DEATH OF MRS. WILLIAM RAMSAY - Many old friends will participate in the passing of Mrs. Ramsay, widow of the late William A. Ramsay, who predeceased her by only four months.
She was only a short time ago celebrating her 80th birthday.
Her husband was born in New Brunswick 82 years ago and was dearly loved by all who knew him.
The late Mr. and Mrs. Busby son. During her married life she resided in the vicinity of Bedeque and made many life long friends. Her home was always open to all who came to her and that way Mrs. Ramsay led her eternal rest, leaving behind five daughters, Mrs.
John Affleck, Mrs. Florence
Macleod, Bedeque; Mrs. Beatrice Macleod, Summerside; Mrs. Edith Smith in the United States.
Also one half sister, Mrs.
Hill, also in the United States.
The funeral was held on Friday from her late residence and was very largely attended. -S.

Advocates Teaching Of Co-operation In Public Schools

(By Kenneth Lelle, Canadian Press Correspondent)

ANTIGONISH, N. S., Aug. 19-The story of co-operation in the world today was summed up by the fact there were 100,000,000 families in 40 countries grouped in 120,000 co-operative associations turning over $17,750,000,000, according to Rev. Ronald MacDonald of Antigonish who addressed the rural and industrial conference here today.

The speaker advocated co-operative control of banking, maintaining that the question as to such an undertaking was "not could we do as well as the profit banks, but could we do any worse?"

"Let our good neighbors to the south answer that question," he went on. "their 5,500 co-operative banks or credit unions with 1,- 000,000 members and $75,000,000 capital had failures representing but a fraction of one per cent., while strongly contrasted with this, over 10,000 of the profit banks failed during the past 16 years with losses to patrons running into billions of dollars. That is the answer to the question, could we do any worse?"

Father MacDonald went on to advocate co-operative insurance, intimating that shortly the diocesane property of Antigonish would be thus safe-guarded, and the co-operative socialization of medicine, co-operative housing, and a co-operatively owned and managed press.

Pleading for the teaching of cooperative principles in public schools, he said: "With the widespread co-operative mentality already developed, I believe that no Government can afford to refuse us it."

"Countries of Europe have successfully urged this on their governments, and while some schools and colleges on this continent are increasing instruction in this subject, it is purely voluntary. The only exception I know is the state of Wisconsin, which has a law making the teaching of co-operation obligatory in public and secondary schools and colleges, and it is enforcing the law and promoting this education through the many agencies of the state."

Here the speaker broke off to urge that a resolution asking the Nova Scotia Government that the Rochdale principles of co-operation be taught in the province's public schools, be introduced.

"Beginning then with the school, the unfolding of the co-operative philosophy in terms suited to the child's capacity, will govern the elemental character of its thought and its idealistic imagination. As the child is father to the man, you are thus laying the foundation early in life upon which your ideal is later to be constructed. The youth is thus influenced both by its teaching in school and by the co-operative atmosphere of his community, with the result that selfishness is lessened or destroyed.
It begins to understand early in life that the good of one is the good of all. In him is created the communal spirit which is the soul of the community. A rural community thus organized can have as intensive a life as any urban centre. They had it in the old days of Ireland and Scotland."

Dr. D. B. Finn, Halifax, presented to the conference an address on the "need for science in our fishing industry." The afternoon session was addressed by E.
A. Corbett, director of the Canadian Association for Adult Ed-

AT CAPITOL, SUMMERSIDE.

Many visitors from out of town as well as Summerside theatre goers were delighted with "Maytime" which is now playing at the Capitol Theatre.

Jeanette MacDonald and Nelson Eddy were even more charming than in "Naughty Marietta" and "Rose Marie."

Hollywood's "Maytime" is a lavish thing, beautiful to see and lovely to hear. The scenes are far more elaborate than the stage performance of this unforgettable Broadway production by Rida Johnson Young.

Jeanette and Eddie charmed the audience with their song "Will You Remember" and other delicious operatic arias. John Barrymore appears in his first role since "Roméo and Juliet". Lynne Carter, education, who sketched the history of this movement in the 19th century and stated what he considered to be the major objectives of adult educational movement:

1. To cherish the humane ideal on which democracy rests, equality of right to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness;

2. To discuss freely those conceptions of economics which are designed to assure security to democratic society;

3. To safeguard those legal institutions of democracy which assure to the humble the same standing at law as the mighty;

4. Finally, the provision of a philosophy which will give to men a more abundant life."

The tragic impact of modern social injustice on the family and in particular on the women in the family was described graphically to the conference this afternoon by Miss Mary MacMillan of Antigonish.

"Industry and self-sacrifice are the salvation of fallen man, but drudgery and servitude are his doom," she said. "And, we women are, to a large measure, responsible for the present situation ourselves, for whenever industrial capitalism seemed to offer us an advantage as individuals and as a group we were willing to accept that advantage without question."

