BOOST VICTORY LOAN

MONTREAL, Que., Oct. 17 - "Canada depends upon you" said H. J. Symington, C.M.G. K.C. president of Trans Canada Airlines in a victory loan message today to all officers and employees of the Company.

"The war is over, but the need for money is still great," he said. "Settlements must be made for war expenditures incurred. Our men are coming home from overseas and they must be restored to a worthy place in civilian life. The care of the sick and disabled must be paid for. Bridging the gap from war to peace is a task that is worthy of the best that is in us. Starving millions in the devastated countries must be cared for. Money must be advanced to permit them to recover and allow normal world trade to be resumed. Canada needs money and we are given the privileges of supplying it by subscribing to the ninth victory loan. No one can afford to be indifferent to the call. There will be only one victory loan a year instead of two I urge you to contribute as generously to the ninth loan as you have to these preceding it. Canada depends upon you.

mouth "I asked Amy that. Poor soul, all she said was that Ed considered a wife's place was at her husband's side, no matter what." "My goodness."

"Yes I saw Ed out in the yard afterwards and I said to him - 'Caroline's voice was muffled by a clatter of pans. "Phoebe, where's that gray pan I put parings in? Have you seen it?"

"Why, no, I - Oh, I guess I left it over at Prentice's last night when I went to feed the kittens."

"Well, run over and get it, dear." (To Be Continued) and as is usual with Pat and myself we discussed our shortcomings, in many directions. "Ah, what" he asked me "would it be mainly if ye dreamt of a funeral?" "I'm not at all well read, Pat," I said "especially on dreams. I have heard it said: 'dream of a funeral and you'll hear of a wedding.' Pat smiled to himself at my reply and then changed the subject. "Ah, now, don't I be lookin' better?" he inquired as Jock removed the encircling towel from his neck and supplied him with a needed match.

Pat is some now like the new moon that was earlier above the tree tops. James is stealing forty winks on the kitchen couch while he awaits my day's end. Very quiet we are. A door closes in the house across the lane. The softwood stick in the new stove sputters and crackles. The old clock on the shelf continues its tick-tock, tick-tock in the peace of the room. What important message is it trying to convey to me? Not in poetry, and over so insistently that I must heed it at once. The wise old clock says: "Dane, get up and set your bread."

Until tomorrow - Diary - Good-night.

RESOURCEFUL

A Scotman was strolling along the quay one day when his dog stopped beside a basketful of live lobsters. Instantly, one of the lobsters snapped its claws on the dog's tail, and the surprised collier dashed off down the street, yelping with pain.

The fishmonger for a moment was speechless, then, turning to the prospective customer, he bawled: "Mon, mon, whittie's to yer dog, whistle to yer dog!"

Meet the Meat Shortage HEINZ Condensed Vegetable Soup

gives extra nourishment and flavour to left-overs

BEEF STEW Sauté a small onion, diced, and 2 lbs. chopped green pepper in 2 tbs. fat. Add 1 cup diced left-over meat. Brown. Add a 10-oz. tin Heinz Condensed Vegetable Soup, 1 cup water, 1/2 tsp. salt, dash of cayenne pepper. Simmer until heated thoroughly. Serves 3.

"Honest, folks - nothin' annoys me so much as to have her take some mally-rich, sweet-as-a-nut Grape-Nuts Flakes out of the package so she can slip in a file.

"Why, I won't need no file to bust out of here after eatin' plenty of that wheat and malted barley nourishment in Grape-Nuts Flakes. I'll get energy from the carbohydrates; bulgin' muscles from the proteins; husky bones and teeth from the phosphorus; and good rich blood from the iron; as well as other food essentials.

"I hear them Grape-Nuts Flakes are blended, baked and toasted all a special secret way to make 'em extra good and easy to digest.

"Yep - forget the file, Mae. But don't stop sendin' them giant economy packages of oh-so-good Grape-Nuts Flakes!"
