there may be no doubt of the way in which the Liberal party is now travelling: If hon. gentlemen will take the trouble to read the report of a meeting addressed by the hon. member for South Battleford (Mr. Vallance) in Toronto they will find that he said, and he has not yet been repudiated by his leader or by his representatives upon the front benches opposite—listen to his words—

Mr. VALLANCE: Hear, hear.

The Liberals of Ontario must wake up. Out west we have a party born of these conditions. It is the cooperative headed by “Jim Woodsworth, one of the soundest men in Canada.”

Mr. VALLANCE: I rise to a question of privilege, Mr. Speaker.