"Now, surely, we women who have hastened in the past to accept the latest thing in household gadgets, will not hesitate to take up for ourselves and our families a movement of proven worth that will safeguard the household itself.
Our task is to work with those who lead, give leadership to those who fall, spur on the men of lethargy, and breed boldness among ourselves and in our children."

Carleton and Vicinity

Miss Doris Muncy of Bedeque is spending a pleasant holiday in Carleton, the guest of Mr. and Mrs.
Leigh Lowther.

Mr. John M. Inman of Concord, N. H. is the guest of his sister, Mrs.
John F. Campbell of Cape Traverse

Mr. and Mrs. Cilly M. Lea of Summerside have returned from a pleasant motor trip to Sydney, N.S.

Mr. John H. B. Lea and Master Jackie Lea who were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Bell, Carleton, have returned to their home in Summerside.

Mrs. John Clough and son Harold, Auburn, Mass., who have been visiting Mrs. Thomas Mc-Carville left Friday morning on return.

Mr. and Mrs. William Cahill, Miss Beatrice Pugsley and Miss Betty Parkins of Milford, Mass. who for the past week have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. Melbourne Howatt of Cape Traverse, left Wednesday morning for their homes.

Mrs. Nicholas Watson of Roslin-dale, Mass., and Miss Anne Watson of Charlottetown, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Bell of Cape Traverse.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Ames of Amherst, N. S., who are vacationing with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Doul of Carleton, are visiting many points of interest with their host and hostess and are thoroughly enjoying their stay in this province.

Mr. and Mrs. Earle Mills and family of Peterboro, Ont., are spending a pleasant holiday on the island. On Wednesday they paid a visit to Mrs. Stanley Linkletter of Carleton.

Mrs. J. H. Lord of Cape Traverse left Tuesday morning for a visit with her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. J. Wesley Doul of Sackville, N. B. She was accompanied as far as Cape Tormentine, by her nephew, Mr. Errol McKinnon of Charlottetown.

Carleton School re-opened on Monday with Miss Margaret Woolner of Rustico as principal and Miss Eleanor Bell of Carleton, primary teacher. Augustine Cove School also resumed work on Monday, the teacher being Mr. Lester Cairns of Stanchee.

The enterprising people of the surrounding communities are building an extension on the rear of the Cape Traverse Hall to be used as kitchen and dressing rooms. The exterior is now completed and the chimney built.

Many friends will regret to learn that Mr. Elmer Francis of Carleton was taken to the Prince County Hospital on Saturday, suffering with a broken leg. He is resting as comfortably as possible under the circumstances.

The annual out-door meeting of the Cape Traverse Women's Missionary Society was held on Thursday, Aug. 5th, at the home of Mrs.
J. H. Lord with the president in charge. The theme was "Jesus and our Ideals." The call to worship was read and "left in danger, or in woe" was sung as the opening hymn. Scripture passages were read by Mrs. Harper and Mrs.
Leigh Lowther after which Rev.
Ralph Barker led in prayer. "Creations Lord, we give thee thanks" was sung, followed by the devotional leaflet read by Mrs. Cutcliffe.

Mr. Barker gave a very appropriate address based on the theme of the meeting and Mrs. Harper sang a solo in a most pleasing manner "Jesus is fairer than all." The minutes of last meeting were read and approved, followed by roll call with eighteen members and thirteen visitors present. It was moved by Mrs. Lord and carried unanimously that a letter sent Major Gladstone Murray rethe liquor broadcasting. A solo "God's children live in many lands" was sweetly sung by Mary Cutcliffe after which Rev. Fred "Young gave an address on "The erection of God" which we must try to attain. Collection was taken amounting to $6.35. Mrs. Harper moved a vote of thanks to Mrs.
Lord for so kindly entertaining the society. The meeting closed by singing "Almighty Father, who dost give" after which Rev. Fred Young pronounced the benediction.
A very pleasant social hour followed which was much enjoyed. Mrs.
Lord and Mrs. Doul, assisted by other members served delicious refreshments.

An exceedingly pretty wedding took place Wednesday, August 11th at 7 p.m. at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hedley Mut-tart of Carleton when, in the presence of the near relatives, their youngest daughter, Areta, became the wife of Mr. John Andrew of Montague. Rev. Fred M.
Young of Tryon was the officiating clergyman and the ceremony was performed under a beautiful arch of pink and white phlox against a background of ferns, surmounted by a large white marriage bell.
The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, looked very lovely in a gown of pink silk net over pink satin, cut on long, graceful lines, with lace panels and having a lace jacket of the same shade. She carried an arm bouquet of Tallman roses and maiden hair fern. Her only attendant, her small niece, Beulah Jardine, was a delicious white flower-girl in dainty blue silk organdie, carrying a basket of sweet peas. As the bride party entered the tastefully decorated living room Miss Agnes Andrew, sister of the groom, played Lohengrin's Wedding March and at the conclusion of the ceremony she played softly "At Dawning". Dur-

Tryon and Vicinity

The many friends of Mrs.
Everett Ives, of Tryon, are glad to welcome her back home again after spending the past four months in the Prince County Hospital where she was recovering from a fractured leg sustained when she fell from the door step of her home.

