BRACKLEY BEACH.—A most enjoyable evening was spent in Howe's Hall, Brackley Beach on Monday, March 24th when the young people of New Glasgow presented their play "The Country Squire" to a large and appreciative audience. No special mention should be made of any one player as each took their part in a manner most creditable, but it is the writers' opinion that "Sally" won the "honors" of the evening. This talented little lady kept the audience in peals of laughter on each appearance with her splendid acting and witty sayings and was heartily applauded. The staging was excellent and these young people are to be congratulated upon their efforts.

BASKET SOCIAL.—The people of Bonshaw and adjacent districts received a real treat on the evening of March 10th, when the young people of St. Catherine's, with supporting talent from Clyde River, assembled in the hall and rendered a very excellent program. Although the travelling conditions were not accommodating, the spacious hall was almost filled to its capacity. The splendid order which prevailed during the evening was sufficient proof that the program was heartily enjoyed by the audience. Mr. James M. MacFadyen presided in his usual pleasing and capable manner. The accompanists for the evening were Miss Catherine MacNevin, ably assisted by the Misses Gladys Abbott and Mayme MacPhail. The program was as follows:—Opening remarks by the chairman. Chorus, "Upidee. Recitation, Miss Olga MacNevin. (Encored). Solo, Miss Catherine MacNevin. (Encored). Dialogue, Doctor by Proxy. Solo, John Murray. (Encored). Recitation, Mrs. Neil Salmon. (Encored). Dialogue, Dividing the Watermelon. Solo, Mr. Stewart MacNevin. (Encored). Dialogue, Looking for a Wife. Reading, Miss Catherine MacNevin. (Encored). Solo, Mr. Gordon Inman. (Encored). Dialogue, Matrimonial Advertisement. Recitation, Mr. Heber MacLean. (Encored). Dialogue, Darkey Dialogue. Reading, Mr. Seymour MacLean. (Encored). Closing Chorus, Dixie Land. National Anthem. A very substantial sum was realized which goes towards the completion of the St. Catherine's Rural Telephone line. The committee in charge which to thank those from adjacent districts who helped in any way to make it a success.

THE BREAD PRODUCED.—There is no flour in the world that will make more loaves to the barrel than "REGAL", and none that surpasses it in the quality of bread produced. Think of being able to get the best flour in the world right at your own door, and at a price which even the poorest of us can afford to pay. The very richest people in the world are not able to obtain bread that is superior to the kind that you in your own house can make from "REGAL."

FAREWELL PRESENTATION.—Friday evening the C. G. I. T. of St. Matthew's church, St. John, N. B., were entertained at the home of Miss Mildred Clifford, Portland street Miss Jennie Robinson, one of the leaders, on behalf of the girls, presented Mrs. Spencer a pair of silver vases. Later in the evening the choir members assembled at the home of Mrs. Clifford and Mrs. James Lyon on their behalf presented Mrs. Spencer a very pretty shopping bag and Mr. Spencer The Life of Christ, by Papin. They are leaving St. John shortly for Prince Edward Island.—St. John Exchange.

INSTITUTE MEETING.—The March meeting of the Cornwall—York Institute was held at the home of Miss Kathleen McDonald on Monday, March 3rd. This being the annual meeting the time was all taken with the election of officers for the ensuing year. Last year's officers were all re-elected by acclamation, with the exception of the President and Secretary. The next meeting will be on Monday, April 7th, at the home of Mrs. Leslie McEwen, York Point.

ELECT OFFICERS.—Union Division No. 45 Springfield one of the oldest Divisions of the S. of T. held a very enthusiastic meeting on March 26. A goodly number of the members were present, a very lively time was spent as has been the case in preceding meetings. The members believe that there ought to be no discharge from the ranks of the members who elected the following officers for the quarter W. P. Bro. John Haslam, W. A. Margaret McDonald, Worthy Patron, Sis. Edna Haslam, R. S. Florence Drummond, A. R. S. Bro. Elsworth Mayne, F. S. Sis. Ruthe Howard, Treas., Bro. Robert Howard, Chap., Sis. Elizabeth Drummond, Con., Bro. Ira McKay, A. Con., Sis. Amelia Haslam, I. S., Sutherland McKay, O. S., Hyath Haslam, P. W. P., Ernest Haslam. The following members will be delegates to Grand Division to be held at Kensington on April 14th, namely: D. N. McKay, Ernest Haslam, Robert Howard.

SERVICE ENJOYED.—A rarely beautiful musical service was given in the Long River Presbyterian Church on Sunday evening the 23rd inst. The story of the Prodigal Son was given from the pulpit and each stage in the Prodigal's wandering, his recovery and his return was impressed with some suitable solo, duet, quartette or chorus. The solos were given by Mr. Murdoch McLeod, Mrs. George Campbell, Mr. John Johnson and Rev. George Millar. The duets were by Miss Marion Johnstone and Miss Margery Found and by Mrs. Robert McLeod and Mrs. Dan Johnstone. The male quartette Messrs Murdoch McLeod, Dan Johnstone, Charles McLeod and Robert McLeod never were better enjoyed. Indeed the whole service was so deeply impressive and instructive that it will be great disappointment if it should not be soon repeated. The organist Mrs. Dan Johnstone deserves the thanks of all for making this remarkable parable dearer than ever to all who were present.

BRACKLEY POINT NOTES.—The young people of New Glasgow favored us with their splendid play "The Country Squire" in Howe Hall on Monday, March 24th, it was largely attended and greatly enjoyed by all present, we hope to have the pleasure of having them again in the near future.—The school is progressing rapidly under the able and careful management of Miss Lillian Moore.—Mr. Clayton Shaw is on a business trip to Truro, N. S.—Mr. Cleave Robinson, Fortage Road, spent the week end in Brackley Beach.—The many friends of Mr. Neil McCallum will be glad to see him home after spending the winter in N. B.—Mr. Percy Roper, Central Royalty, spent Sunday at Brackley Beach and reports the roads in good condition.—Mr. George Shaw is visiting his uncle, Mr. Lea McLaughlin, Cove Head West.—Our carpenter Joseph Berrigan has just completed a new model of a sleigh which has proved very satisfactory.—Mr. Fenton McLure is spending the winter with his parents in Brackley Point.—Mr. and Mrs. Albert Cudmore and family are leaving shortly for Bunbury where they intend to reside for the summer.—Miss Marion Pillman of the firm of Houston & Pillman has given up her position and returned to her home.—A Traveller's Rest.—Mr. Edgar Bryanton has sold his beautiful chestnut horse to our Merchant, Mr. Chas. Phillips for a handsome sum. Mr. Phillips is to be congratulated on securing such a fine animal.

A MOST SUCCESSFUL PLAY.—The young people of New Glasgow who so successfully staged their play "The Country Squire" in Howe's Hall, Brackley Beach on Monday night March 24th wish one, and all through the columns of this paper to thank Mr. and Mrs. John McCallum and family, who with their kind friends and neighbors, so pleasantly entertained us during the afternoon and evening. Not only was the spacious supper-table fair-ly groaning with goodies prepared in Mrs. McCallum's best style, but in Mrs. McCallum's entertainment a splendid evening's entertainment was accorded us, consisting of music and songs. Waltzing was also indulged in till the chancelier's muffled crow warned us that another day was dawning when with the bounding of the "Squire" and other songs, and the singing of a farewell song we wended our way bumpety-bump over the road or nine long miles till we landed again in the peaceful valley of Home Sweet Home after a most enjoyable trip which will not soon be forgotten.
