MR. WILLIAM S. DARBY, head of the bridge building department at Omaha, general offices, St. Paul's, Minn., arrived a few days ago on a visit to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Darby, Abram's Village. Mr. Darby has been located west for the past twenty-nine years, and is one of the Island's most successful representatives in the Western States, holding a very important and responsible position, which can only be filled by a man of great capability. This is Mr. Darby's first visit home in many years, and we trust he will thoroughly enjoy it, as of course he will.

THE enormous growth in consumption of E. B. Eddy's Headlight Parlor match, is an evidence that the general public will always take hold of a really good article. This match as its name implies is intended primarily for indoor use, but its very great advantage as a single stick match has started up a demand for a single stick out door sulphur match, and Eddy's Telegraph match meets the popular need. Single stick matches are used more extensively in almost every other quarter of the globe, than they are in the Maritime Provinces—and they are now following quickly.—A quarter gross of Telegraph matches retails at 12 cents and are kept on hand by all grocers, or can easily be procured by them.

One of the many features at the Nova Scotia Exhibition at Halifax, will be the horse show, which will take place in the afternoon in front of the Grand Stand. It will be fashioned after the horse shows held annually at New York, Montreal and Toronto, and will be an exhibition of the best equestrian turn outs of the City and Province, held under the auspices of the Halifax Riding Club, a vigorous body of horsemen. The Club has taken the matter actively in hand and plan to make it one of the greatest successes of this year's Fair. This show is in addition to the 6 days of racing for which purses aggregating $3,000 are offered. These purses are exclusively for trotters and pacers. The amount is the largest ever offered to any Horse Meet in the Maritime Provinces, and it is expected that a very large field will result.

THE Eldon, Belfast Institute' meeting was held at the Federal Dairy Factory, under the auspices of the Robertson Institute on July 15th, as was announced. Mr. Drummond addressed the farmers, of which there was a fair attendance from the surrounding settlements. His subject was the dairy cow, and to enable him to illustrate his points, there were several types of the dairy cow brought forward. The day being very warm it was not possible to bring them any great distance so we had to be content with those at hand. Professor Drummond pronounced them fair, showing the strong and weak points in each, he soon showed that he was master of the subject. His illustrations were very instructive. William Laraby showed his Ayreshire bull, which is a good type of the breed. As the evening was advancing there was to be another meeting at half-past seven in the Hall, each farmer went away feeling that they got useful information, and determined to try and raise the ideal dairy cow by feeding and breeding. At the meeting at half-past seven the first speaker was Mr. Crosby. He spoke of the poultry industry and what was in store for those who fostered it and urged on every farmer to provide for his hens comfortable and convenient hen-houses. He next spoke of the hog and the profits to be gained from that source and impressed upon his audience the necessity of keeping the right kind of pigs. The second speaker was Mr. Drummond. His subject was food, grains and their relative values, and he urged upon the farmer not to be wasting one certain kind of food and that alone which would be destitute of the ingredients to get the desired results they were after. The speaker answered all the questions which were many in regard to sowing of clover green feed to tide over the summer months. The meeting closed with every one pleased with the evening being well and profitably spent and resolved to put it into practical use.
