MCLEOD — PYE WEDDING— A quiet wedding was solemnized Wednesday morning, November 6, at 10.00 when Lillian Pye of Lot 15 (Belmont) became the bride of Norman McLeod. The bride looked charming in a Queen's blue going away costume with accessories to match. Mrs. E. J. Barrass was Matron of Honour and John McLeod best man. The ceremony was performed at the Summerside Baptist Parsonage, 219 Church Street by Rev. Ernest J. Barrass. Following the ceremony, the happy pair left for a brief honeymoon trip to New Brunswick. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and the late Mrs. George Pye, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John McLeod. Mr. and Mrs. Norman McLeod will take up residence at Lot 16 (Belmont) where the bridegroom is a popular farmer.

Bedeque

Mrs. Carrie Schurman had as her guest on Tuesday last, Mrs. Ellen Holland, Lower Bedeque.

Mrs. Frank Cutcliff, Fredericton, was a visitor to Bedeque on Sunday, the guest of Mrs. Carrie Trueman.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Callbeck Craipud, were visitors to Bedeque on Monday last, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Affleck.

Mrs. Eric Corbett and little son, Alberton, are visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. MacFarlane, Fernwood.

Rev. E. S. Weeks, Bedeque, conducted the service in the Pleasant Valley Church on Sunday evening, Nov. 2nd, the occasion being the fiftieth anniversary of the Women's Missionary Society.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Johnson, Central Bedeque, had as their guest over the weekend, Mr. Johnson's cousin, Mrs. Allen, Cape Tormentine.

Miss Ina Phillips, teacher at Borden, was a guest of Rev. E. S. and Mrs. Weeks on Sunday last. Miss Phillips is well and favorably known in Bedeque, as she was a member of the United Church choir for the past few years. Her many friends were pleased to meet her again.

Mr. and Mrs. Harrison MacFarlane, Fernwood, Bedeque, left by car on Wednesday morning for Hampton, Va., to visit Mrs. MacFarlane's aunt, Mrs. Ernest Gay, and other relatives. They expect to be absent for at least a month. Their many friends here wish them a very pleasant holiday. They were accompanied on the trip by Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Davison, Charlottetown.

The Women's Missionary Society of the Bedeque United Church met at the home of Mrs. James Henderson on Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 5. The worship service and the business part of the meeting were conducted by the president Mrs. E. S. Weeks. The program was presided over by Miss Louise Callbeck, assisted by the following members: Mrs. Katherine MacFarlane, Mrs. Orville Johnson, Mrs. James Henderson, Mrs. Albert Weeks, and Miss Mildred Callbeck. The topic for the meeting was "The Bible for the Pacific Islands", taken from the fifth chapter of the study book, "Great is the Company". A very interesting and informative meeting was brought to a close with prayer by Miss Louise Callbeck.
