Had Nervous Dyspepsia

With Frequent Sick Headaches and Much Pain After Eating — Dr. Chase's Nerve Food Cured.

This letter is from a lady who gained 14 pounds by using the great food cure. It did wonders for her in improving her general health. She is enthusiastic in its praise, and re- fers to her neighbors as witnesses of the splendid results obtained.

Mrs. Susan Dobson, Spring Hill Mines, N. S., writes:—"It is with pleasure that I write to you in praise of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. I was troubled with Dyspepsia, and could not eat without suffering much pain; also had sick headaches fre- quently and my nerves were in bad condition. About ten years ago I took a thorough treatment of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, using altogether 21 boxes, and since then can eat anything I have been freed from head- aches, and my health has been great- ly improved in every way. I gained 14 pounds in weight, and feel sure I owe everything to Dr. Chase's Ner- ve Food. You may use this letter, and my neighbors can tell you of my condition before using this treat- ment."

DOG RESCUES A SOLDIER.

PARIS, October 3.—The Petit Jour- nal publishes a story from a Le Mans correspondent telling how an infantry soldier from that town was saved by a regimental dog.

The animal had been trained to carry caps, and the soldier, having lost his cap, tried to persuade the dog to take his knapsack to the en- campment.

After a while Tom seemed to real- ize what was wanted. He ran to the camp, seized the coat of the near- est man, and tried to drag him to the battlefield. When a party finally followed the dog they found their wounded comrade and rescued him.
