

DYNAMITE MACHINE IS IDENTIFIED

Flynn Gives Important Testimony. Detective Rice also on Stand

(Canadian Press)
INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 18.—The blackened piece of the infernal machine which figured in the explosion at Los Angeles on Oct. 1, 1910, when 21 people were killed in the wreck of the Times Building, were identified at the dynamite conspiracy trial today. Wm. Flynn, an employee of a powder co. in San Francisco testified that on September 20, 1910, he packed in boxes 500 pounds of nitro-glycerine and delivered it to a launch used by McNamara. That was ten days before the Los Angeles explosion. Meanwhile the dynamite had stored explosives in a vacant house in San Francisco and McNamara had taken the supply to Los Angeles. Thomas F. Rice one of the private detectives told of having been sent to the home of General Harrison Gray Otis proprietor of the Times. "At General Otis' home," said Rice, "we found a suitcase under the bay-window. I carried the case about 75 feet and called the chief of police. When he arrived we opened the case and in doing so we heard a buzz of an alarm clock. All ran and in another instant there was an explosion which tore up the ground for an eighth of an acre."

KILLED WHEN STRUCK BY TRAIN

YARMOUTH, November 17.—David Gowan, one of the oldest citizens of Yarmouth county, was killed last night in the village of Arcadia by the Halifax and South-Western, when inward bound. The driver of the engine was immediately put on and the train stopped, only striking the old man enough to throw him forward. The train then picked him up and carried him to the house a short distance away where he died in fifteen minutes afterwards. Dr. Phinney, who was called, examined the body and announced that death was due to the shock, as not a bruise was on him. He is survived by four sons in Yarmouth, and one daughter in New York. He was aged 83 years.

COAL DEAR IN MONTREAL

MONTREAL, Nov. 16.—Leading coal dealers charge $8.25 a ton for coal delivered in or near the centre of the city. Up in the north and in outlying districts they are charging $9 a ton. These prices are only charged by dealers to their own customers. They are not quoting at all the outsiders. Chestnut coal is being sold at $8.50 a ton.

INVENTS DEVICE FOR SILENCING MOTOR BOAT ENGINES.

HARTFORD, Conn., Nov. 16.—Hiram Percy Maxim, Jr., of this city, son of Sir Hiram, has added to his silencers for guns, motor cycles, stationary engines, rock drills and locomotive safety valves, a motor boat silencer. It is largely an adaptation of the gun silencer. As in the latter a set of disks is arranged to start the escaping exhaust gas, whirling around as water swirls in running from the sink bowl. At a distance of thirty feet not the slightest exhaust popping can be heard in the largest motor boat engines. The device measures from twelve to twenty-nine inches, according to the amount of work it is expected to do, and weighs from twenty to thirty-four pounds.

MAY BE ANOTHER PATRICK CASE

NEW YORK, Nov. 16.—The case of Burton W. Gibson, the lawyer charged with the murder of Mrs. Rosa Menschik Szabo, his client, on Greenwood lake on July 16, of this year, is scheduled to be called for trial next Monday in Goshen, N. Y., in the county court of Orange county, before Judge Royce. The trial promises to be of unusual interest and full of sensational incidents and unexpected developments and it is the general belief among lawyers that the Gibson case may become another Patrick case. There is a striking analogy between many of the salient features of the two cases, which seems fully to justify the prognostication of a parallel. Everything is said to be in readiness for the opening of the trial. Gibson is charged with having murdered Mrs. Szabo, his client, while rowing with her on Greenwood lake, N. Y., on July 16. Mrs. Szabo was the widow of Bela Szabo, a Hungarian of good family, who came to this country 20 years ago. On July 16 Mrs. Szabo went rowing with Gibson. They were near the centre of the lake and just within the New York state line, when the boat apparently tipped over. Gibson exchanged seats and Mrs. Szabo apparently upset the boat, and accidentally upset the boat. When motor boats came to the scene Gibson was found clinging to a line. The woman had disappeared. Three days later Mrs. Szabo's body was found and the case was first believed to be one of accidental drowning. It was George Teichman, an employee of the hotel Knickerbocker and a friend of Mrs. Szabo, who started the investigation. He said that soon after Mrs. Szabo's death and before her friend knew that she was dead, a man, whom he identified as Gibson, called at his house to inquire whether there was any mail for Mrs. Szabo had gone west. Teichman went to Ernest Kirchnopf, the acting Austro-Hungarian consul-general in New York city, and the latter detailed Dr. Frank Fisher, the vice-consul, to investigate. Where Austrian subjects die in a foreign country without relatives there the representative of the government acts as administrator of the estate. As soon as Mrs. Szabo's death was established the consulate found that she had left an estate of more than $10,000 and that Gibson had filed a will making him executor. It was also found that on July 21 a woman posing as the dead Mrs. Menschik had appeared before Donald Lyon, a Brooklyn notary, and signed a waiver of citation, which placed Gibson in full control of the estate. Mrs. Menschik was the mother of Mrs. Szabo and had died two years ago. Steps were at once taken by the consulate to stop Gibson from disposing of the estate, but before Minard's Liniment for sale everywhere

