Graham's Road And Vicinity

A regrettable accident took place here recently when Mr. John Murray fell and broke his ankle.

Miss Ellen Harrington, teacher of Clinton School, has returned from Charlottetown where she attended the Teachers' Convention.

Friends will regret to hear of the illness of Mr. John A. Brown who is confined to his home with a severe attack of pleurisy.

Mrs. John L. Sullivan has returned from an enjoyable trip to St. John, N. B. Mrs. Sullivan accompanied her daughter, Mabel, who has entered Saint Joseph's Hospital for training. Mrs. Sullivan has been confined to her home with a severe cold since her return.

Mr. John Whitehead, Clinton, was a visitor to Summerside on Saturday.

It is depressing to learn that Mrs. John A. Brown, Graham's Road, is ill with asthma.

Miss Gladys Crocen, student at Union Commercial College, Charlottetown, spent the Easter holidays with her parents.

Mr. John O'Connor, student at St. Dunstan's University, Charlottetown, spent the holidays with his family in Clinton.

Mrs. Francis Murray, Graham's Road, is ill in the hospital. Her friends all hope to see her well soon.

Mr. Ernest Stewart, student at Prince of Wales College, spent his vacation at his home in Northboro. Mr. Stewart is a brilliant 2nd year student.

Owing to the unfavorable weather conditions, it was virtually impossible to sport the Easter bonnet on Sunday last, yet many retained the strong old Easter spirit and got around.

Among the many people who attended the entertainment at Emerald hall on Monday night were: Miss Dorothy Crocen, Miss Gladys Crocen, Miss Adele McIvor and Miss Margaret McQuaid.

Mr. George Pickering, first year student at Prince of Wales College, spent the holidays with his parents Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Pickering of Clinton.

OVERSEAS NURSE—Perhaps the first P. E. Island girl to go to France as a nursing sister in this war is Miss Ida MacKay, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mont MacKay. Miss MacKay was on a visit to the Old County when war broke out and had originally intended to sail on the ill-fated Athenia. But the Island girl heard the call of service and joined up as a nursing sister with the British Expeditionary Force. It is with the B. E. F. that she is now serving "Some-where in France." Prior to her going to France she was attached for a time to a London military hospital where she had the privilege of caring for some of the soldiers from Canada's First Division. Miss MacKay is a graduate of the Royal Victoria Hospital and later pursued postgraduate studies at Toronto.

Remnant of the evening was spent in dancing and social chat. Following is the programme. Instrumental music by Andrews girls. Miss Dorothy Crocen sang two songs and played the guitar. The rendering of several lovely songs to guitar music by Mr. Gordon Jay. A monologue by Miss Margaret McQuaid. Intermission and sale of candy and instrumental music. A well acted playette by P. E. own players. The cast included Mrs. Alfred Curley, William Francis, Miss Roma Curley and Mr. Maurice Deacon. An interesting reading by Miss Joan O'Connor—"The Cattle Thief." Songs by Gordon Jay.

Mr. Ernest Stewart, student at Prince of Wales College, spent the Easter vacation with his parents in Emerald.

On Wednesday, March 20th, people from near and far assembled at the premises of Mr. Albert Dennis, Clinton, to attend an auction sale of much stock and farm implements. The farm was not sold, but it is Mr. Dennis' intention to sell soon and move to Charlottetown.

Hearty congratulations are being extended to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Deighen on the arrival of a bouncing baby girl on March 14th.

Mr. Emmitt Allen, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Allen, Emerald, who has been studying in Prince of Wales College was home for the holidays.

Mrs. Charles Deighen has returned to her home from the Prince County Hospital Summerside.

The hall at Emerald was filled to capacity on Monday evening, March 26th, by people from near and far who gathered to attend a social evening sponsored by the St. James' Branch of the Catholic Women's League. Rev. Phelan MacKenna acted as chairman and a much enjoyed program was enacted. Candy was sold and brought large results. After the program a dainty lunch was served and the

In Memoriam

MR. HARRY F. NAGHAN

There passed away at his home at Kinkora, March 19th, at the early age of 22 years, Harry Ranaghan, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Ranaghan. Harry, as he was familiarly known, possessed a kind and genial disposition and was a favourite of both young and old. Due to a heart condition, he was confined to his bed for more than a year, but he bore his prolonged illness with patience and christian resignation. During his illness he was frequently visited by his Pastor, Rev. M. J. Smith who administered to him the last rites of Holy Mother Church. His funeral, which was largely attended, was held from his late residence to St. Malachy's Church, Kinkora, on Thursday afternoon, March 21st. The services at the church and grave were performed by the Pastor, assisted by Rev. J. W. McCordie, a cousin of the deceased. There are left to mourn the loss of Harry, his mother, a sorrowing father and two brothers and two sisters, Albert, Boston, Mass. James, employed with Canada Packers, Windsor, Ont., and John, N. B., Mac, Detroit, Mich. The pallbearers were: Messrs. Elmer Keefe, Joseph Johnston, Vincent Lawless, Charles McCordie, Leo Sheenan, Ralph McCarville.

In Memoriam

MISS ADELINE S. MacLAREN

Miss Adeline S. MacLaren of New P. E. Island passed to her eternal rest at the age of thirty-five years on the tenth day of March. She had been in delicate health for a number of years, at which time she was tenderly nursed by a devoted mother who survives her as well as two brothers Douglas MacLaren of New P. E. and James MacLaren of Boston also a sister Mrs. L. H. Drake of Meadownook, P. E. I. She was a member of the Christian Church at Montague. The funeral was held on March 12th and the services at the home and grave were conducted by her pastor the Rev. W. L. Outhouse. The hymns sung were The Lords My Shepherd, and Abide With Me. The pallbearers were Messrs. Ray MacNeill, George Kennedy, Joseph Callaghan, Stirling MacLeod, William Minchin and Jerome Power. Burial was in Brudenell Cemetery.
