

MONDAY
DIES IN NEW YORK — Mr. Joseph Davison of Kensington received a telegram Saturday stating that his brother-in-law, Mr. Horace Howatt, formerly of Bedouque, had passed away in Stamford, New York. No further particulars were received.

WON MANY PRIZES — Mr. Oliver Saunders of Winslow, the well known breeder of South Downs & Hampshire sheep, has returned from the mainland where he was exhibiting. He won at Amherst 9 firsts, 15 seconds, 15 thirds and 6 fourths. While in St. John he won 10 firsts, 17 seconds, 19 thirds, Mr. Saunders is to be congratulated on his fine quality of sheep.

ISLAND VISITORS — Miss Madeline Appleton of New York City, who has spent the summer at Port Hill, and Miss Gertrude Montgomery formerly of Port Hill and now of Worcester, Mass., spent the weekend in Charlottetown guests at the home of Mrs. A. J. Macdonald. This is Miss Appleton's first visit to Prince Edward Island and she is charmed with its climate and scenery and has made up her mind to spend future summers here. Miss Montgomery is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Archibald Montgomery, Port Hill.

A sacred recital was given last evening in Trinity United Church, at the close of the regular service, by Mr. Robert Messervy and Mr. Ben Wagner, assisted by Trinity Choir, under the leadership of Prof. W. E. Fletcher. The recital, which was well attended, was of exceptional merit. Mr. Messervy's splendid baritone voice was never heard to better advantage, and Mr. Wagner's violin numbers were exquisitely rendered. Prof. Fletcher presided at the organ and played several solos, and one of the anthems rendered by the choir, "O Love of God" was sung to his own musical setting.

HALE — McDONALD — Miss Jennie Mae McDonald, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. A. McDonald, North Wilshire, and Mr. William Lorne Hale, Moncton, N. B., son of Mrs. Florrie Hale, Charlottetown, were united in marriage at the Cornwall Parsonage on Wednesday morning August 25, 1926 by Rev. E. M. Aitken. The bride wore a Navy Blue Velour Suit trimmed with white and white velour hat, and carried a bouquet of bridal roses and maiden hair fern. Following the ceremony the bridal party motored to the home of the bride's parents where a sumptuous wedding dinner was served, after which Mr. and Mrs. Hale left by motor on an extended tour of the Maritime Provinces. The groom holds a lucrative position as accountant for W. A. Humphrey & Son, Moncton, N. B. The numerous presents received testify to the popularity of the newly married couple.

TO STUDY AT OXFORD — Mr. Robert Messervy who has won a special Rhodes Scholarship for this Province leaves this morning for England. He will attend the University of Oxford where he will take up a course of studies for the degree of Bachelor of Music. This course lasts two years and it is Mr. Messervy's intention to spend his vacations in Italy, where nature will further pursue his studies in singing. Mr. Messervy has won much distinction as a scholar and musician. All will regret to see him leave his native island and will greatly miss his splendid performances at various religious and other occasions. We understand that he is the first musician from Prince Edward Island to study music in the famous Ox-ford University. He sails from Montreal on Friday the 24th, and all will unite with the Guardian in wishing him a bon voyage.

TUESDAY
There passed peacefully away at the City Hospital on Sept. 7th, 1926, Thomas Lund, son of the late Wm. H. Lund, St. Peter's Island, and brother of the late Charles Lund, who died about five weeks ago. The deceased was born on St. Peter's Island fifty years ago. Besides a sorrowing widow he leaves to mourn three sons and one daughter, Earl Elmer and Mabel, five sisters and two brothers, namely: Mrs. Frederick Melby, Arlington, Mass.; Mrs. Caroline McKinnon, Truro, N. S.; Mrs. Alfred Jackson, Montreal, P. Q.; Mrs. Michael Cull, Minnesota; Martha, St. Peter's Island; James of this city and Albert of St. Peter's Island. His funeral which took place on Friday 10th, was largely attended. The service at the house was conducted by Rev. Dr. Genge assisted by Rev. Dr. Fulton of Zion Presbyterian Church, who also conducted service at the grave. The pallbearers were: Wm. McInnis, Allan McInnis, Gerald Murray, Hedley Weeks, J. D. Taylor and John Flynn.

