AN ENGLISHMAN'S IMPRESSIONS OF THE GREAT GAME OF BASEBALL MAKE INTERESTING READING.

They have been asking about baseball in the Old Country for a little while now. Various attempts have been made to transplant America's national game to the Tight Little Island, but with only scant success. One Englishman who has seen baseball was asked to write his impressions.

This is what he wrote:

The national game of Russia consists in sending the cleverest citizens on walking tours to Siberia. Spain delights in shooting the educated, and the favorite pastime of Ireland and Scotland is emigration. England's chief hobby is building floating murder mansions, whilst America's delight is baseball. The German keeps fit by lifting a lager beer mug to his own; the Portuguese keeps in condition by rolling cigarettes; the Englishman keeps wide awake worrying about German invasions; but the Americans train by practising encouraging yells to cheer their favorite teams. My mission in writing this article is to popularize baseball in England. I have been to one match, and studied Johnny McGraw's book on the game, and am therefore quite unbiased. It is rather an intricate and scientific game, but any person who reads these notes may become quite as expert as myself.

There are only about 895 rules to be observed. The best way to memorize them is to commence at the age of six weeks and grow up with them.

Rule 70, however, seems to me a serious stumbling block to baseball popularity in England. Rule 70, if put into operation, would play havoc with sport lovers. Rule 70 states that obscene language is not permitted.

FACE WAS LITERALLY COVERED WITH PIMPLES.

Four Different Doctors Did Her No Good.

Two Bottles of BURDOCK BLOOD BITTERS Cured Her.

Bad blood is directly the cause of the face breaking out in pimples, and it is impossible to eradicate them unless you put your blood into good shape.

Burdock Blood Bitters is compounded from roots, herbs, barks and berries, and is without a doubt the best remedy procurable for the purpose of driving all the blood impurities out of the system.

Mr. Geo. E. Miller, Clavering, Ont., writes:—"Last fall I was very much troubled with pimples. My face was literally covered with them. I went to four different doctors, but they could do me no good. One day a friend advised me to use Burdock Blood Bitters, so I got two bottles, and before I had taken all the first one, the pimples had nearly all disappeared, and by the time I had taken all the second one, the pimples had disappeared completely, thanks to Burdock Blood Bitters. I would advise anybody who is troubled with any blood trouble to use Burdock Blood Bitters.

COULD NOT SWEEP FLOOR Was So Terribly Afflicted With Lame Back.

It is hard to do housework with a weak and aching back, and no woman can be strong and healthy unless the kidneys are well.

The weak, lame and aching back comes from sick kidneys and should be attended to immediately so as to avoid years of terrible suffering from kidney trouble. Mrs. Harvey W. Brownell, Northport, N.S., writes:—"I now take pleasure in writing you, stating the benefit I received by using Doan's Kidney Pills. About a year ago I was terribly afflicted with lame back, and was so bad at times I could not sweep my own floor. While looking through your B.B.B. Almanac I saw Doan's Kidney Pills were a great remedy, so thought I would try a box or two. After using five boxes I was completely cured, and I am very thankful to have found so speedy a cure."

Doan's Kidney Pills are 50 cents per box, or 3 boxes for $1.25, at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont. In ordering direct specify "Doan's."

in my purse," is absolutely necessary to the enjoyment of the game. Not knowing the intricacies of the ground, I only booked a fifty cent seat. Unfortunately, I never got within half a mile of the players, and I was compelled to study the game through a telescope. In England two shillings will purchase anything from a seat on the grand stand to three months in prison, but fifty cents in New York will not permit you to pass the street door at the Knickerbocker Hotel, and it is about as useful as a steamboat ticket at a dock strike. After paying my fifty cents I carefully tiptoed between the backs and feet of the spectators to secure my two shillings' worth. Between the uncushioned planks yawn crevasses, in case one wishes to drop one's pencil, watch, change, or chewing gum. Finally I reached the unplanned plank which I had purchased and sat down.

American lunatic asylums are full of unfortunate strangers who fancied they could learn baseball in less than fifty years. In spite of these lamentable failures, the game is quite simple—when thoroughly understood. Baseball is a cross between golf, football, cricket, rounders, ralevo, puss in the corner, jail i'th'ball, kiss in the ring, and assassination. The principal weapons used during the friendly duel are clubs, horseshoe balls, shoes with razors fixed to the soles, boxing gloves, umpires, catchers and spectators.
