ALLAN - HAYTER — A wedding of interest to a wide circle of relatives and friends in the Maritimes took place on Wednesday, November 3rd, at the parsonage of the Church of Christ, River John, N. The ceremony was performed by the bride's father and took place under an arch of evergreen and autumn leaves and flowers. The bride entered the living room to the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March played by her sister, Miss Winifred Hayter, and was attired in a floor length gown of white chiffon, fashioned with sweetheart neckline, fitted torso, and bouffant skirt. Her finger tip veil was of white tulle caught by a halo of orange blossoms. She carried a white Bible, gift of the groom, with white satin streamers, caught up with sweet peas and sprigs of maiden hair fern. Her matched ermine following the ceremony ornament was a necklace of spongy, a sumptuous wedding present was served to the guests present. The color scheme in the dining room was silver, pink and white. The bride's table was centered by three tier wedding cake topped by a miniature bride and groom. White tapers in silver candle-sticks and silver bases of roses were placed at either end of the table. Immediately following, and amid showers of confetti, the bride and groom left on a honeymoon trip through the Maritimes. For travelling the bride wore a navy tailored suit with navy accessories. S., where the groom is engaged in farming and the lumbering business.

Pretty November Wedding Saturday In Zion Church

Zion Presbyterian Church was the scene of a very pretty wedding at three o'clock Saturday afternoon when the Rev. Mr. Carlyle Webster, united in marriage Miss Betty June Bruce, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Bruce, and Lieut. Charlton James Smith, R.C.A.F.C., son of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Smith of Halifax.

Lovely flowers and ferns made an ideal setting for the wedding party. The guests were marked by patriotic ribbon bows, the ushers being Mr. T. Eimer Dunning and Mr. Frank Smith, Halifax, brother of the groom.

The bride who walked up the aisle on the arm of her father, who gave her in marriage, looked very wise in her mother's light blue silk jersey floor length gown, with becoming bow trimmed cap of blue net, matching gloves and carried an exquisite shower bouquet of Talisman roses, bouvardia and edelweiss. The bridesmaid wore a single strand of pearls.

Miss Helen Snerran was best bridesmaid looking very girlish in a pretty triple sheer pink floor length gown with net cap, color style of a matching shade edged with pink flowers. She carried a contrasting bouquet of Dream roses. The groomsmen were Lieut. Harry Smith, R. C. N., Saint John, brother of the groom.

During the ceremony Mrs. Edwin Johnston, the church organist, played softly and Miss Dorothy Allen, sang the bridal solo "Be-cause."

The church was crowded with guests and intimate friends who generously showered the happy young couple as they left the church with confetti and rice.

The bride's mother, Mrs. Bruce, wore a most becoming costume of Soldier blue jersey, with chic wine felt hat with blue feather band to correspond and corsage of Better Time roses.

Mrs. Smith chose a smart powder blue lace trimmed dress, her accessories being carried out in navy blue, with corsage of Hollywood roses.

After the ceremony a delightful reception was held at the Charlottetown when happiest congratulations were extended to Lieut. and Miss Smith who left for their honeymoon trip by car, the bride wearing a brown dress and hat with fur trim green coat and brown accessories.

The Guardian joins in happiest good wishes.

Phantom Of The Opera

EAGERLY AWAITED PRODUCTION, CALLED LAVISHLY ENTHRALLING

"Phantom Of The Opera" comes today to the Prince Edward Theatre. The long-anticipated production, heralded as Hollywood's super thrill-classic, is said to have been filmed on a lavish scale and stands as one of the year's outstanding movie projects. Photographed in Technicolor and featuring a cast of thousands, the picture has attracted record-breaking crowds at its premiere showings. It looms as one of the most successful attractions yet made by Universal studios.

Nelson Eddy, Susanna Foster and Claude Rains are co-starred. Distinguished players in the supporting cast include Edgar Barrier, Leo Carrillo, Jane Farrar, J. Edward Bromberg, Fritz Feld and Yvonne Cronin.

Material is extraordinary. The Gaston Leroux composition on which the story is based, is replete with dramatic terror unique in literature. The magnificent detail, was reproduced by Universal for the film and serves as a background for the spectacular melodramatic sequences.

Eddy and Miss Foster appear as opera singers and Rains has the title role of the "Phantom," the frustrated, disfigured musician a terrifying monster shrouded in mystery who haunts the giant edifice.

HOLLAND WHITE

A pretty marriage was solemnized at St. Mary's Church, Souris, when Beatrice, daughter of Peter E. and Mrs. Holland became the bride of Francis A. son of Isaac and Mrs. White of Souris West.

The marriage ceremony and nuptial Mass were performed by Rev. D.P. Croken with Rev. A. L. Sinnott and Rev. Leonard MacKenna present in the sanctuary.

The bride looked charming in a floor length gown of white silk tulle, finger-tip veil with orange blossom wreath, and wearing a corsage of American beauty roses. She carried a white prayer book with streamers.

Miss Helen Paquet, girl-friend of the bride, was her only attendant and wore a floor length gown of apricot chiffon with shoulder-length veil and wore a corsage of American beauty roses.

The groom was supported by his brother Eugene.

During the Mass hymns were rendered most beautifully by St. Mary's choir, of whom the bride is a member, under the direction of Mrs. W. J. Paquet accompanied by Mrs. Paquet who also played the wedding march.

After the marriage a wedding breakfast was served to immediate relatives and friends at the home of the bride's parents.

The bride and groom left on a honeymoon through the Maritimes. For travelling the bride wore a black tailored suit with accessories to match.

The groom is a bombardier with an ack-ack regiment and leaves for his unit shortly.

Previous to her marriage the bride was tendered a surprise shower at her home where many friends attended and gave the bride-to-be many useful gifts and all spent a very pleasant evening.

Boris Karloff "Chilarious" In "Boogie Man"

Filmdom has a new word, for a new sensation. The word is "chilarious", meaning chills and laughter, and it refers to the net effect upon motion picture audiences of Boris Karloff's latest film, "The Boogie Man Will Get You".

The "Boogie Man Will Get You" stars Karloff and Peter Lorre at the Capitol Theatre. A horror film designed for laughter, the comedy is a far cry from the "Arsenic and Old Lace" technique which kept Karloff on Broadway for two years.

Karloff and Lorre may safely be regarded as comedians of value.

Karloff is seen as a pleasant, kindly research worker, patiently seeking to help his nation's war effort by using ordinary mortals into Superman. As the corpses mount, so do his hopes of ultimate success. He "cuts himself in" on the experiments and gleefully contributes to the fun for everybody, because such is the way to regard war.
