 parents Prof. S. N. and Mrs. Earle, gave a most enjoyable solo in St.
 Paul's Church Sunday evening.

Mrs. H. V. Buntain of this city received a telegram Saturday announcing the sad news of the death of her father James Macdonald at Chatham, N. B.

 been visiting her mother Mrs. (Dr.) Robertson, Prince Street, city, leaves this morning on return to

Rev. Geo. E. Ross and Rev. T. F.
 Fullerton exchanged pulpits on Sunday morning. At the evening service in St. James church Mr. Fullerton gave an earnest and thoughtful discourse on Forgiveness. The singing by the choir under the leadership of Prof. Singleton was very choice especially the anthem in the evening entitled The Lost Chord.

The Wesleyan says: On the 30th ult. at St. John, N. B., J. Charlton Berry, of Woodstock, son of Rev.
 J. C. Berry, was married to Miss Catherine, daughter of J. L. Thorne, included in the valuable presents to the Centenary Sunday School, and Mr. Berry was at one time stationed friends here.

Rev. Aquila Lucas, International Sunday School Secretary for the

A special meeting of the Board of Directors of the Y. M. C. A. was held last night and the subjects in connection with the work were discussed.
 The principal work of the evening was going over the list of subscribers and members, and these names were divided up among the Directors present with a view of calling on same during the next week or ten days.
 The Directors are making a successful canvass and fully expect to wind up the current year with the expenses all met. The gymnasium classes are filling up well and prospects are for an excellent winter's work under the direction of the Secretary Mr. Archibald.

The Guardian was yesterday sent a branch of raspberries, on which were a number of large fine berries, which was picked by Gordon McDonald, King Street, on the South Shore road on Sunday last.

It is learned that the Evening Mail's ten mile road race passed off successfully at Halifax on Saturday last, first place being won by H.
 Palmer of the C.A.A.A., and second place by L. C. Lennerton, D.B.C.A.

Charles Hyenton ably presided at the political meeting at Brackley Point Road last week. Messrs Warburton, Martin, Prowse and McLean and H. J. Palmer gave enthusiastic speeches. The meeting tonight is at West River.

A very exciting game of football will be played at the C. A. A. A. grounds tomorrow at 3 o'clock, between the Miencies and second Prince of Wales. This promises to be an interesting game and no one should miss it.

Great interest is being taken in the potato prize contest now being conducted by Messrs Wright Furrishung Co. (Beer & Weeks, Proprietors) Sunnyside. At times a large office desk is fairly burned beneath the piles of immense potatoes brought in from far and near. Several large specimens have been received by mail and express and as the contest does not close until Oct. 31st, many more entries may be expected.
