Increased Activity In Production Service Of Dominion Department

Increasing activity in the livestock production and all its phases during 1942 is reported by Dr. E. S. Notting, Supervisor of the Production Service of the Dominion Department of Agriculture.

The staff of the production service, besides Dr. Notting, consists of the following: Dr. S. A. Hill, Senior Veterinary Inspector, Dr. R. J. McClellan, Veterinary Inspector, Dr. Frank Ruston, Veterinary Inspector, Supervisor of the Production Service, Mr. S. D. Irvine, Senior Live Stock Fieldman, Mr. L. W. Reper, Fieldman, Mr. H. W. Clay, Live Stock and Live Stock Production, Mr. J. W. Notting, Live Stock Division, and Dr. Notting's review is as follows:-

Maintenance of an adequate food supply is one of the first essentials of a nation's war effort. Live stock and live stock products forming as they do a large part of the human diet, are of the utmost importance in the production of national emergency.

Live stock production and all phases of activity in connection with live stock production, marketing, processing and manufacture have been increasingly active during the past year in Prince Edward Island. This has had a beneficial influence upon business generally. Our province is essentially dependent upon agriculture, therefore, anything which has a tendency to favourably influence the monetary advantage of every individual in the province.

During the past year there has been an increase in the production of these classes of live stock for which there is the most essential demand at the present time. Both export and domestic movements of live stock have been very satisfactory and very active.

Review of Cattle Industry During the past year fieldmen of the Federal Department have continued their efforts in connection with policies and projects which have as their objective the improvement of type and quality of dairy and beef cattle.

The Federal policy embracing the loan of cubs and wise used and between fifty and sixty bulls were made use of under this policy in various districts throughout the province.

Junior Calf Clubs were active in all three counties. Improvement in quality, type and methods of breeding were apparent in the majority of the clubs, to the fieldmen having supervision of this work, especially where the work was carried on in conjunction with other community projects.

Selection of cattle were made from time to time throughout the province.

Control of parasites and farm sanitation as methods of disease prevention have been stressed as an excellent type of insurance for the live stock producer. We are

"My Gal Sal" Season's Best Musical Hit

Hold on to your hearts boys, Rita's back in town! Yes, it's Rita Hayworth, America's Inspiration, in this picture starring a two-day run engagement yesterday at the Capitol Theatre in 20th Century-Fox's Technicolor musical "My Gal Sal" and an inspiration she certainly is!

Rita's starred with Victor Mature, John Sutton and Carole Landis in this gay and up-to-date musical story of the life of Paul Dresser, famous composer of "My Gal Sal" and "Swanee Song". On the Banks of the Wabash and a hundred and one other hit tunes. The picture has been mounted lavishly with nothing but the best in Technicolor film musical, and Irving Cummings has seen to it that everything fits neatly into place so the film is geared to delight all moviegoers.

The story deals with the trials of Mature as Dresser, during his struggle to get his songs published and played. His inspiration is Rita, and what better inspiration does any man need?

Live stock men are well advised to see that all animals purchased outside the province for breeding purposes receive the protective treatment for Hemorrhagic Septicemia before shipping. The inoculation can be made after the blood specimens are collected for the Bang's Test or following the tuberculin test.

Annual inoculations as a protective measure of all live stock on farms where Hemorrhagic Septicemia has previously occurred is inexpensive protection and wise procedure. The same may be said with regard to vaccination for Symptomatic Anthrax (Black Leg). Disease prevention and control are vital factors in increasing live stock production.

Once again at this time we advocate the advisability and necessity of more home grown feeds and more generous feeding methods. Too much of our live stock is marketed in an unfinished condition.

The market for beef cattle has been more active during the past year and a growing interest has been noticeable by breeders in this class of stock.

A number of pure bred beef bulls have been selected from outside the province to head the herds of various individual breeders and breeder groups.

These will no doubt prove to be of material assistance in the improvement of our beef cattle for future production.

Project Extended Under the plan sponsored by the Maritime Beef Breeders' Improvement Committee, a group of five carefully selected beef bulls was previously placed in one of the chief breeding districts in the province. This project was extended this year. Should the Committee decide that this form of live stock improvement continues to produce the desired results, the plan may be further extended.

Due to wartime conditions with its consequent shortage of farm labour, it is considered advisable at this time to point out to cattle breeders that if forced to reduce their herds it would be to their distinct advantage to select their better type of breeding females for future herd development.

The feed situation at present is much more favourable than it was a year ago. This is due principally to an abundant hay crop and a

In Memoriam

MR. G. W. RAMSAY Malpeque was greatly saddened by the passing of G. William Ramsay whose death took place at his home Saturday morning, Dec. 19. Although not in good health during the last few months he was determined to follow with interest the affairs of his home and business and to extend his usual warm greetings to his friends and neighbors until a few days previous to his passing.

The late Mr. Ramsay was one of Malpeque's most successful farmers, a very public spirited citizen, who took an unusual interest in anything pertaining to the welfare of his community, cheerfully giving much of his time and counsel.

