AUTOINTOXICATION OR SELF-POISONING

The Dangerous Condition Which Produces Many Well Known Diseases.

HOW TO GUARD AGAINST THIS TROUBLE

"FRUIT-A-TIVES" — The Wonderful Fruit Medicine — will Protect You

Autointoxication means self-poisoning, caused by continuous or partial constipation, or insufficient action of the bowels.

Instead of the refuse matter passing daily from the body, it is absorbed by the blood. As a result, the Kidneys and Skin are overworked, in their efforts to rid the blood of this poisoning.

Poisoning of the blood in this way often causes Indigestion, Loss of Appetite and Disturbed Stomach. It may produce Headaches and Sleeplessness. It may irritate the Kidneys and bring on Pain in the Back, Rheumatism, Gout, and Rheumatic Pains. It is the chief cause of Eczema—and keeps the whole system unhealthy by the constant absorption into the blood of this refuse matter.

"Fruit-a-tives" will always cure Autointoxication or self-poisoning—as "Fruit-a-tives" acts gently on bowels, kidneys and skin, strengthens the bowels and tones up the nervous system.

THURSDAY

—INVALIDED HOME.—Mr. William MacDonald, Clermont received a telegram on Saturday from his brother Neil, who is in St. John, N. B. on his way to his old home in Clermont, having been invalided home, after serving over two years in the trenches in France Mr. MacDonald enlisted in one of the Western contingents.—K.

Died at Canoe Cove on December 22nd, Maggie Darrah, aged 66 years, leaving to mourn their loss, an aged mother, four sisters and two brothers: Duncan and James and Mrs. Carrie McLean of Canoe Cove; Mrs. Archie McPhail, St. Catherines and Mrs. Bell Grayham, Vermont; Mrs. Archie McLean, Quincy, Mass. Rev. A. Hurn conducted the funeral service, which was largely attended. The remains were laid to rest in the Long Creek Cemetery. (Pat. and Ex. please copy.)

KILLED IN ACTION.—Lieut. Foster W. Rhude of the Aviation Corps, son of Captain I. C. Rhude and Mrs. Rhude of Halifax and a brother of Mrs. T. Gordon Ives of Montague, was killed in action on November 30th. He enlisted in St. John, N. B. the day following the declaration of war in 1914, going overseas with the first contingent, where he served in the trenches for some two years. He returned to England last fall, 1916, where he took up the aviation course, which he completed last spring and had only been in the firing line a few weeks when he received his fatal wound.

WEDDING BELLS.—At the Methodist Parsonage Prince Albert, Sask. on Nov. 27th a very quite and pretty wedding took place, the principle being Mr. Harry Hunter a very prominent business man of Kinistino, and Miss Gladys Holland, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Cark of Kinistine and formerly of Victoria, P. E. I. After the wedding the happy young couple left on the train on their honey moon trip. While away they will visit Edmonton, Saskatoon, Regina, Winnipeg and other cities of interest. Upon their return Mr. and Mrs. Hunter will reside in Kinistino. A host of friends join in wishing them a very happy journey through life

SELLING LAMBS CO-OPERATIVELY.—The Secretary of the Central Farmers Institute is in receipt of a resolution from the Glenwood Farmers Institute re the selling of lambs co-operatively. Quite a number of the Institutes advertised for tenders for their lambs last autumn and so many of them only received one tender that it almost appears that the buyers had some arrangement among themselves. The resolution accordingly asks the Central Institute to consider some means of disposing of the lambs co-operatively. The Annual meeting will be held in Prince of Wales College Hall on Wednesday and Thursday January 16 and 17 and already delegates are being appointed.

PATRIOTIC SOCIETY.—The annual meeting of the Women's Patriotic Society of Hampton met at the home of Mrs. Walter Rogerson on Thursday evening, Dec. 20th, 1917. The Treasurer's report showed a successful year's work, amount raised $245.16. 45 Christmas stockings were sent to the wounded soldiers, valued at $55.00. Of this number 20 filled stockings were donated and the remainder in cash to the amount of $26.09; 115 pairs socks, 11 flannel shirts, paid for yarn $56.00, for prisoner $79.00; Christmas gift to prisoner $2.00; to Y.M.C.A. overseas $25.00; to Belgian Relief Fund $10.00; to Red Cross $20.00. Incidental expenses $17.86. Balance on hand $9.21.

