CUTICURA

Soap, Ointment and Pills the World's Greatest Skin Cures.

COMPLETE TREATMENT

For Every Humour, from Pimples to Scrofula, from Infancy to Age.

The agonizing itching and burning of the skin, as in eczema; the frightful scaling, as in psoriasis; the loss of hair and crusting of the scalp, as in scalled head; the facial disfigurement, as in pimples and ringworm; the awful suffering of infants and the anxiety of worn-out parents, as in milk crust, tetter, and salt rheum, all demand a remedy of almost superhuman virtues to successfully cope with them. That Cuticura Soap, Ointment, and Pills are such stands proven beyond all doubt. No statement is made regarding them that is not justified by the strongest evidence. The purity and sweetness, the power to afford immediate relief, the certainty of speedy and permanent cure, the absolute safety and great economy, have made them the standard skin cures and humor remedies of the civilized world.

YEARS OF TORTURE

Itching and Painful Sores Covering Head and Body Cured By Cuticura.

"For fifteen years my scalp and forehead was one mass of scabs, and my body was covered with sores. Words cannot express how I suffered from the itching and pain. I had given up hope when a friend told me to get Cuticura. After bathing with Cuticura Soap and applying Cuticura Ointment for three days, my head was as clear as ever, and to my surprise and joy, one cake of soap and one box of ointment made a complete cure in one week. (signed) H. B. Franklin, 717 Washington St., Allegheny, Pa."

Cuticura Soap, Ointment, and Pills are sold throughout the world. Depots: London, 27 Charterhouse Sq.; Paris, 5 Rue de la Paix; Australia, R. Towns & Co., Sydney. Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., Boston, sole Props.

THE CHARLOTTETOWN GUARDIAN

FRIDAY MORNING, MARCH 31, 1905

A FAIRY TALE.

A correspondent of the New York 'Tribune' says that oil of good quality is now gushing from the earth in the Canadian North-West. In the extreme south-western section of Alberta, five miles from the United States frontier, he declares that a thriving town has sprung up within the past few weeks, populated almost entirely by oil prospectors and those interested in the development of the recent discoveries. It is strange to read, at this time of dispute over the school clauses of the Autonomy Bills, and the excitement concerning them that is supposed to prevail in the North-West Territories, that Athabaska and Alberta are "oil crazy". It is said that one company has two wells where the town has sprung up, each of which will produce three hundred barrels of illuminating oil a day; that the region is one of the richest in oil in the world: and that northward for fully a thousand miles oil exists in unknown quantities. It is asserted also that for the last year or so prospectors have covered the country, boring and striking oil, and then plugging the 'bore holes' to keep the matter as quiet as possible. The stories go that one of the best known experts has located for a syndicate the richest subterranean lake of fuel oil he has ever known; that many companies are being formed, and that land is commanding the highest prices all through the oil belt. The 'Tribune' is a very respectable channel of information, but we should think, if Alberta and Athabaska were oil crazy, that we would have heard of it by some more direct route. The gushers, if there are such, would seem to have been very securely plugged indeed, as well as all information with regard to them. But a country surely cannot well go oil crazy without knowing it. Even if all this was true, it might not be an unmixed blessing. It would mean booms, panics, speculations, an invasion of adventurers, money combines, deception on the part of some, and ruin as well as success as the lot of many. Agriculture is so much more ancient an occupation, so much more steady; on the whole, more extendedly profitable; and, we had almost said, so much more respectable, than the oil business; we hear the news of the 'oil craze' with mixed satisfaction.—Montreal Witness.

A great many people along the eastern railway line are asking that a daily morning eastern train be put on, at least while the impassable roads continue in the country, as they are at present. The Guardian is assured that the passenger and freight traffic is now very large on this section of the line and that a daily train would both from a passenger and a freight standpoint be, at present, if not throughout the entire winter a paying investment for the railway.

The Russians and Russophiles are still obtusely blind to the very patent fact that China is rapidly passing under the influence of Japan politically, educationally, socially, and religiously—and that when the Russian forces are driven out of Chinese territory and it becomes a question of re-entering it China will have a perfectly legitimate casus belli. Neutrality will then disappear and Russia will have two nations to subdue—a task so utterly beyond her power that she dare not face it.

The Montreal Herald of March 25th contains a most misleading special despatch from Charlottetown and one that is highly detrimental to the interests of the Province in its agitation for the fulfillment by the Dominion of the terms of Confederation. It says among other incorrect statements that "the construction of a tunnel, while regarded as very desirable, is not enthusiastically endorsed by many Islanders who regard the project as too much to expect." It is not too much to say that the Province from one end to the other is enthusiastically in favor of a tunnel. The people do not consider the cost too great and at any rate the cost is not a matter for Prince Edward Island but for the Federal Government. The Island unitedly demands that the terms of the union be adhered to and it is not for its people to place obstructions in the way. The Herald, usually careful in its consideration of the rights of the Provinces, has in this instance been imposed on by a correspondent who seriously misrepresents Prince Edward Island before its readers.

The hint from Paris that, in the event of Vladivostok being captured by the Japanese, European nations would intervene in the settlement of peace terms, recalls the difference between Japan's position now and her position ten years ago. She can afford now to assert herself, for Great Britain is her ally and the United States her friend. In 1895 she stood alone against Russia, France, and Germany.

A reader of The Guardian, who, by the way, is a leading Presbyterian minister of the Province, writes the following which is in line with many letters of a similar kind: "Allow me to express my sincere admiration of your stand on almost all questions, especially such as concern temperance and good citizenship. Your course regarding this winter's terrible and long continued isolation also meets my hearty approval. The Province could surely do better than the present increasingly bad bungling year after year if we had control of all our own revenues. I am British through and through, but that does not imply that I want much more of Ottawa's red-tape and BIG littleness. Fielding swept Nova Scotia some years ago on the "Repeal" cry. The effect was good. We badly need a strong leader who will emphatically express the people's mind, and not be gagged by any corporation which loves to live and grow fat at the people's expense. I am a Protestant and a Presbyterian, but would now vote that Father Burke be the leader of both sides of Politics to express a united mind on these questions that are of more vital moment than our paltry partyism. He has "FORCE."

A senseless scare, much discussed just now by the press of the United States, has been started, says The Montreal Witness, by the story that Japan has designs on the Philippines, and that when she gets through with the job of thrashing the Russians, she will turn her attention to expelling the Americans from Islands geographically and enthnically allied to her empire. Interviewed on the subject, the Japanese minister at Washington pointed out the absurdity of the story, and showed by common sense reasoning that the United States was the natural ally of Japan in the Far East. He said his country had not set out on a career of conquest; the war with Russia was a struggle for existence, and the natural direction of Japanese expansion was westward into the temperate zone, not southward into the tropics. It will furthermore appear to anyone who studies the position of Japan towards the powers which have been helping themselves to Chinese territory that the keynote of her policy must be to cultivate the most cordial relations with the United States, as she has done with Great Britain, for these are the two great naval powers on whose friendship she must rely in case of a not unlikely combination to deprive her of the fruits of her victories over Russia, such as was formed after her war with China.