ADVISE PURCHASE OF MONOPLANES

ROME, Nov. 19.—(Special)—It has been known for some time past that, as the result of inquiries and tests, a commission of officers and technical advisers of the Italian War Office had advised the purchase of "Bristol" military monoplanes, and successive orders have arrived at Filton for some months past, last week's order being for nine monoplanes. A National Patriotic Fund is being raised in Italy, and already amounts to between $400,000 and $500,000. The National Committee asked their War Office to settle, among all the makers of the world, the best type of machine for military purposes, and the official decision has now been published. All the machines paid for out of the Patriotic Fund will be built in Italy under the license and technical advice of the British and Colonial Aeroplane Company.

A CLEVER CROOK ROUNDED UP

HALIFAX, Nov. 18.—A. W. Smith with a string of aliases long enough to supply a dozen of his type, and wanted by the police in a score of Canadian and United States cities, one of the smoothest crooks who ever flim-flamed an unsuspecting public man run to the length of his father and repose behind the bars in the Kingston Penitentiary, beginning a three years sentence under one single charge, tho if all reports are true, he would need a long lifetime to satisfy justice were he convicted of all the charges against him. This man is undoubtedly well known to many Halifax people. He lived here a couple of years ago, and in fact married a Halifax girl, hoodwinking her as he has hoodwinked his many victims in his remarkable career of flim-flaming.

STRAPHANGER 17 YEARS.

SYDNEY, Nov. 16.—Seventeen years without a seat, although riding on a street car twice a day during the entire time! That is a record of a clerk in the War Department at Washington, D. C. This particular clerk is lame and cannot walk to his employment. He must travel during the rush hours in the morning and again in the evening. He always finds the car overcrowded at both times, and therefore during all his seventeen years travelling in the street cars he has never been able to secure a seat.

DELUDED SAILOR THINKS HE'S A FISH.

GLoucester, Nov. 15.—Edmund Burns became possessed of the delusion that he is a fish. He was a member of the fishing crew of the sturdy little schooner William Mooney. Off George's Banks Burns began to manifest peculiarities. One day he stood on deck and crying, here goes a fish, jumped into the water. They dragged him out. The schooner returned yesterday. When Burns got ashore he said he felt like a fish out of water. He ate some dinner at his boarding house, and then made a run for the dock. The police were telephoned. Policeman White reached the dock just as Burns was about to plunge into the water. He is in the hands of a doctor.

FOR PROTECTION OF YOUNG GIRLS

Who Leave Country to Join Theatrical Companies

MUNICH, Nov. 19.—(Special)—As a protection for young girls leaving the country to join theatrical companies or troupes as variety singers and dancers, the Bavarian Minister of the Interior has issued a decree to the effect that before being allowed to leave Bavaria young girls will have to obtain a written testimonial from their parents or legal guardians that the journey is being undertaken with their consent. This testimonial will then be exchanged by the police authorities for a pass.

Should, however, the authorities have reason to believe that the errand is a doubtful one, even if the parents state that they have made investigations, power is given to hinder the journey by placing the girls as wards in Chancery, withholding the pass until satisfactory investigations have been made through reliable sources.

ENGINEER SAVES TRAIN DERAILED ON THE CHARLES

BOSTON, Nov. 17.—Engineer Leonard Marshall, of Malden, saved many lives and prevented a serious accident when the 130-ton locomotive, its tender, and one car of the Portland express were derailed on the wooden structure over the Charles, just outside the North Station. The accident occurred just as the locomotive reached a sharp curve. Had the train not stopped, it would have overturned and perhaps fallen through into the river.

