PRESENTATION TO J. W. RYAN

yourself with almost every everything ending to advance the interests of our City and Province, you kept the financial institution of which you were manager before the business and professional man as well as the farmer and poultry breeder.

Yours indeed has been a busy and active life in our midst. Always to be found at your Banking House during business hours, your leisure was spent in advancing the material wealth of the Province, thus setting an example of industrial habits worthy of imitation by all.

Therefore, when we say that we are sorry to part with you, we voice the appreciation of all who have had the pleasure of meeting you--either in business or social circles.

We would like to say more along these lines, but perhaps we had better stop here and have a smoke before we part. We therefore ask you to try this pipe as a souvenir from the P. E. I. P. A., and may it often bring to your mind pleasant recollections of our associations in Charlottetown.

Wishing you, Mrs. Ryan and family that large measure of success and happiness you so richly deserve wherever you may be.

Believe us, faithfully and sincerely yours.

Mr. Ryan, though taken by surprise, made a brief but fitting reply acknowledging the gift and expressing his appreciation of the kindly manner in which he was remembered by the Association. He regretted that his business connections prohibited him from taking the active part in the Association, which he otherwise could have done.

After the admission of a number of new members the meeting adjourned.

Moore, who made his home in the Bermudas for many years. The Guardian wishes to point out again the great help which may be derived from a proper distribution of letters which The Guardian is ready to supply all contestants.

Come in and get a supply and distribute them among your friends. Your friends will be only too glad to give you their votes and help you to win one of these trips or prizes.

And think of the honor of winning! The race is exhilarating, exciting, and outside of the educational advantage of a trip of this sort, it is a splendid training for a lady.

The enthusiasm of the contestants is ceaselessly increasing as the days of vote-getting are passing by. The great unfolding of who are the winners is not at a very distant date, but not until the last ballots are cast and the polls are closed will it be impossible for any candidate to win. Now is the critical time that most votes can be gotten; a week later there will be many less to be secured--but still an ample sufficiency for all of the candidates to select for as paid-for-subscriptions often emanate from sources we least expect. Who will have the most points? Who will have the winning hand in her district?

Don't be disappointed by failing to realize at once on promised subscriptions--the agreement to subscribe was made in good faith, but your friends may have overlooked ordering the paper. Keep his name on your list and adopt a follow-up system, such as all sales managers do who carry on a successful business. When a friend tells you of another person who may take The Guardian, note down the name and address, and make it a point to see the party at the earliest opportunity. Your earnest desire to win one of the trips or prizes will commend itself to the proposed subscriber, and his or her paid-for subscription will follow.

A candidate may consider that she can run ahead by marked strides whenever it is necessary, but at the critical time a greater stride may be made by a contestant who had steadily forged to the front. The great object now should be to get the largest number of paid-for subscription ballots within the shortest period of time. A contestant should never postpone obtaining possession of a subscription beyond the time a friend first shows a willingness to give it. Bring the amount to The Guardian at once, in order that the paper may be started and give you an opportunity of securing the clipped coupons, and you will be allowed a large number of votes.

The Master's Deal--the WILLIS

A Willis Piano has been selected by The Guardian or a banner prize in their contest.

The Willis is an instrument that delights novice and master. Its appearance is a delight to the eye and the tone a balm to the soul of the music lover.

Every part of the Willis is made with the skill and care born of long experience. It is constructed by people who desire to please and who take more pleasure in making a good piano than acquiring common coin.

The "Willis has a powerful resonant, sweet, sympathetic tone that thrills those with the love of music in their soul, it has a finish that can be classed with works of art.

No person knows how long the Willis will last for they have never been known to wear out or lose their virgin tone.

The Willis Piano selected by The Guardian can be seen in our store.

FACTS

- 1. He had Eczema for 25 years. 2. His hands were so bad he had to wear gloves day and night. 3. Doctors said he could never be cured. 4. For 25 years he tried for cure in vain. 5. Then he tried ZAM-BUK. 6. ZAM-BUK cured him. 7. TO-DAY, three years after his cure, he says: "I AM STILL CURED--there has been no return."

Mr. T. M. Marsh of 101 Delorimier Ave., Montreal, has had this wonderful experience of Zam-Buk. Mr. Marsh has lived in Montreal for over 30 years, many of them at his present address. He is well known and is willing to satisfy any enquirer as to the genuineness of his cure. He suffered 25 years from eczema in the hands and had to wear gloves day and night, the itching was so terrible when the air got to the sores. Doctors said there was no cure. Three years ago Zam-Buk cured him. Interviewed a few weeks ago he said:--

It is by working cures like this that Zam-Buk has won for itself a world-wide reputation. Unequaled for ulcers, abscesses, piles, blood-poison, inflamed sores, cold cracks, chapped hands, babies' eruptions, various ulcers, burns, cuts, etc. All druggists and stores at 50c box, or Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, for price.

"From the day I was cured by Zam-Buk to the present moment I have had no trace of the eczema and feel sure it will never return. When I think of the marvellous cure Zam-Buk worked in my case I am more and more impressed by the value of this great household balm. I have had letters of enquiry from all over Canada, and am glad to personally corroborate the published facts of my cure."

MARK WRIGHT THE FURNITURE MAN-NEWSON'S BLOCK

Final Clean-up Sale of Furniture

At last we've got everything ready for a final clean-up sale. We had a lot of furniture half completed so we simply had to finish it--and then we had to import many lines to keep the stock anything near complete. Now that we have all the stock in hand finished we are all ready for a final finish--a $2,000.00 stock of furniture that can be now purchased by people at actually less than they can be secured at wholesale by other firms. Furniture never was purchased cheaper than we are going to sell it--or likely never will be by any other firm. Once this store closes prices on furniture will increase again--we have been responsible for holding down prices.

Table with mattress prices: $6.00 mattresses for $4.00, 5.00 " " 3.50, 4.00 " " 2.75, 3.00 " " 2.00

For 25 years the name Mark Wright has been connected with the highest standard of furniture and lowest prices. We're going to slaughter our prices right and left. Our prices are always marked as close as possible and now a spic of one-third--and in some cases more--will be taken from these prices.

Table with sideboard prices: $25.00 for 15.00, 20.00 for 12.50, 12.00 for 8.00

Our factory in Western Canada is being equipped ready for us and the sooner we get clear of this stock the better. What will be left over will be sold under the auctioneer's gavel, but prices cannot be less and we confidently believe that there will be mighty little left for the auctioneer.

Table with parlor suite prices: $40.00 for 25.00, 35.00 for 20.00, 30.00 for 17.50

If you appreciate buying furniture by retail at wholesale prices now is the time--right now. Every day will see the stock diminishing. Read over the values and anticipate your needs for years in advance for this is a buying opportunity for a whole lifetime.