LECTURE ENJOYED.—The Rev. T. W. Goodwill, delivered a very interesting and instructive lecture on the war in the hall at Hampton on November 21st. under the auspices of the Women's Patriotic Society. The building was filled to the door with a very appreciative audience. Rev. J. S. MacKay occupied the chair. The large choir made up from the different churches rendered some very appropriate choruses under the leadership of Miss Marion MacLeod who presided at the organ. A solo by Miss Mary Inman was very much appreciated at the close of the lecture. Mrs. J. S. MacKay in a few appropriate words moved that the thanks of the audience be tendered to the Rev. Mr. Goodwill for the profitable evening he gave. The motion was seconded by Mrs. J. D. MacFarlane, and supported by Mr. John Myers and was conveyed to the lecturer by a standing vote. Preceding the lecture there was a sale of candy, and at the close of the lecture coffee and cake were served. Proceeds at the door $34.50. From sale of candy $8.45 from coffee and cake 13.45. The members of the Society are grateful to Mr. Oscar Myers for the generous donation of $5.00, to Miss Mary Inman 50c. and since the lecture to Mr. Walter Rogerson for $2.000 and are always ready to receive donations at any time.

Hard to Drop Meat?

All depends on what you eat as a substitute. It is a good time to study "food value." You may be eating the wrong foods, the foods that cost most and give the least nutriment. Shredded Wheat Biscuit contains more real, body-building nutriment, pound for pound, than meat, eggs or potatoes and costs much less. Two of these Biscuits with milk and a little fruit make a nourishing meal at a cost of a few cents. Make Shredded Wheat your "meat." A satisfying breakfast on which to start the day's work. It is ready-cooked and ready-to-eat. Made in Canada.

CIVIL SERVICE.—In the list of successful candidates at a Preliminary Examination for the Outside Division of the Civil Service of Canada, held at different centres throughout the Dominion on the 13th November, 1917 the following names from Charlottetown appear: Hagen, Winnifred, Henderson, Homer L., Hooper, Harry C.

FURTHER PARTICULARS.— In answer to enquiries sent by the Marine Office here, asking for particulars of life boats, etc., picked up, the following telegram has been received from St. Paul's Island:— Lifeboat No. 2 Lur Carona, iron built 1913, Lake Engraving Works, Detroit. Part of Pilot and cabin finish, some deck plank, one life belt from same steamer found. Signed, John M. Campbell.

FUNERAL.—The funeral of the late Richard Muhar took place from his home Saturday Dec. 22nd. at 1 p. m. and was ery largely attended. The late Mr. Mahar was 78 years of age at the time of his death and one of the most successful farmers of Pleasant Grove. He leaves to mourn four brothers and three sisters to whom the sympathy of the entire community goes out in their bereavement. The pall-bearers were Messrs. A. Doyle, Edward Wyatt, John Crockett, William Crockett, William Curran, Henry Curran.

St. Peter's Bay mourns the loss of a brilliant young man, Louis J. McEwen, who was killed in action in France, on November 15th, at the age of 24 years. He was the son of James A. and Henrietta McEwen, of St. Peter's, and is survived by one brother, Lloyd, and five sisters, who have the sympathy of the community in their great bereavement. The late L. J. McEwen took the Teachers' Course in P. W. College, and was licensed at the age of 18 years, and taught school for a few years in his native province and in Saskatchewan. He entered the University of Saskatoon as a law student, where he distinguished himself by taking a scholarship tenable for two years. He was a young man of unblemished reputation, with a bright career before him, but like many of our heroic young men, he heard the call of King and country an enlisted in the service of the Empire, and was less than two weeks in the trenches when he fell in action. A suitable memorial service was held for him, in the Presbyterian church, St. Peter's, on Dec. 2nd, the pastor speaking in high terms of his character and career from the words: "O Jonathan, thou wast slain in thine high places." (II. Sam. 1:25.) His memory will remain green among his acquaintances for years to come for his splendid qualities and his self-sacrificing life.

