RIDER EXTRAORDINARY

(By The Canadian Press) KENILWORTH, England—Enthusiastic horsewoman is Miss Freda Newcombe, who will ride from Land's End to John O'Groats, 885 miles, this summer. Last year she rode from Kenilworth to York, 140 miles.

The average skirt length accepted in tailored clothes is 16 inches off the ground for slim types and slightly shorter for full ones.

To such a pass have human affairs come that man's "best friend" must be protected from man's inhumanity. Here a Parisian, wearing his own gas mask, is shown sitting his St. Bernard dog with a mask, against the dangers of poison gas. In the French capital specially-designed masks are available in different sizes for canines of different breeds and sizes. The dog is a bit puzzled but submits patiently enough to his master's strange new whim.
