6 Reasons For Purchasing a
Heintzman
Piano.

1.—Mr. Heintzman and sons, all be practical piano makers, personally supervise whole manufacturing.

2.—All the Scales are drawn and Patterns made by themselves personally.

3.—The Heintzman & Co. Pianos have always been awarded First Premiums wherever exhibited.

4.—A majority of manufacturers and so-called "Associations" claim to make pianos exactly like Heintzman's, "to have" Heintzman's "reputation" or best workman, etc., etc., showing conclusively that the Heintzman & Co.'s Instruments are universally conceded to possess the highest degree of excellence.

5.—Heintzman & Co., with their immense working capital, have at all times been able to employ the choice of workmen, the employment of the most useful and costly machinery, the selection of lumber and its vast and essential accumulation for the thoroughly necessary purposes. They use only first-class material for their keys, and none but the very best veneers, and only the very choicest and most faultless materials.

6.—The fact that the greatest caution should be exercised in the purchase of a piano, and that the established reputation of its maker should be as much relied upon as the apparent quality of the instrument and far more than it is, is a good and perfect piano is welcome in every household and will remain a source of pleasure, while a poor instrument made of unseasoned material, will, by continuing to get out of tune and order, soon become a tiresome nuisance, which, if purchased from an irresponsible maker, can be abated only by the heavy sacrifice. Heintzman & Co. warrant their piano for five years, and their guarantee is just what it says.

CITY AND COUNTRY

Guardian Correspondents Everywhere.

Any person desiring to rent a double office, with a desirable location, should apply at this office at once.

REV. JAS. McDOUGALL, of P. E. Island is visiting the city. He is the guest of Capt. McDougall, Laurier Street—Sydney Post.

No. 2 Co. 4th Reg. C. A. will meet to-night at the drill shed at 7.30 in p.m. As this this will be the last meeting every man must be present.

Mrs. HYNEMAN, of Charlottetown, is on the guest of Lady Davies. Mrs. Davies is in Toronto pursuing her studies in elocution.—Ottawa Citizen.

A TURNIP best measuring 108 inches was left at THE GUARDIAN office yesterday by Mr. T. S. Newson of Cornwall. The need of an exhibition is being demonstrated daily.

MORE than twenty-five good stories will form part of the contents of the five weekly issues of The Youth's Companion in October. Among the writers of them will be Jane Barlow, C. A. Stephens, Mrs. Steel, R. L. Hendrick, Sarah Orne Jewett, Annie H. Donnell, L. J. Bates, Carroll Rankin and Holman Day. There will be stories of sea and land, stories of North and South, stories of the pioneers of the old frontier, stories of adventures in field and forest.

THE Montreal Trade Bulletin of Oct. 11th says: Although there were less live hogs in yesterday in Montreal, prices sagged to $6.50 which is the lowest price for choice hogs on this market for some time past. The above is a drop of 50c. per 100 lbs since Monday.—A cable from London published in the same issue says: The market is weak and lower under large arrivals of American and Canadian; and the latter has declined 5s per cwt.

LECTURES at ORWELL HEAD.—Rev. Dr. H. Warren will by special request deliver his illustrated lectures on "John Bunyan and his Immortal Dream" and "A Trip through England and Scotland, in the Presbyterian Church, Orwell Head on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings next, 22nd and 23rd inst., commencing at 7.30 o'clock. Large and beautiful views projected by a lime light stereopticon will illustrate each lecture. Proceeds in aid of Church funds.

MR. WILLIAM CONROY of Pownall Street, has the pleasure of knowing that his boots and shoes have proved eminently satisfactory. The stock selected by Mr. Conroy is universally admired for its artistic construction and finish. All the lines carried are made by well known firms and when you buy an article with a well known and reliable firm's name and trade mark on the label, you have an insurance policy that the goods are as represented. The man who expects to succeed in any business must give the people a dollar's worth of value for a hundred cents. Believing this to be true Mr. Conroy guarantees the quality to equal the best ever placed on the market.

THE delegates returned from the Y. M. C. A. Convention at Moncton on Monday evening. The Convention was largely attended and is said to be one of the best ever held. Saturday night was Railroad Night and was presided over by J. C. Gass of Shubenacadie. Among the speakers were: E. G. Russel, Manager I. C. Railway; Thomas Williams, Treasurer I. C. R.; J. J. Wallace, General Freight Agent, I. C. R.; John F. Moore, International Y. M. C. A. Railroad Secretary, and others. Mr. Russel spoke of "The Railroad Association Work as I have seen it," and showed how helpful it had proved on lines where he had seen it in operation. Letters were received from D. Pottinger, General Manager I. C. R.; P. Giffins, General Manager D. A. R. and others. The Sunday meetings were very profitable and were very largely attended, the farewell service being very impressive.

DEAR BRETHREN, GREETING:—Once more we address you by letter. Our fifty-second year is nearing its close. The records that have been made during the year shall go down in history. The present only is ours to make the most of the opportunities that comes to us. There are many evidences of progress but much is yet to be accomplished.

We hope to meet a large number of representatives and visitors at our Annual Session on Friday the 25th inst. at Grandville—5 miles from Bradalbane and about the same distance from Fredericton.

Those going by train are requested to inform Bro. A. K. Henry that they may be met at the Station.

Our obliging Supt. of Railway has granted the usual privilege of single fare tickets good going on the 23rd, 24th, and 25th, and for return up to and on the 23th from all stations to Bradalbane or Fredericton. Don't forget the date Friday, Oct. 25, at 11.8. m.

Fraternally,

For the Children.

To Keep Their Digestion Perfect Nothing is so Safe and Pleasant as Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

Thousands of men and women have found Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets the safest and most reliable preparation for any form of indigestion or stomach trouble.

Thousands of people who are not sick, but are well and wish to keep well take

Stuart's Tablets after each meal to insure perfect digestion and avoid trouble.

But it is not generally known that the Tablets are just as good and wholesome for their little folks as for their elders.

Little children who are pale, thin and have no appetite, or do not grow or thrive, should use the tablets after eating and will derive great benefit from them.

Mrs. G. H. Crotsley, 538 Washington St. Hoboken, New Jersey, writes: "Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets just fill the bill for children as well as for older folks. I've had the best of luck with them. My three-year old girl takes them as readily as candy. I have only to say 'tablets' and she drops everything else and runs for them."

A Buffalo mother, a short time ago, who despaired of the life of her baby, was so delighted with the results from giving the child these tablets that she went before the notary public of Erie Co., N. Y., and made the following affidavit:

Gentlemen:—Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets were recommended to me for my two-months-old baby, which was sick and puny and the doctors said was suffering from indigestion. I took the child to the hospital, but there I found no relief. A friend mentioned the Stuart's Tablets and I procured a box. I gave the tablets and used only the large sweet lozenges in the box and was delighted to find they were just the thing for my baby. I feel justified in saying that Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets saved my child's life.

MRS. W. T. DETHLOPE,
Subscribed and sworn to before me this 12th day of April, 1897.

HENRY KAIRNS,
Notary Public in and for Erie Co., N. Y.

For babies, no matter how young or delicate, the tablets will accomplish wonders in increasing flesh, appetite and growth. Use only the large sweet tablets in every box. Full sized boxes are sold by all druggists for 50 cents, and no parent should neglect the use of this safe remedy for all stomach troubles if the child is ailing in any way regarding its food or assimilation.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets have been known for years as the best preparation for all stomach troubles whether in adults or infants.
