THE return of Messrs. C. M. Clarke and Pictou Brown from St. John, where they had taken part in the bicycle sports took a large number to the railway station on Saturday evening. Galbraith's band was in attendance and accompanied them to the Crescent C. C. rooms where they received hearty congratulations.

WEDDING BELLS.—A quiet wedding took place on Wednesday evening, the 24th inst., at Cross Roads, Lot 48, when Mr. Archibald Linkletter and Miss Clara Stewart, were united in matrimony. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Anna Stewart and the groom was supported by his cousin, Mr. Hooper Linkletter. The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. N. Simpson, at the home of the bride's brother, Mr. Alex. Stewart. Numerous and costly presents testified to the esteem and good will in which the happy couple were held. The bridal party left on the following morning for their home in Summerside with the best wishes of their many friends.

THE Plebeian Association for East Prince is now thoroughly organized and its members are busying themselves in effecting organization in the several polling divisions. The corresponding secretary, Mr. Mollison, has issued a number of circulars to each of the conveners asking that steps be at once taken for effective campaign work. It is encouraging to learn that a number have already undertaken the work. Mr. Mollison purposes visiting the different polling divisions during this week to see that the local organization is completed. It is also the intention to hold campaign meetings in all the communities in the riding and to this end a circular letter is being issued to laymen and others asking that they will place themselves at the disposal of a central committee for such platform work as may be deemed necessary.

THE Methodist congregations of this city had the pleasure of listening to two sermons of rare eloquence, one in the First Methodist church in the morning, the other in Grace church in the evening and both by Rev. J. W. Wadman. Large numbers of friends, old and new, were out to hear him on both occasions. His lecture to-night in Grace church affords such a privilege as seldom comes within the reach of the people of Charlottetown.