WOMEN DRINKING MORE AND THE MEN LESS.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15.—Women, especially young girls, are rapidly becoming more and more addicted to intoxicating liquors in the national capital, while the men are rapidly growing more abstemious, according to Albert E. Shoemaker, attorney for the anti-saloon league of the District of Columbia. His accusation has aroused women generally here Friday, and it is a subject of great discussion. Mr. Shoemaker made his charge before the Women's Christian Temperance Union Thursday evening, attributing the increasing activity of women to complete with proprietors of handsomely fitted up cafes. He also declared that under the existing laws it was impossible to secure the conviction of those who sold liquors to minors.

PROPOSED CHANGE IN EMPLOYEES LIABILITY ACT IN ONTARIO.

TORONTO, Nov. 16.—The report of the commission having under consideration the revision of the insurance acts and compensations to working men have inserted clauses in the report which the government is recommended to adopt, and it gives the working man compensation for injury without recourse to the law courts. The liability of the insurance companies is to be made pretty plain in the present law, corporation insure their workmen, and as soon as an accident happens, the insurance company is notified and writes issued against the corporation are turned over to them to fight. This practice will be stopped by making the employing company responsible for injuries to its servants.

AGREEMENT MADE IN HOME RULE

Government Announced Their Intention of Reaching an End

(Canadian Press)
LONDON, Nov. 18.—An agreement of the Home Rule quarrel in the House of Commons was brought about today when the Government announced their intention of reaching an end desired, by more roundabout means and the Unionists having made a good demand for the observance of the precedent raised no objection. The net result of the row will be to delay the progress of the Home Rule Bill for ten days.

BULLET-PROOF ARMOR.

BERLIN, Nov. 16.—A light, metal shield, claimed to be capable of rendering infantry practically invulnerable against rifle bullets, is said to have been invented by a German engineer named Schumann. Volunteers fired at a distance of eighty-five yards by the men of a Guards' regiment during experiments on the Dahlem rifle range, only slightly dented one of the newly-invented plates, equivalent in weight to a plate of nickel steel of six millimetres thickness (just under a quarter of an inch.) On the other hand, bullets fired by the same men from a similar distance at a plate of nickel steel seven millimetres thick (over a quarter of an inch), smoothly penetrated the metal.

The construction of the composition plate, which, according to Die Post, has proved far superior to nickel steel, is much less costly than in the case of nickel steel, while its weight is less than one-third.

The Prussian war minister is taking a lively interest in the invention, but it is said that the United States, Russia and Austria, were represented at the experiments, and are making active efforts to secure the invention.

NEW YORK, Nov. 17.—A new world professional record for the twelve-mile indoor run was made by William Lohamminen, of Finland, when he covered the distance to-night at the 22nd regiment armory, in 1 hour, 2 minutes and 6 seconds. The previous record, 1.04.22.3-5, was made by Hans Holmer, in Buffalo, on August 30, 1910. Holmer finished third, William Quail, of Alexandria Bay, finished second, an eighth of a mile to the rear. Carl Nieminen and Thur Johansen were far behind.

NEARLY MARRIES ONE SISTER TO WRONG MAN AT DOUBLE WEDDING

EAST ORANGE, N. J., Nov. 15.—Performing a double wedding here to-day the Rev. Dr. Fred Clare Baldwin, of Calvary Methodist church, led the brides mixed up and nearly married one of them to the wrong man. The brides were Miss Elizabeth and Miss Margaret Flanders, daughters of William T. Flanders, of 81 Beech street. They were married at their home. Miss Elizabeth to Frederick Persons, of Upper Montclair, and Miss Margaret to Demarest Lamson, of Newark. The best man for Mr. Persons was his brother, Van Ness Persons. Mr. Lamson's was Dudley Case, of Jersey City. There were no other attendants. Precedence in the ceremonies was given to Miss Elizabeth and Mr. Persons. After asking the latter if he would take "Elizabeth to be thy wedded wife," the minister turned to Miss Margaret instead of Miss Elizabeth and got pretty well along with the ritual before a touch on the arm from Mr. Case informed him that he had the right bridegroom but the wrong bride.

