Miss Mary E. Campbell and Mary Bearisto of Freetown, left Saturday morning for Watertown, Mass. On Tuesday evening last a number of friends and acquaintances assembled at the home of Miss Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. John Campbell, to bid them farewell, and spend a social evening. The program of entertainment consisted of solos and social conversation participated in by Miss Bearisto, Etta Jardine, Miss M. E. Campbell, Mr. Fred W. Reeves and others. Miss Campbell makes her third visit to the domain of Uncle Sam and will carry with her the well wishes of a host of friends. She will be much missed in the choir of the Presbyterian Church, Freetown, of which she was a prominent member. Miss Bearisto crosses the border for the first time. Her departure will be much regretted as she has for a long time been the popular organist in the choir of the Presbyterian Church, a position which she filled with becoming modesty and marked ability. While the choir and the church will miss her from her usual post she will carry with her the best wishes and regrets of a host of friends, as she has been untiring in her efforts to promote the musical part of divine worship. Those two young ladies have the well wishes of THE GUARDIAN during their sojourn in the Dominion of Uncle Sam.
