pointed to the Red Chamber.

Of Prince Edward Island and Cape Breton stock, Senator McKee is proud of his Maritime ancestry and hopes to visit the family home at Culloden and Margaree this summer.

"I've been too much occupied with business to come east for many years but I hope to visit Prince Edward Island and Cape Breton this summer," Senator McKee told The Guardian.

"I haven't been to the island since I was a boy of nine, when I visited relatives there on holiday. My mother was the former Catherine Stewart and was born at Culloden. A cousin of hers, the Honorable J.D. McKee, now of Ottawa and former Premier of British Columbia, is also from Prince Edward Island.

"I don't care where you go, you generally find Prince Edward Islanders doing well in their adopted communities," he said.

Senator McKee has met his colleagues of the Senate from Prince Edward Island and is depending on their advice as to the best time of year to revisit the Province of his forebears, both from the standpoint of scenery and of fishing.

business establishments purchased small generating plants this week to keep their services operating.

The stories of this week's troubles because of power failures are almost legion. Motorists had to make the rounds to find a service station with power to operate gasoline pumps, theatres closed, skating at the local Forum was carried on with battery operated lights, some 2,000 chickens at a local hatchery were lost, several establishments, including a creamery and milk pasteurizing and dry cleaning plants operated late at night when power consumption elsewhere in the city was at its lowest ebb. And so the stories went.

But the weather was kind to persons with electrically operated furnaces. The temperature was either above freezing or barely below all week. But even at that at least one store closed part time because of the low temperature and business was almost at a standstill at Province House for a couple of days when the oil furnace there was out for several hours.

ing. It was felt that if this was done it would mean a ten-day earlier shipment.

Mr. T. J. Inman pointed out that this would certainly be a solution of the car shortage problem as it was imperative that the potatoes be moved before beginning to sprout.

Mr. J. E. Campbell said he understood that the ban on exporting oysters from the south side of Summerside harbour was to be lifted shortly. Last summer the area had been surveyed and samples of the water taken in Ottawa and no contamination of this water was found to exist.

The matter of sewage disposal in the Town was discussed to Health is wealth. Have you joined this week's Crusade for Health? Through education one seeks to promote health. Children must be taught to eat right, to help in feeding the children and youth's part of the school program. Medical care must be available to all. The health of the young is the health of a people's future. —A.

Alberton Hockey

In a hockey match played in the Alberton rink on Wednesday, Jan. 29th, the Tignish Royals were solidly set back 5-1 by the Alberton Regals. It was the first meeting of the season for these teams.

Regals had already won 2 and lost 2 in games with O'Leary's. Jeffery of the Regals was the leading marksman of the night. He being Alberton's own Richard, proved he knew how to open the door—twice he opened wide the door to Tignish cage and rammed home the rubber. The other Alberton goals went to Millman, Pike and Rochford. E. Richard tallied for Tignish late in the 3rd period to rob Hardy, Regals' cageman a deserved shutout. Alberton's Steve Murphy led assists for the night with two. Pike and Hardy of the same team, had 1 each.

The only department that Tignish led the high was the 3rd period. They received 7 of the 10 handed out by referee—ex-Big Four Beaver—Mac McDonald. Of the seven, one was a major to Charlie McInnis for shaving Regal W. Hard's upper lip so closely with the blade of his stick as to draw blood.

Lineups: Regals: Goal, C. McDonald; defence, C. McInnis, M. McInnis, E. McDonald; Forwards, A. (Rocke), Richard, L. Richard, P. Richard, Gaudet, C. Bernard, H. McInnis, B. Carter, E. Bernard, E. Richard, A. McDonald.

Regals: Goal, Perley Hardy; defence, Ralph Profit, Bob Profit, Eric Murphy; Forwards, Fred Millman, Jack Rochford, Wes Hardy, Richard Jeffery, Don Pike, Steve Murphy.

Referee: Mac McDonald. Linesman, L. McLeod.

The Tignish school team, hearing of the poor showing made by their seniors, jaunted down to Alberton on the afternoon of the 30th, to make good the boys' loss by decisively defeating the Alberton High team, 7-2.

The one-sided score in Tignish's favor is proof of the need of organization and coaching in Alberton's would be hockeyists.

some length and the possibility of having an incinerator erected was given some consideration.

Mayor Arnett pointed out that the town is rapidly developing from a small town into a small city and that this important matter is under advisement as to cost by the Town Council.

The work is being done by J. Alfred Doyle, local decorating contractor.

"I am sure visitors to the hotel will be delighted with the new decorations and they will find them harmonious and pleasing to the eye," Mr. Foster said.

In speaking of the prospects for the forthcoming tourist season Mr. Foster stated that the number of inquiries received to date would indicate that a larger number of tourists than ever before would be visiting the Island. The inquiries would also indicate that the tourist attractions of Prince Edward Island are becoming more generally known and are more appreciated.

A greater number of conventions have been booked than heretofore, which would go to show that Charlottetown is fast becoming a popular convention centre.