In politics, a staunch Liberal, he continued to be a member of the District of Prince for a seat in the Provincial Legislature. While unsuccessful he retained his interest in the affairs of the district and was always ready to lend his aid and these needs properly presented to government both provincial and federal.

His passing leaves a vacancy in the community which will be difficult to fill.

In the family circle there are left to mourn his widow formerly Miss Mae Wilson of England, two sons Wilton at home, District of the R.O.A.F., one daughter Eleanor nurse-in-training at Quebec, one daughter, Margaret, predeceased her father, also two sisters, Mrs. Emma Barstow and Mrs. Mrs. John MacMillan, Brackley.

The funeral was held Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the house the remains were taken to the United Church where a large congregation had gathered to honor the late Mr. Ramsay. The services were conducted by his pastor Rev. J. C. Crowds.

Burial was in the family plot, Mt. Pleasant. The pallbearers were: Archibald Woodside, Elmer Taylor, L. D. MacNutt, Stanley Ramsay, Keir Crafer and George MacKay.

Good average increase in the root crop. The reduced freight rates on root feeds to the Maritimes will assist materially in helping cattle feeders to make use of well balanced rations.

The root crop in many sections was above the average this season which will be of material advantage to the live stock feeder.

Every breeder and feeder should start now to lay out a programme for the coming year, and to use the most economical ways means possible to produce all he can at the lowest possible cost, bearing in mind to select carefully, breed for type and the best home grown ration obtainable to arrange his itinerary in every way towards a greater quantity and quality of production. Never in the history of the world has there been such a wide variety of food products available as at this time. It is necessary and as time goes on the question of food supply will intensify. It is imperative that we make the most of what we have when it comes, will come the call for food and more food. Since meat and other animal food products are scarce, it is imperative that we make the most of what we have when it comes, will come the call for food and more food. Since meat and other animal food products are scarce, it is imperative that we make the most of what we have when it comes, will come the call for food and more food.

Mr. and Mrs. John MacKay, Stanley Bridge, have received a cablegram from their son, Cnr. Leigh MacKay, announcing his safe arrival overseas, this making the fourth son to serve overseas.

Pte. Lorne Walle, R.C.A.C. and Aircraftman Keith McKinnon, George Chappell and Errol Laughlin, C. No. 1, are expected to arrive at their respective homes in Sherbrooke.

Mr. William Reddin is spending his holidays at his home in Southport. He is attending law school at Dalhousie University. Mr. Reddin was formerly on the teaching staff at Prince of Wales College.

Friends will regret to learn of the continued illness of Sgt. K.W. Engel, Royal Canadian Mounted Police.

S.A. WATCH NIGHT SERVICE - The advent of the New Year was ushered in at the St. Dunstan's Army Chapel Thursday night with prayer and praise. Brief addresses were given by Robert Chandler and Chief Petty Officer. Songs, hymns and a service were presented by an officer of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police. The service was very well attended.

MANY AT LEGION - A very large crowd of servicemen attended the Canadian Legion at home yesterday afternoon and evening. Dancing and sing songs were served. All three services were represented. In addition there were a number of women present. In the afternoon music was furnished by an orchestra directed by Ding Connolly while at night the orchestra was under Albert Blanchard's direction.

MANY DUCKS SHOT - A checkup has revealed that probably as many black ducks were shot in the 10-day extension of the season this year as in the whole of the regular season. It was learned from game officials, cold weather being the cause, that the usual closing date, froze up all the usual feeding places. Only spring holes remained open and the ducks gathered there. Cold with occasional snow squalls continued for several days and gunners were able to walk up to within easy range of the ducks. Some reported they killed 30 to 55 ducks in the last few days of the season. Several considerable Spurgeon Jenkins of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police said a check-up was being made of several reports reaching him from gunners crediting the bag limit. Both the ducks and geese got away before sub-zero weather struck December 17, it was learned. Not many Charlottetown gunners were able to participate in the kill at the end of the season. Several shooting parties tried to reach their favorite spots only to be turned back by bad roads.

QUINN-BRITT - The marriage took place Wednesday morning at 9:30 in St. Dunstan's Basilica of Miss Elizabeth Quinn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Quinn to Mr. Ray Britt, son of Mrs. George Britt and the late Mr. Britt, Saint John, N.B. The ceremony being performed by Rev. John A. Sullivan, cousin of the bride. Duffing was Mass appropriate solos were rendered by Sgt. Frank McIntyre with Sullivan, was the president of the Sunday School presided and a programme of singing and games was carried out with Mrs. Ralph Toombs as games director. Those present were then treated with apples and chocolate bars and prizes were given the different classes. The evening closed by singing God Save the King.-A.

"BONNE ET HEUREUSE ANNEE"

Our heartiest Greetings are hereby extended to every farmer in the Province, as we enter upon the threshold of a New Year.

To the Old Year we have bid 'Farewell' yet many pleasant memories will remain with us for some time, in connection with the 'Livestock Marketing' experience we've enjoyed, with that vast throng of over six thousand producers, who have been our Patrons. We consider their patronage a distinct compliment to the services we endeavored to render, as well as an indication of developed business acumen on their part. Let's clasp hands this first week of the New Year in a pledge to continue this happy relationship during the twelve months that lie ahead.