WEDDING ANNIVERSARY.— The following clipping from the Brooklyn "Chat" will be interesting reading to friends and relatives here as Mr. MacNeill referred to is a son of the late Archibald MacNeill of this city and Mrs. MacNeill a daughter of Mrs. A. MacKinnon 73 Euston Street, City:— On Saturday evening, November 24, a very pleasant surprise was given to Mr. and Mrs. J. H. MacNeill, the occasion being the twenty-fifth anniversary of their wedding. About thirty guests were present, among them being Mr. and Mrs. J. H. MacNeill, Miss C. L. Petersen, Mrs. P. Petersen, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Wright, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Gazan, Mrs. E. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Freeman, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Fletcher, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hibbard, Mrs. M. E. Babcock, Mrs. C. R. Yeaton, Mr. Edward Riker Miss Elsie Michaelis, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Scott Wells, Mrs. Stryker, Mrs. Meserole, Mrs. Whitbread, and a few others. The guests assembled at one of the lady's houses and then went in automobiles to the house of the bride and groom of twenty-five years, each person carrying some of the delicious goodies that were afterwards served. Mr. J. H. MacNeill has been worthy patron of Flatbush Chapter, No. 177, for the past year and on account of his genial disposition and good fellowship this surprise was tendered to him and his wife. Games were entered into, the prizes being won by Mr. Harry C. Freeman and Mr. Leslie H. Wright. Singing and dancing was also entered into and at 11.30, the guests went into the dining-room, which was tastefully decorated by some of the guestts, where a bountiful repast was served. There was a large wedding cake, with twenty-five candles burning and the bride and groom making a wish, cut the cake, so that each one present could take home a piece of the wedding cake. Mr. and Mrs. MacNeNill were the recipients of many beautiful flowers and also a set of sterling silver teaspoons and silver sugar tongs.

ARRIVES IN ENGLAND—Mr. and Mrs. W. W. McCoubrey, New Glasgow, have received word that their grandson, Flight-Lieut. Lorren W. Heseltine, had arrived safely in England. Lieut. Heseltine is a native of New Glasgow but his home is now in Windsor, Ont., where his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Heseltine reside.

—PATRIOTIC FAMILY—Mr. Robt. McGougan of Malpeque was in Kensington on Monday. Mr. McGougan enjoys the distinction of having had four sons fighting with the Canadian forces in the big battle which took place on June 2nd, 1916 one of whom had the honor of being decorated with Military medal for conspicuous bravery.—K.

CHRISTMAS DAY.— Christmas day was observed quietly in Charlottetown. There were the usual family re-unions some members coming from the far west to be home with rest of the family on "the day of days." The Arena rink opened and was well patronized as were also the two performances at the Prince Edward Theatre of the Harkins players. Sleighing and especially speeding was the order of the day with many and as usual Great George St. and Elm Avenue were given over as a speed way and all owners of speed and near speed were out in numbers. One driver was thrown but no damage resulted as his horse stood quietly until the tumult and the shouting "had died."

On the 3rd of November there passed away a well known and life long resident of Lyndale the late Murdoch MacKenzie. He was in poor health for some time past, but especially for the last twelve months, when he was constantly in very indifferent health He was sick only a few hours when the end came quite unexpectedly in the home of his daughter, Mrs. Harvey MacKenna, Victoria Cross, where he was visiting.

He was farming all his lifetime, and unlike many others he had no desire to be much away from home, which was characteristic of his quiet and unassuming disposition.

To his funeral there gathered from far and near a very large number, even though the day was very disagreeable and cold and the funeral service was conducted by his pastor, the Rev. J. M. MacLeod, Valleyfield. He leaves to mourn his loss, a widow, three sons, Ronald and John in Boston, and Dan on the homestead, and one daughter, Mrs. MacKena.

It is with deep sorrow, the death is chronicled of Alexander H. McDonald, who died at his home at Glencorradale on Dec., 10th, 1917 in the 68th year of his age. Deceased was in good health up to four days, previous his death, when he was stricken with congestion of the lungs and despite all the medical aid and careful nursing, he departed this life. He bore his suffering with perfect resignation to the Holy Will of God and received the last rites of the Catholic church from his beloved pastor Rev. R. J. MacDonald. He was a man of sterling qualities, honest upright and sincere and will be much missed by his relatives and friends. He leaves to mourn, besides three brothers, a sorrowing widow, three sons and four daughters. A large concourse of people followed his remains to St. Columba Church, where High Mass was celebrated by the pastor, thence to the cemetery, where all that was mortal of a loving husband and kind father was laid to rest. May his soul rest in peace.

On December the 4th there departed from this world into the spiritual one the spirit of Miss Margaret E. Cameron, only daughter of the late John Wm. Cameron of Albany. She had been in declining health for some time and thinking that a change of climate might restore her to her usual health her mother took her to a foreign land without any beneficial results. Although everything that was possible for human hands and human skill to do was gladly performed, yet it pleased the Creator of all things to summon her back to Himself at the early age of twenty years. Her body was removed from the residence of her mother to the People's Church, where a large number assembled on the night of the fifth, and the funeral services were conducted by the Rev. D. MacLean, who attended her during her sickness. On the early train of the next morning, the remains were taken to Albany, where a number of friends met the remains and conducted them to the Kirk Cemetery at Cape Traverse, where they were gently placed beside those of her father. She leaves to mourn their loss a mother and one brother, Samuel Kennedy, yet they mourn not as those who have no hope, as Margaret was trusting in the Lord Jesus Christ as her only Saviour and anxiously waiting, even wishing, for the hour to come when she would depart from this world, to a home beyond. Not dead but gone before.

