Many readers in this Province were no doubt deeply interested in the article which appeared in Thursday's Guardian telling of the many benefits to be derived by the members of the I. O. F. which society is deservedly popular in this Province. With such bustling and energetic officers as Rev. E. J. Hattie, High Chief Razer and George W. McPhee, High Secretary, the I. O. F. should go forward with a bound and grow in popularity during the years to come. As a fraternal society the I. O. F. is high and the courts take a particular interest in the work of their society.

Charlottetown theatre-goers were out in force last evening, in fact they were pretty nearly all there, to witness the Motus of Society as presented by the Colonial Stock Company. As a consequence of this excellent patronage Miss Warren and her associate players were at their best and the rapport between them and their audience was complete. The rich and varied costumes of the ladies of the company were a feature of the evening. The play is a dramatization of Ouida's well-known novel, "Motus," and is full of dramatic, emotional and pretty incidents of heart interest, while the dialogue contains many bright, inspiring and humorous passages. Rounds of applause and laughter from time to time rewarded the players by attending the hearty appreciation of the audience, while at more intense moments the interest was breathless. The Colonial Stock Company have won golden opinions during their season in this city.
