BILGIUM'S POSITION TOWARD GERMANY

not by Germany, but by those whom she is pleased to call the instigators of he war. tIn other words, for decades to come Germany claims that all the nations who resisted her should labor to pay her tribute in the form of war indemnity.

"Not on such terms can peace be concluded, or the life of other nations than Germany be free or even tolerable. The speeches of the German Chancellor and the Finance Minister make it appear that Germany is fighting for supremacy and tribute. If that is so, and as long as it is so, our allies and we are fighting and must fight for the right to live, not under German supremacy, but in real freedom and safety."

PRINCE EDWARD THEATRE

Picture Theatre patrons have been accustomed to seeing G. M. Anderson in single reel Western plays so that they have had no chance to judge as to his ability in a real feature.

It was a pleasant surprise to see him star in the three-part feature presented last night, "When Love and Honor Calls." This story, written by Frank Blighton, the author of the popular "What Happen to Mary" series, is one of the complete prize stories produced by the Essanay Company in conjunction with The Ladies' World. It is a thrilling drama of Western frontier life with a beautiful love plot. As a Western story it stands in a class by itself, and with G. M. Anderson as "Broncho Billy" and Marguerite Clayton and an all-star cast supporting him, the acting end is well looked after.

Francis Ford, the ever popular favorite, plays the lead in "And They Called Him Hero," a two-part war drama. The things that this picture describes have happened. False heroes have received the credit and the fame that belonged to others. They have been honored and the men who have achieved them have died unsung. Francis Ford plays such a one. He carries a message through the enemy's lines and a supposed friend steals the credit. Wonderful and vivid war scenes are a part of this picture, an a thrilling escape from a military prison.

"Billy's Baby," an appealing drama, anl "Ham in the Nut Factory," a riot of fun—judging from the laughter the audience thought the same—closed a splendid picture programme.

The "Harmony Duo" still continue to please with their popular and catchy songs. Same programme today, afternoon and evening.

Now Is The Ideal Painting Time

Keeping everything painted is an economy. Paint keeps everything looking spick and span—it protects your buildings from the ravages of the weather, and also increases the value of your proprty.

The fall is the proper time for painting—paint put on now lasts longer because the surface on which it is applied is thoroughly seasoned and dried by the summer's hot sun. Sherwin-Williams Paint is the best paint for you to use—because it is made of pure materials—pure lead pure zinc—pure linseed oil and pure coloring pigments which are thoroughly mixed and ground in scientific proportions by powerful machinery.

S. W. P. is an economical paint because it will cover the greatest amount of surface wear longest, and look best. Ask us for color cards. We have everything in painting supplies at lowest prices. Give us a call.

ENJOYABLE PICNIC AT EXPERIMENTAL STATION

A highly enjoyable and very interesting picnic, combining pleasure and business, was held on the Experimental Farm yesterday, when between 130 and 150 persons, farmers and their wives, from Red Point and Lot 40 were pleasantly entertained, Professor J. A. Clarke, the Superintendent, having prepared an excellent programme for the day.

The train arrived at 11 o'clock and the visitors spent the forenoon in inspecting the farm, accompanied by Mr. Clarke. In the afternoon, assembled in the ample shade of a cluster of trees in the rear of the Superintendent's house, the party was addressed by several prominent speakers. His Honour Mr. Justice Haszard, who gave a splendid address in which he offered very valuable advice, was welcomed with enthusiasm. Mr. C. C. Gardiner, a former resident of Charlottetown and at present on a visit from his home in Los Angeles, also gave a good address. The other speakers were Messrs. Lesley Tennant, District Representative for King's County, L. H. Newman, Secretary of the Canadian Seed Growers' Association, W. R. Reek, Director of Agricultural Instruction for Prince Edward Island, W. J. Reid, District Representative for Prince County, and M. Coughlin, Assistant District Representative for East King's.

Mr. Tennant dealt principally with the value of sheep dipping, producing better and more wool. He also spoke of the co-operative sale of wool.

Mr. Justice Haszard said that driving through the country he had been struck with the splendid crops which the farmers had. He advocated the establishment of small kitchen gardens, and said that a plot 50 feet square could be made to be very profitable if properly cultivated. One day's work with a horse would be sufficient for an ordinary garden. He advised the farmers not to attempt to grow vegetables which entailed a great amount of difficulty; they could plant things easily grown and make a profit from them.

Mr. Newman also spoke of the advantages of the kitchen garden, in which he said the women and girls could take an instructive interest.

Professor Reek said that Prince Edward Island offered one of the best fields in the Dominoin for the growing of pure seed oats. He advised them to grow pure seed.

Professor Reid spoke of the importance of keeping feed on the farms as much as possible. They should not overlook the live stock branch of agriculture but should devote their attention to the production of good cattle.

Mr. Coughlin drew the attention of the farmers to the great work the Government had done in the interests of agriculture. He also spoke of the profits that can be made out of a properly conducted garden.

Mr. Gardiner said that some sixty years ago he paid a visit to the grounds now occupied by the Experimental Farm, and he contrasted the great difference. There was no place on the Continent where the people were so comfortable or could make a living so easily as on the Island. He compared the prices of land in California, where $750 to $1,000 had to be paid for an acre of land for fruit purposes, whereas in this province an acre could be bought for as low as $50.

The picnic came to a close at 5 o'clock, the visitors having spent a very pleasant and instructive day.