At an early hour yesterday morning about two-thirty o'clock, the spirit of Mr. James D. Lawson returned to Him who gave it. His death has proved quite a shock to citizens, few being aware of his illness. It appears that he had not been enjoying good health for some months, and on Saturday, on the advise of his physician, he entered the Prince Edward Island Hospital, but in a few days, the inevitable occurred. The late Mr. Lawson occupied the position of Gauger in H. M. S. Customs here, his appointment dating back over thirty years. Previous to entering this service he had been assistant Editor of the "Presbyterian," published in Charlottetown by his brother, the late Rev. Stephen G. Lawson. Mr. Lawson was a native of Stanhope and before coming to the city taught school in his native district. He was a man of unassuming disposition and his chief interest was in connection with church work. During his entire lifetime, he was a consistent member of the Presbyterian Church and a regular attendant at nearly all the services in Zion Church here. He took a particular interest in foreign missions and his donations in this direction were exceptionally generous and quite frequent. Although reserved, he possessed many fine qualities and was friendly with all.

The late Mr. Lawson was a very efficent official and discharged his duties faithfully and well. His leisure time was spent in reading—particularly the Bible, on which he was a noted authority here. His death will be learned with general regret and it may well be said of him, that he has gone to his reward. Two members of the family, namely John A., in Charlottetown, and Charles in the United Staes, are the only survivors of this family.

The Guardian is sorry to report the death of Miss Elise G. Matheson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Matheson of Oyster Bed Bridge. She had been studying nursing in a hospital in Taunton, Mass., where she contracted typhoid fever. She gradually improved so that she was able to return home but the disease had left its traces behind. She went to the P. E.I. Hospital and had an operation performed and although apparently successful at the time yet she never fully recovered and at length her gentle spirit returned to God who gave it. A strong, active clever girl, yet death had marked her for his own, and by the permission of the Father above, came as the messenger to conduct her to a higher and happier state. Trusting in the merits of a crucified, but now highly exalted Redeemer, she gently passed beyond the reach of trouble and trial into the rest, which remains for the people of God. For a little longer she has left behind her a sorrowing father and mother, one brother, Hugh John. Sisters, Barbara, who was studying in the same hospital; Mary, teaching in Duval, Sask., Susan and Beatrice attending P. of W. College. The last sad rites were conducted by the Rev. D. MacLean and a sympathizing community attended. The pall-bearers were Frederick Horne, Gordon Carr, Heber Horne, Harry Matheson, Neil Matheson and Wm. MacNaughton. The remains were interred in the Portage Cemetery to await the ressurrection of the just. "Because I live, ye shall live also."—Com.

The following is a list of judgments (summarised) which were delivered yesterday in the Supreme Court by His Lordship Mr. Justice Fitzgerald, Appeal Judge for Queen's County under the Military Service Act:—

Henry James Barr: Exemption allowed until June 19, 1918.

Martin J. Sinnott: (Disallowed.) Appeal dimissed and judgment of local tribunal confirmed disallowing exemption.

John Ronald Gillis: Exempted until 17 May. Appeal dismissed and exemption of 6 months, allowed by local tribunal, approved.

Harold M. Cain: Medical Board on re-examination report him in Class "B" instead of Class "A" as formerly reported by them. Exempted for medical reasons only.

Gordon Melvert Crockett: For medical reasons only, exempted from military service in Class "A."

Angus McLeod: Exemption allowed until 19th June, 1918.

George Thorne Binns: Decision of Local Tribunal sustained. Exempted until 17th May, 1918.

Reginald Duncan McMillan: Appeal dismissed and exemption disallowed.

Heath McIntyre: Exempted from military service in Class "A" for medical reasons only, according to re-examination by Medical Board, who put him in Class "E."

John Andrew Jewell: (Disallowed.) Appeal dismissed and exemption disallowed.

Patrick Wm. McGee: Put in Class 2 by Mt. Stewart Tribunal. Appeal allowed and exemption allowed until he ceases to be employed in agricultural labour essential to production. Court deciding that exempting for agricultural labours until Class 2 is called out is not a correct decision. All such should only be exempted while they remain essential in agricultural production. The same ruling was followed in all cases in which appellants were placed in Class 2, marked thus: *

Wm. Henry French: Appeal dismissed and exemption disallowed.

Edward Dunn: (Exempted until Class 2 is called, by Mr. Stewart Tribunal.) Appeal of Military Representative dismissed. Exemption allowed until he ceases to be employed in agricultural labour essential to production.

