A BRIGHT OUTLOOK ON LIFE

Nobody ever had a brighter outlook—than through a window just cleaned with Bon Ami! Sparkling clean—and glistening! For Bon Ami polishes as it cleans . . . all in a few easy strokes! It cleans mirrors, too—and bathtubs, sinks, tiling, metal fixtures, pots and pans. Without making a scratch on any surface! Bon Ami quickly penetrates, "blots up" the dirt. It has no unpleasant odor—doesn't clog drains—and never reddens or roughens your hands!

—PLEADED GUILTY—The two men arrested on Wednesday in connection with a seizure of 160 gallons of rum at Grand River came before Mr. George M. Matthews at the Court House, Summerside on Thursday afternoon and were charged with having contraband liquor in their possession. They pleaded guilty and were each fined $100 and costs or 2 months in jail.—S

—MISSION BAND CONCERT—The children of Trinity United Church, Summerside put on a delightful Mission Band concert in Epworth Hall on Wednesday evening before a capacity house. The charming songs and readings were heartily applauded and the ladies who had charge of the program are to be congratulated for the splendid manner in which the performance was carried out. Rev. L. B. Campbell presided. Mrs. Douglas Gordon presided at the piano. Following is the program: Piano solo, Miss Doris Mariatt; chorus, "The Children's Happy Song", by Mission Band; recitation, Florence MacLean; doll song by four little girls; exercise by a leader and six boys; solo by Kathleen Allen; recitation by Junlor MacEwan; nursery motions by little tots; dialogue, "How Some Little Dollies Came to go as Missionaries", by Mamie Thompson, Irene Heckbert, Marjory Mollison, Roberta Howatt; recitation by Jeanette White; solo by Adele Bowness; recitation by Norman MacLeod; doll song by Eileen Todd, Katherine MacCallum, Adele Bowness, Jeanette White; exercise by seven girls; intermission and sale of candy; piano solo, Miss Marjory MacQuarrie; solo by Helen MacEwan; recitation by Betty Todd; duet by Essie and Lily Dalton; recitation by Edith Clark; exercise "Bring Them to Jesus," by six girls; "Some Future Citizens of our Town;" God Save the King.—S

—BRIDE-TO-BE HONOURED—On Tuesday evening the many friends of Miss Miriam Montgomery gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Ramsay of New Annan to tender her a miscellaneous shower in honour of her approaching marriage. The living room presented a woodland scene with pine boughs, maple leaves and wedding bells hanging over head and the floor carpeted with soft pine needles. Into this bower of loveliness the bride was led by Miss Zeniah Wood to the strains of the wedding march played by Mrs. George Ramsay. She was then presented with some lovely gifts accompanied by many witty verses. Miss Ernestine Marchbank made the presentation assisted by Miss Cecilia Baker, Arlene Enman and Geraldine Rayner. Miss Montgomery made a very gracious speech thanking one and all for their thoughtfulness. "For She's A Jolly Good Fellow" was heartily sung by all after which dainty refreshments were served. The room was then cleared and the young people indulged in impromptu dances until the wee small hours.—S

—DEATH OF MRS. ELIZABETH COLES—The death occurred on Wednesday afternoon of Mrs. Elizabeth Coles at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Elmer Birt on Argyle Street, Summerside, at the age of 77 years, after a lingering illness. The deceased was the widow of the late Thomas Coles of New London and had resided there all her married life until his death eleven years ago. Since that time she has made her home with her daughters. She was of a quiet disposition but had many friends who will regret to learn of her passing. There are left to mourn five daughters and one son namely: Mrs. James Thompson of Melrose, Mass.; Mrs. Earl Reeves of Kensington; Mrs. Bruce Summers of Bradabane; Mrs. Willis R. Warren and Mrs. Elmer Birt of Summerside; and John T. Coles of Clifton, to whom much sympathy is extended. The funeral takes place on Friday at 1 p.m. from the home of her daughter, Mrs. Elmer Birt, on Argyle Street. After a short service the remains will be taken to St. Thomas' Anglican Church, Springbrook, New London, where a service will be held at 2:30.—S

—APPOINTED NIGHT SUPERVISOR—Miss Leonore Clarke, R. N., of Emerald has been appointed night supervisor at the Prince County Hospital and has started upon her duties. —Mrs. Benjamin Condon of Summerside has returned from Free-town where she was visiting her daughter, Mrs. Eldon Drummond. A bonnie baby girl arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Drummond on Sept. 22nd and it is pleasing to report that both mother and daughter are now progressing favourably. Miss Hazel Condon is at present with her sister, Mrs. Drummond, and expects to stay some little time.—S

—PROTECTION PROVIDED FOR LANDLORDS (Canadian Press) MONTREAL, Oct. 27—A bill that would give to landlords priority of lien on goods bought by instalment, instead of the merchants who sell them, will be presented at the next session of the Quebec legislature, it is announced by Rosario Gaudry, secretary to the Property Owners' League of Montreal. Such a measure, Mr. Gaudry explained, would provide landlords with further protection against tenants who went beyond their means in the purchase of long-period-to-pay goods.

—MONTREAL POLICE MUST BE PREPARED (Canadian Press) MONTREAL, Oct. 27—Its not that police officers of this city have to be fulltimers—or even cowboys,—but they just have to know a little about these occupations.

—THE LONG-DRAWN OUT bloodcurdling wall of the cowboy, the sound of his hissing lasso were missing when 10 Western steers broke out of a stockyard corral here on Bridge street, and sedately ambled along nearby streets. But Montreal's constabulary were there, armed with batons, brooms, shovels and sticks, and despite many humorous remarks from the crowd which collected, they succeeded in chasing the horned beasts back in the stock yards.

—YOUR LIVER'S MAKING YOU FEEL OUT OF SORTS Wake up your Liver Bile —No Calomel needed When you feel blue, depressed, sour on the world, that's your liver which isn't pouring its daily two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels. Digestion and elimination are being slowed up. Food is accumulating and decaying inside you and making you feel wretched. More bowel-movers like salts, oil, mineral water, laxative candy or chewing gum, or cathartics, don't go far enough. You need a liver stimulant. Carter's Little Liver Pills is the best one. Safe. Purely vegetable. Sure. Ask for them by name. Refuse substitutes. 25c. at all druggists. 62
