

There is Nothing Just as Good as ENO'S "Fruit Salt"

For 60 years the world's millions have been proving ENO for you . . . proving that the ENO way is the safe way, the natural way to eliminate poisonous, trouble-making waste matter from the inner system . . . proving that sparkling eyes, clear complexion, abounding vigor of well-being, always follows the morning glass of ENO'S "Fruit Salt."

Remember, then, if you are offered a substitute, ENO cannot be bought under any other name. Accept only ENO'S "Fruit Salt," and you will be sure you have the safe, dependable, non-habit-forming health beverage.

For 60 years doctors have prescribed it and have taken it themselves.

The words "Fruit Salt" and ENO are the registered trade marks of J. C. ENO Ltd.

EASTER SERVICES.—Easter morning St. Stephen's Church Burlington, was presented by the family of the late William Profit with a beautiful memorial in the form of a "HOLY COMMUNION AND OTHER SERVICES" book. It is bound in solid sheepskin with red and gilt edges. Embossed in gold on the outside of the cover is the name of the Church, and inside the cover is a small tablet containing particulars of the presentation. The gift was accepted from the hands of the Church Warden by the Rector, Rev. G. T. Spriggs who offered the dedication prayer, and expressed appreciation on behalf of the congregation. This book will rest on the Holy Communion Table to the glory of God and in loving memory of the late church warden and superintendent of the Sunday School, William Profit.

ST. MARY'S EASTER TEA.—The annual High Tea and Bazaar, of St. Mary's Church, Summerside, was held in the Parish Hall on Easter Monday and was a huge success. The display of fancy work was up to its usual high standard and found a ready sale. There were a number of attractions of various kinds for the kiddies and a splendid variety of candy was daintily arrayed at the candy tables. Citizens of all denominations patronized the tea-tables, which were laden with dainties of every kind for the inner man. The proceeds amounted to the handsome sum of over $650, which was very gratifying to the ladies of the Parish who so capably carried out the enjoyable affair and to all who helped to make it such a success.—S

MONTHLY MEETING OF THE I. O. D. E.—There was a good attendance of members at the regular monthly meeting of the Abegweit Chapter of the I. O. D. E., held in the Public Library, Summerside, last week. After the reading and approval of the minutes of the last meeting, the treasurer's report was read and discussed. A letter from the Island Regent, Mrs. MacCreedy, congratulating the Chapter on their report of the year's work; also commending them for the enthusiasm they have shown in the various activities of the Order and in the interest taken for the betterment of the town was read with much interest and pleasure. A good deal of business was transacted and plans discussed for holding a bridge and curio exhibition in the near future. A select committee was appointed to arrange for holding a bridge and curio exhibition should prove to be very interesting and a great deal of interest is being taken in the matter. The meeting closed with The "King".—S

WEDDING BELLS.—A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the manse, Belfast at 6.30 p. m., on Wednesday, February 27th, when Miss Mamie Nicholson, Orwell Cove was united in marriage to Mr. Alexander Gillis, Newton. Rev. T. Rogers officiating. The youthful bride looked charming in a gown of queen blue flat crepe with sand trimmings and was attended by Miss Annie Nicholson, Orwell Cove, who wore a gown of cocoa brown crepe with sand trimmings. The groom was supported by Mr. D. J. McKenzie, Orwell Cove. After the ceremony, the wedding party returned to the home of the bride's cousin, Mr. D. J. McKenzie, where a sumptuous wedding supper was served to about seventy guests. The many gifts received testified to the popularity of the young couple and included besides, silver, linen and china, a large sum of money. Their many friends join in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Gillis many years of happy wedded life.

INSTITUTE MEETING. The March meeting of the Launching Women's Institute was held at the home of Miss Mamie Morrison on Friday, March 22nd, with fourteen members and one visitor present. Roll call was answered with tongue twisters followed by the reading of last meeting and signing of same. A general discussion then took place for work to be taken up this spring. A committee was appointed to look after same, and report at the April meeting. Plans were made for an entertainment at the home of Mrs. George McPherson on Easter Monday night. School and sick committees were appointed, also one to canvass the district in the interest of the sanatorium. A letter from Mr. Morrissey re teachers salaries was read by the President, a vote taken, resulted in the majority favoring the increase, and resolutions to that effect were drawn up. Miss Elizabeth McPherson favored the meeting with a recitation, "The Inventor's Wife" which was well rendered. The singing of the National Anthem brought the meeting to a close after which the hostess served a delicious supper. Next meeting to be held at the home of Mrs. Daniel G. McCormack, roll call to be answered with original verses.

Don't Fuss With Mustard Plasters
Don't mix a mess of mustard, pour water when you can relieve pain, soreness or stiffness with a little clean, white Musterole.
Musterole is made of oil of mustard and other helpful ingredients, and takes the place of mustard plasters. Musterole usually gives prompt relief from sore throat, bronchitis, tonsillitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, headache, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frosted feet, colds of the chest (it may prevent pneumonia).

Better than a mustard plaster.

Dunedin and New Haven Notes

The Smelt Kings invaded Victoria on Mar. 20, and after a hectic sixty minutes of hockey, played on soft ice, the Dunedin boys found that they were two goals behind their rival. The first period was fast with the Victoria boys showing their best. The second period, in which Victor had the advantage, play slowed somewhat. But in the last period the Smelt Kings staged a determined rally that looked dangerous at times. Both teams played clean hockey and referee Charlie Logan sentenced very few to the cooler. After the game the ladies served a hearty repast to both teams, whose appreciation was manifested by the rapidly with which the "eats" disappeared.

Mr. John Gass has returned home after spending last week in Webster's Corner.

Among the teachers from the locality who attended the meeting in Prince of Wales College on the 2nd were Messrs Theo. Ling, Leo Berrigan, Millar MacFadyen and Maurice Tierney. Also Miss Edna Frizzell and Miss Mary Murray.

Mr. Chas. Frizzell was in the city on Friday last.

Some pieces of squared timber have recently been hauled to West River Bridge. These will be used on the wharf to be built here next summer. The creosote piles are already on hand and the pile-driver is to be hauled shortly.

Messrs Elwyn Morrow and Alden MacPhail, Long Creek, attended Cornwall Rink on Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Temple have returned to Maine, U. S. A. after spending the winter with the latter's aunt Miss Mary A. Cameron, New Haven.

Mr. Jack Beaton was in Charlottetown on Tuesday last.

Mr. David Inman of St. Catherine who has been indisposed for some time, is reported as being much improved.

The Smelt Kings of Dunedin and the North River Flying Lindys clashed in Cornwall Rink on Mar. 15. Although the Smelt Kings had previously beaten the Lindys they failed to come through this time. Each team scored twice in the first session and the winners scored once in the second, while the third went scoreless. The final score was 3-2 in favor of the Lindys. J. Scott and J. Moreside were the referees.

Mr. Harry MacNevin, New Argyle was in New Haven recently.

Mrs. Fletcher MacEachern has returned to Rice Point after spending some time at her former home in New Haven.

Messrs Lloyd Frizzell and Albert MacDonald made a trip to Charlottetown by a car via the West River ice on last Tuesday evening.