Alexander Ross Rynes: Until Class 2 is called, by Mt. Stewart Tribunal. Appeal allowed and exemption allowed until he ceases to be employed in agricultural labour essential to production.

Herman McCarron: (Until Class 2 is called.) Appeal allowed and exemption allowed until he ceases to be ememployed in agricultural labour essential to production.

Charles Augustine Quinn: (Until Class 2 is called) Appeal allowed and exemption allowed until he ceases to be employed in agricultural labour essential to production.

Robert Rhynes: (Until Class 2 is called.) Appea of Miitary Representative upheld and exemption disallowed.

Walter James Byrne: (Until Class 2 is called.) Appeal allowed and exemption allowed until he ceases to be employed in Agricultural labour essential to production.

James Callaghan: (Until Class 2 is called.) Appeal of Military Representative upheld and exemption disallowed.

James Edwin Curley: (Until Class 2 is called) Appeal allowed and exemption allowed until he ceases to be employed in agricultural labour essential to production.

Alexander Kennedy: (Disallowed.) Appeal dismissed and exemption disallowed.

James Bowell Stewart: (Until Class 2 is called) Appeal allowed end exemption allowed until he ceases to be employed in agricultural labour essential to production.

Robert Emmet Byrne: Exempted from military service in Class "A" for medical reasons only, as on re-examination by Medical Board he was put in Class "D."

A Stubborn Cough Loosens Right Up

This home-made remedy is a wonder for quick results. Easily and cheaply made.

The prompt and positive action of this simple, inexpensive home-made remedy in quickly healing the inflamed or swollen membranes of the throat, chest or bronchial tubes and breaking up tight coughs, has caused it to be used in more homes than any other cough remedy. Under its healing, soothing influence, chest soreness goes, phlegm loosens, breathing becomes easier, tickling in the throat stops and you get a good night's restful sleep. The usual throat and chest colds are conquered by it in 24 hours or less. Nothing better for bronchitis, hoarseness, croup, whooping cough, bronchial asthma or winter coughs.

To make this splendid cough syrup, pour 2½ ounces of Pinex (50 cents worth) into a 16-oz. bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup and shake thoroughly. You then have 16 ounces—a family supply of a much better cough syrup than you could buy ready-made for $2.50. Keeps perfectly and children love its pleasant taste.

Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract and is known the world over for its promptness, ease and certainty in overcoming stubborn coughs and chest colds.

To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with full directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., Toronto Ont.

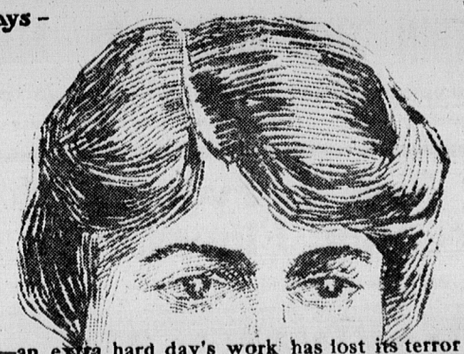
The Housewife says—



—an extra hard day's work has lost its terror for me since I discovered how quickly WILSON'S INVALIDS' PORT would take away that worn-out exhausted feeling.

—In winter, when Grippe and Coughs and Colds are generally prevalent, I take WILSON'S INVALIDS' PORT regularly and find it a perfect preventative.

Dr. R. Lawrence, the celebrated physician, writes:

"I had recently occasion to prescribe 'Wilson's Invalids' Port' to a patient who had been suffering from a severe attack of 'La Grippe' with great satisfaction to myself, and to the patient, who made a rapid recovery."

BIG BOTTLE — ASK YOUR DOCTOR — EVERYWHERE

"Orange Lily"—the woman's friend—will transform your life!

If you are of that numberless host of women who silently suffer untold distress and agonizing pains caused by obstinate and long-standing disorders of an internal nature, let me make you this free and open promise—"Orange Lily" will transform your life!

I know the symptoms as well as yourself, for I too suffered for years before the discovery of "Orange Lily" home treatment. Now that I am entirely and forever free of the almost unendurable distress and pain of former years, I am only too glad to help others. "Orange Lily" is a local treatment that you apply yourself, without help, in your own home. A few days will work wonders and, like hundreds of others, you'll thank me for making known the good news to you.

Write me to-day and let me send you ten days' treatment of "Orange Lily"—absolutely free. It may save you from fatal complications later. When you are free from present troubles just tell others, that is all I ask. Address in full confidence Mrs. Lydia W. Ladd, successor to Mrs. Frances E. Currah, Windsor, Ont. 17