NOTES BY THE WAY

Boards of Trade everywhere are called upon to do some funny stunts, and the secretary's correspondence from time to time contains some odd requests. The secretary of the Summerside Board of Trade not long ago received a letter from the Canadian West asking him to see about a tombstone for some relative of the writer whose mortal part was reposing in one of the cemeteries in the County of Prince. Now I see by the papers that some one in Elgin, Ill., has written the secretary of the Montreal Board of Trade asking his assistance in procuring a wife. The would be groom stimulates that the bride must be worth $10,000 and have other attractions as well. Incidentally he mentions that religion need not be an objection as if other conditions are all right he will change his church to conform with that of the bride. Moreover, he is willing to live wherever the owner of the $10,000 decides, after marriage. Further than that he describes himself as of middle age and admits that he is peculiarly well qualified to solve the complex problem of life— with a bride and $10,000. He promises that when he gets the lady and the money, he will, by his own ingenuity and industry, double or even treble this modest competence, so that he would prove a good investment to any lonely maiden with a small fortune and unattached affection.

Word comes from London that the appeal of the Bishop of Limerck to John Redmond to take the first step towards the support of the Pope's appeal for peace has not only been refused by the Irish Leader but is discouraged by the Catholic organ. The Tablet, which, while admitting that the appeal of the Bishop of Limerick will everywhere receive the attention it deserves recalls Premier Asquith's words at Guildhall with regard to the vindication and restoration of Belgium's independence. "That object has not yet been attained," says The Tablet, "and we owe it to our dead to say that they have not died in vain."

It has already been pointed out that countries outside the zone of war must produce for the countries that are in possession of the contending armies. n Canada we have enlarged the area of agricultural production. Many Canadian factories are engaged upon war contracts. In the course of twelve months these contracts will aggregate probably $200,000,000. Better prices and the larger area may raise the value of field products by $100,000,000. When the crop begins to move railway earnings will increase. By placing a loan in the United States Finance Minister White has enabled the banks to handle the crop without embarrassing domestic enterprises. Recruiting and the harvest have lessened unemployment. The returns from the harvest, which may come more slowly than in other years, will stimulate general business and enable debtors to meet their obligations. Mercantile stocks are low and must be replenished. There are signs of a business revival in the United States, which must affect Canada favorably. Altogether the outlook is most encouraging for Canada. So far as Prince Edward Island is concerned the war has been felt only slightly as compared with other places, and the outlook is bright.

LONDON, Aug. 25.—In sentencing a soldier for fraud in connection with seperation allowances, Magistrate Sir William Treloar today remarked that he understood the nation was now paying something like $200,000,000 a year in these allowances to families of soldiers, absent at the front.

ROAD DISTRICTS GUN EXCELLENT START

The Fund suggested by Mr. A. W. Bruce, Roadmaster, Red Point, has been enthusiastically received by the various Roadmasters who have written Mr. Bruce on the subject. The subscriptions by the Roadmasters should be sent to the Guardian when acknowledgement will be made and the money deposited with the Canadian Bank of Commerce, the manager of which, Mr. Harrison, has kindly consented to act as treasurer, while Mr. A. W. Bruce of Red Point will discharge the duties of secretary. Red Point Road District has set the ball a-rolling by contributing already $27.25. If every district does as well there is no reason why the Fund should not be sufficient to provide ten guns at $1,000 each.

IN MEMORIAM

MR. HECTOR McNEILL.

The death occurred at Clyde River yesterday morning of Hector McNeill, aged eighteen, the eldest son of Mr. Alexander McNeill. The deceased took ill about a year ago, with rheumatic fever and never fully recovered from the attack. About six weeks ago, a stroke of paralysis tended further to weaken him, and despite the most devoted care and attention, he gradually sank until his spirit passed away. He leaves to mourn a father and two brothers, Daniel and Kenneth. Hector was a bright, intelligent boy of many excellent qualities and the bereaved relatives will have the sympathy of a wide circle of friends. The funeral will take place to Clyde River Baptist Cemetery at two p.m. on Sunday.

HON. STANISLAUS BLANCHARD, K. C. JUDGE.

In the death of Judge Blanchard, which occurred yesterday afternoon, Charlottetown has lost a good citizen and a man of sterling character. As previously stated he had been stricken with a cerebral hemorrhage some days ago and since that time no hope had been held out of his recovery.

The Hon. Stanislaus Blanchard was born in Rustico on March 25th, 1854, and was a son of Mr. and Mrs. Martin J. Blanchard. He was educated in the school of his native district which was for several years conducted by his father, afterwards at St. Dunstan's College. In 1876 he entered the law office of the present Chief Justice, Sir Wilfred W. Sullivan, and in November 1881, was admitted to the bar. He practised his profession as a member of the firm of Bayfield and Blanchard until 1905, when he was appointed County Court Judge for King's County.

He took a deep interest in educational matters and served for a number of years as Chairman of the Charlottetown School Board, a position which he held until his death.

He was a musician of more than ordinary talent and served as Organist of St. Dunstan's Cathedral for over thirty years. In 1883 he married Miss Alvina Painchaud, daughter of Mr. J. B. F. Painchaud, Collector of Customs, Amherst, Magdalen Islands, who with the following children, is left to mourn: Cornelius, Mary Ethel, wife of Mr. Byron Brown, Lucy Josephine Eugenie, Bessie, John Wilford, Mary Antoinette, Mary, Louis Stanislaus, Albert Edward and Ida. To the bereaved relatives The Guardian tenders sincere sympathy.

RIFLE SUSPENDED.

Mr. Frederick A. Talbot, writing on "Munitions, Old and New," in the current number off "The World's Work," refers to the uses of the most modern rifle, and asks—"What has actual warfare revealed? Instead of battling at 2,00 paces (the range of a rifle), the protagonists are waging combat at forty yards, and even less. The rifle, as a weapon, might just as well be consigned to the scrap-heap, because it has been superseded by the machine gun. The tendency is not so much to knock your adversary over as to blow him to pieces or to riddle him like a sieve.
