"WHERE OLD FRIENDS MEET AND SAVE"

Pretty Wedding At Tyn Valley

A pretty summer wedding was solemnized in the Presbyterian Church, Tyn Valley, on Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock when Gladys Audrey, daughter of M. and Mrs. Wilfred MacDougall, Tyn Valley, was united in marriage to Kenneth MacKay, son of Mr. and Mrs. John MacKay, Stanley Bridge. The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. W. A. Young, assisted by Rev. Lorne MacKay, brother of the groom.

To the strains of the wedding march played by Mrs. Eddon Miller the bride entered the church on the arm of her father, by whom she was given in marriage. She was charming in a floor length gown of white nylon skirt over satin, fashioned in princess style with long sleeves and round neckline. Her full length veil fell from a coronet of seed pearls and she carried a bouquet of Pearl-less roses. Her only ornament was a triple strand of pearls, a gift of the groom.

Attending the bride was her sister, Miss Blanche, who wore a floor length gown of sky blue nylon with matching shoulder length veil and carried a bouquet of Better Time roses. The groom was supported by Mr. Donald MacEwen and the ushers were Messrs. Roland MacDougall and Don MacKay.

During the singing of the register Miss Glenn Stewart sang "Because".

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents for approximately one hundred guests. The rooms were artistically decorated with summer flowers.

The bride's mother wore a street length two piece dress of lilac with black accessories and a corsage of yellow roses. The groom's mother was attired in a dress of beauty rose with black accessories and a corsage of Tallman roses.

The bride's table was centered with a two-tier wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom. Rev. Lorne MacKay proposed the toast to the bride, to which the groom responded.

Mr. and Mrs. MacKay left on a honeymoon trip to points of interest in Nova Scotia, the bride travelling in a suit of beige with brown accessories. On return they will reside in Stanley Bridge where the groom is the owner and proprietor of a general store. Previous to her marriage the bride was on the staff of the Tyn Valley branch of the Royal Bank of Canada.—S.

Wedding Bells At Cherry Valley

In the Cherry Valley United Church, very attractively decorated for the occasion, on the evening of August 29th, Rev. A. S. Weir united in holy wedlock Rena Vernetta, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Mutch, Earncliffe, and Ivan Hilson, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Hughes of Harrington.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, and wore a floor length gown of azure blue tulle with finger-tip veil falling from a halo, and flower haddress of similar color. She carried an arm bouquet of American Beauty roses. Her only jewelry was a single strand of pearls, with matching earrings, gift of the groom.

She was attended by Miss Isabel Matheson acting as bridesmaid. She wore a dusky pink silk crepe, floor length dress and carried an arm bouquet of sorted seasonal flowers.

The groom was attended by Mr. Archibald MacKinnon. Nuptial music was played by Mrs. W. J. Mutch, and while the register was being signed, "I Walk Beside You" was beautifully rendered by Mrs. Jack MacRae.

The bridesmaid was the recipient of jewelry as a gift from the bride, who also remembered the organist and soloist with pieces of tableware in crystal.

The bride's mother was gowned in black lace sheer over pink tulle, with pink accessories, while the groom's mother wore a beige suit with brown hat and accessories.

Immediately following the ceremony the wedding party with their guests proceeded to Sandy's Restaurant where in the private banquet room they sat down to a wedding supper which was more than worthy of the name.

Mr. and Mrs. Hughes are now on a motor trip in the Maritimes where they will visit various points of interest. The bride wore a brown suit with matching hat for travelling.

Previous to her marriage Mrs. Hughes was tendered a shower at which she received a large number of valuable and useful gifts, proving her popularity with her friends.

Best wishes go with this young couple. They will reside at Harrington, P. E. I.

BOGUS $10 BILLS

TORONTO, Aug. 29 — (CP) — A handsome green-shirted swindler Saturday passed bogus $10 bills on about 20 cashiers at the Canadian National Exhibition. The fake bills, resembling United States money, bear a picture of Alexander Hamilton. Police described them as similar to a United States $10 bill.