MILITARY SERVICE TO BE COMPULSORY

BERLIN, Nov. 19.—(Special)—Compulsory military service for German women is the remedy suggested by Professor Witzel, of Dusseldorf, in order to safeguard the health of the army when engaged in active service. Every woman should, in his opinion, undergo a thorough course of training in Red Cross work, needlework and field cooking; then, in the event of war, the feminine forces could be quickly mobilized and despatched to the scene of operation with the regular army. The women's forces would be offered by members of their own sex, and while on active service would receive wages in accordance with the duties performed.

CANADIAN WHEAT WILL BE IN DEMAND

OTTAWA, November 17.—Two facts of interest to Canadian business men are mentioned by J. E. Roy, trade commissioner at Birmingham, in the current weekly report of the trade and commerce department. Inquiries are reaching the office for hard wheat flour, and Mr. Roy understands that a big demand for the Canadian product is likely, as the quantity and quality of British and continental wheat are not up to the average this year. Mr. Roy further states that firms in a position to export Canadian brooms, whisks and brushes, should be able to do business in Birmingham.

The Siege of Adrianople has Cost Bulgaria Enormous Sacrifices. Turks Servians and Greeks Fight for the Possession of Monaster

LONDON, Nov. 18.—The siege of Adrianople has cost Bulgaria enormous sacrifices. In last Sunday's battle thousands of soldiers in both armies were killed or wounded.

VIENNA, Nov. 16.—"Die Zeet" to-day publishes a remarkable story of the suicide of a Bulgarian general in the presence of King Ferdinand, after he had been rebuked by the king. The general had been considered responsible for the decision of the first and sixth infantry regiments which were mowed down because the general either forgot to cover the charge with artillery, or gave the wrong directions for the advance.

The general, after the charge addressed the remnant of his men, praising their heroism. King Ferdinand stood by, nodding his approval. When the general had finished, the king said: "General, a word with you."

Then walking up to the general, and before the whole army the king stripped the epaulettes from the officer's uniform. The general remained an attention for a moment, then sagging the king he took a few paces to the rear and shot himself.

BRIDGIE WEBBER ON THE STAND

NEW YORK, Nov. 16.—Sam Schepps, Harry Vallon, Bridgie Webber and Jack Rose, the four informers who were expected to take the stand to-day in the trial of "Gyp the Blood," "Lefty Louie," "Whitey Lewis," and "Dago Frank," for the murder of Herman Rosenthal. These witnesses were expected to be called to rebut the testimony introduced by the defence to prove its contention that the shots which ended the gambler's life were fired by two of the informers and an unidentified stranger, and that the four defendants, lured to the scene of the shooting by Jack Rose, had no part in the murder. Justice Goff limited the time during which the State may introduce its rebuttal evidence to the forenoon session to-day. The defendant's lawyer, in closing his case, announced that he would introduce no witnesses but he would rebuttal, but his plans may be changed after the State's evidence is all in to-day. Monday it is expected will be devoted to summing up and Justice Goff probably will charge the Jury on Tuesday morning, placing the case in its hands Tuesday afternoon. Deputy Police Commissioner Dougherty, the first witness, said that Mrs. Mary Kidd, who testified yesterday as an eye witness for the defence, had told him that she had never seen the shooting. Albert Johnson, a newspaper reporter, testified that "Whitey" Lewis had told him at the time of "Whitey's" arrest in Sullivan County, that he was not in New York at the time the murder was committed.

"Bridgie" Webber then took the stand. "Did you shoot Herman Rosenthal?" asked Assistant District Attorney Moss.

"No, sir," said Bridgie. "Did you see the shooting of Herman Rosenthal?"

"No, sir."

Webber denied that anything was said in his poker rooms on the night of the murder when the four gunmen gathered there, concerning Jack Rose desiring the gunmen to meet Police Lieutenant Becker's men in order to furnish proof that he (Rose) had nothing to do with "framing" Jack Zelig.

Webber went over the testimony he had given at the Becker trial when he told of Lefty Louie coming to his place in search of Jack Rose and of the rendezvous of the gunmen on the Lafayette Baths when the "croaking" of Rosenthal was discussed.

Bridgie told of the eye-witness, Mrs. Kidd coming to the West Side Prison on November 11, to identify him as one of those who shot at Rosenthal.

"She saw me, but she did not recognize me," said Bridgie Webber.
