

NEWS OF THE WEEK IN PICTURES FOR GUARDIAN READERS

SIR HARRY AND BROTHER DECIDE TO GO FISHING
"Which would you rather do, or go fishing?" asks Sir Harry Lauder. Why, fishing, of course. And here they are, looking as though they might start at any moment. No, it isn't a trick photograph—that is Alex. Lauder, Sir Harry's brother, on the RIGHT. The gentleman on the LEFT holding the thermos bottle is Harry Vallance, the comedian's nephew. This is near Angus, Scotland.

AN ATTRACTION AT AIRPORT OPENING
Miss Tib Goulding, one of Canada's premier pilots, who was among those doing their stuff in the air at opening of the new Toronto airport.

JEWISH PARTY VISITS LONDON, ENGLAND
A party of Jewish motorcyclists are motorcycling through Europe to call attention to the forthcoming Jewish Olympic games. They are seen here leaving the Guildhall, London, England, after a visit with the Lord Mayor of London.

RUTH TO REST BEFORE MAKING ANOTHER ATLANTIC ATTEMPT
In a plane piloted by Clarence Chamberlain, her adviser, Ruth Nichols, who was badly hurt at St. John, New Brunswick, on the first leg of her projected transatlantic flight, arrives from St. John at Armonk, New York, airport. She was immediately whisked away by ambulance to her home at Rye, where she will rest a bit before making another flight attempt.

FLIES TO GREET HUBBY

Mrs. Vera Gatty as she appeared at Los Angeles, prior to stepping aboard transcontinental air liner to fly to New York to greet her husband, Harold Gatty, who, with Wiley Post, just completed a record globe-circling flight.

WINS COVETED AWARD

Against competition from all parts of the United States, Louise Bernhardt of Boston won the low voice award at San Francisco in the contest just concluded by the National Federation of Music.

WELCOMED IN NEW YORK AFTER AN EPOCH MAKING FLIGHT
Photographed at the Ritz-Carlton, New York are, Left to Right: Harold Gatty, Mrs. Harold Gatty, Mrs. Wiley Post, and Wiley Post, just before the two modern Magellans left for the reception at city hall where thousands of New Yorkers were waiting to greet the two daring men who flew around the world in eight days to shatter all existing records for travel.

PRIZE CHOWS ENTERED IN SHOW AT LONDON

Dogs of all breeds competed at the Olympia, London, England, in the Ladies Kennel Club annual championship show recently. Here is shown Mrs. Mannoch and her prize chows arriving for the show.

SHE MUST BE A SCOT

Who said Hollywood stars were spendthrifts? Certainly Joan Marsh can deny the soft impeachment for when she needs costume jewelry for a movie appearance she saves an honest penny by going to Cecil Holland, make-up expert, and by getting him to pencil on the ornaments with a grease crayon.

When Miss Mary Macfarlane of Ottawa, ABOVE boarded the S. S. Lady Rodney at Montreal her pomeranian puppy was un-named, so she called him Sir George in honor of the famous British admiral, whose wife was Lady Rodney. Miss Macfarlane is the granddaughter of the Hon. A. W. Bluck, mayor of Hamilton, Bermuda.

MANY BUILDINGS DESTROYED BY OHIO STORM

Scores of homes and buildings were damaged, traffic jammed, trolley, light and phone service were disrupted when a 55-mile-an-hour gale hit Cleveland, O., June 26. Photo shows wreckage of, sign-boards which were blown over during the storm on Cleveland's west side.

ONE OF COUNTRY'S LEADING INDUSTRIES

General view of a cane sugar plant in India. At RIGHT, note the bullock with a fresh load of sugar cane, behind it the machine which presses the juice from the stalks and in the foreground a boiling cauldron, heated by the dried and pressed cane stalks.

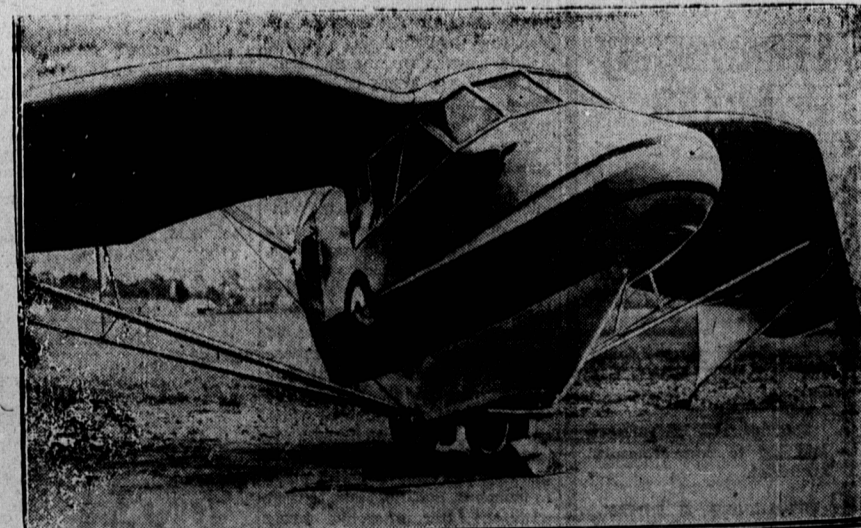

KING'S COUSIN ILL
Recent portrait of Princess Marie Louise, first cousin of the King, who is seriously ill in London.

REMOVED FROM BENCH

Magistrate Jean Norris, Manhattan's first woman magistrate, who has been ordered removed from the bench by unanimous vote of five justices of appellate division, New York.

STRANGE "BIRD" AT ROYAL AIR PAGEANT

Many a strange "bird" took part in the recent Royal Air Force Pageant at Hendon, England, a magnificent aerial demonstration that revealed Great Britain's strength in the air in a striking manner. This curious craft is a tailless Pterodactyl Mark IV. machine and its appearance is sufficient excuse for its prehistoric name.