Hon. A. E. McLean, M.P. gave a lecture in the Tryon Baptist Hall Monday August 16th, on his trip to the Coronation. A good crowd turned out to hear Mr. McLean speak. There was also a sale of ice-cream and a neat sum was realized.

The Baptist young people held a very successful picnic at Cameron's Shore, Hampton, Saturday August 12th, the afternoon was spent in games, softball and swimming after which a delightful supper was served by the ladies.

Quite a number of young people from Tryon, motored to Maple Plains where they attended the dance Friday night.

Miss Leah Lord, Summerside, spent Sunday at her home in Tryon.

The monthly meeting of the North Tryon Ladies Aid met at the home of Mrs. James Leard Thursday, August 12th, the day being Mr. and Mrs. Leard's 42nd wedding anniversary. After the business period an address was read by Mrs. Frank Dixon and Mrs. Arthur Dawson, presented them both with a beautiful gift.
Although taken by surprise Mr. and Mrs. Leard thanked the ladies for remembering them on their wedding day. Following is the address:

To Mr. and Mrs. James Leard, Dear Friends, We your fellow members of the North Tryon United Sewing Circle take this opportunity of extending to you our heartiest congratulations on this 42nd anniversary of your marriage. We have always held you dear, and as friends have found you good and true, you have always taken you part in everything pertaining to both religious and social life of the community.

We take this opportunity of presenting you with a small token of love, not for its value but as a remembrance of the good times in our circle meeting and hope you may find it useful. May God pour out His richest blessings upon you and give you many more years of health and happiness together.

We wish you health.
We wish you wealth.
We wish you gold in store.
We wish you heaven after death What could we wish you more,

Signed on behalf of the United Sewing Circle.

Seek For Lost Soviet Airmen

(By The Associated Press)

FAIRBANKS, Alaska, June 18-Aer rescue fliers sought an opening in the cloudy, rain-laden northern Alaska skies today to speed their planes on the air trail of a native clue to the whereabouts of six lost Soviet transpolar airmen.

Bob Randall, a Canadian, planned to take-off from Point Barrow to check up on the story of natives in the Barter Island area that they heard what might have been an airplane motor "four or five days ago."

Barter Island is about 300 miles east of Barrow and 175 miles east of the route which the Russians supposedly were following when they vanished last Friday on a projected 4,000-mile flight from Moscow to Fairbanks.

Randall heard the natives' story yesterday on flying along the coast from Aklavik, North West Territory, to Barrow in a plane chartered by Russian officials.

"The Eskimos' story raised the possibility that the missing fliers, headed by the Soviet ace Slegmund Levanefsky, actually reached the North American continent.

The three-nation search gained momentum when the Soviet Embassy in Washington arranged through the Explorers Club of New York for Sir Hubert Wilkins, noted Arctic explorer, to join the hunt with a large American flying boat stationed at North Beach airport, N.Y.

The plane was expected to get under way from New York tomorrow. Air Commodore Herbert Hel-lick-Kenyon, noted Canadian aviator, was chosen to accompany Wilkins as first pilot.

(At Port Arthur, Ont., Pilot Al Cheesman, a native Maritimer, said he had accepted an invitation to accompany Hellick-Kenyon and Sir Hubert on the flight. He said he had been notified to be ready to be picked up there tomorrow morning.)

Jimmy Mattern, ace American flier who is "repaying a debt" to Levanefsky for his own rescue by the Russian flier several years ago, chafed at the weather here which is keeping his big long-range cruising plane on the ground. He flew here from Southern California to join the hunt.

Liner Leaves With Women And Children

(Copyright, 1937, by The Havas News Agency)

SHANGHAI, Aug. 19-The Canadian Pacific liner Empress of Asia left for Hong Kong from the mouth of the Whampoo River late today with 1,368 women and children evacuated from Shanghai.
Fifteen of the group were Canadians.

Capt. A. R. St. Louis of Winnipeg, Vice-President of the Canadian Club of Shanghai, who saw his mother, wife and two children off on the liner, told Havas that about 150 Canadians, of whom three-quarters were from the Pacific coast, remained in Shanghai and one of them thought of leaving.

Canadian business interests here are seriously menaced by the Sino-Japanese hostilities, he said. Many of the Canadian companies, notably the Canadian Pacific Railway, have had to close their offices in the commercial centre, on the Bund, which were under shell fire, and move their activities into the French concession, Capt. St. Louis said.

He said he was proud of the Canadians' conduct. They had gone about their business as usual and a number are taking part in the defence of the foreign concessions as volunteers or members of the special police corps.

Among the Canadians here are business men, manufacturers, members of the British settlement police force and technical advisers of the Chinese government.

Several ace nurses in the Shanghai country hospital and not one of these women has asked to be evacuated, said Capt. St. Louis.
There are a number of Canadian missionaries in the interior.
