—INSTALLING DIAL PHONES —The work of installing dial telephones in the home and business houses of Summerside has commenced, although the switchboard equipment has not yet arrived from England. About thirty phones have already been installed and the work will be continued as time permits until the job is completed. For the present the dials will be tied with a tag asking that the dial be not operated until the word is given. No cases of people operating the dials contrary to instructions have occurred as yet. It had been hoped by the company that the switchboard equipment would have arrived by March of this year but it has been delayed and no word has been received as to when it may be expected. Until this equipment comes the new telephone building will only be used as a business office and the old switchboard will continue to be operated in the old building to the rear of the new one. —S.

"Fabric for a gay new dress?
Here are the questions you must stress'
Is it soap and water shy?
Will it shrink before it's dry?
Dare you flaunt it in the sun?
Will it's color fade—or run?
Has it tested crease-resistance?
Make these points with all persistence.
Then if you are fabric-wise—
On the selvedge cast your eyes,
And if 'TOOTAL' there you read
Satisfaction's Guaranteed!"