Advertisement for Absorbine Jr. The Antiseptic Liniment. It features an illustration of a man in pain holding his back, with text: 'Lumbago backache Quick relief comes as congestion goes Absorbine Jr. THE ANTISEPTIC LINIMENT At all Druggists $1.25'.

SERIOUS CHARGE. — On Saturday last Sheriff Wright brought a Mr. Frank Arsenault down from the west and lodged him in the Prince County Jail on a charge of having stolen the sum of $300 from Mr. Rankin Wallace of Coleman. The prisoner is now under remand until Thursday, when he will be taken up to O'Leary for preliminary hearing before the magistrate there.

NEW SALESMAN — Mr. Alyn Arsenault, who has been connected with the firm of N. Rattenbury Ltd., for the past nine years, as City Salesman, has resigned his position and will, in future, devote his whole time to insurance. Mr. Arsenault has been appointed Special Agent of the Great-West Life and of Hyndman & Co. Ltd., General Insurance Agency. We wish Mr. Arsenault a large measure of success in his insurance business.

FOREIGN HORSES ARRIVE. — The last of the foreign horses for our Exhibition races arrived in the city last night. They consisted of Peter Stratton, Pansy Aubrey and Lacopia the Great. Altogether there are upwards of sixty horses quartered on the Exhibition grounds, and every class is filled to overflowing. In fact there are almost too many horses thus necessitating elimination heats. The three classes for Wednesday are: The 2.49 Trot with 12 sure starters, the 2.30 Pace with 11 sure starters and the 2.21 Class Trot with 7 sure starters. These three classes will make racing that will be close and very exciting.

DIED SUDDENLY. — The residents of Ellerslie were shocked to hear of the sudden death of Mr. William A. McCaull on Sunday night. The late Mr. McCaull who carried on a general mercantile business at Ellerslie for some years was well and favorably known throughout the county. He leaves to mourn besides a sorrowing widow, three sons, Calvin, in British Columbia and Thomas and Peter at Ellerslie; also one married daughter in Boston. The funeral takes place on Wednesday afternoon. The Guardian extends sincere sympathy to the bereaved.

On Sept. 8th in Lowell, Mass., there passed away to her eternal reward Mrs. Mat Gillis (nee Nora McMillan) daughter of the late Thomas Nelligan, Sr., of Norway, Lot 1. Deceased was in her sixty-fourth year and was in good health until two weeks before her death. At that time she became seriously ill and was taken to the hospital where she was operated on for appendicitis. The operation was successful and she was convalescing rapidly when pneumonia set in and death followed shortly. She was buried in the cemetery of St. Joseph's Church by her pastor and life-long friend Rev. Fr. McQuaid.

A solemn requiem high Mass was celebrated in St. John's Church for the repose of her soul and her remains were laid to rest in St. Joseph's cemetery, Lowell, beside her son Edward who was killed in France in 1918. The large number of friends and relatives who followed her to her last resting place testified to the esteem with which she was held in the city of Lowell, where she had resided over forty years. Besides a sorrowing husband she leaves to mourn two sons Fred of Lowell, Mass., and Albert of Oakland, California, one daughter, Mrs. Jack Crook of Lowell, her mother, Mrs. Jane Nelligan, Brighton, Mass., one brother Albert, English British Columbia and four sisters namely Sister Christine, Mamie of Lynn, Mass., Sister Josephine, Henry Staver, Rochford Square School, Principal of the city, Mrs. P. J. Kelly, Brighton, Mass., and Bertille of Boston, Mass.

MR. ANTHONY MITCHELL. — The inquest into the death of Anthony Mitchell, who was killed by his son John Henry Mitchell, was held at Lennox Island on Wednesday before Coroner E. T. Tanton, M.D., Summerside, and the following jury: Sydney Richardson, foreman; St. Elizabeth's, Henry Staver, Summerside; Percy G. Ellis, Port Hill; Harold Brown, Port Hill; Claire Montgomery, Port Hill; Col. in McKay, East Bideford, and Ray Brown, Lennox Island. The evidence of Sarah Mitchell, eye-witness of the crime, was to the effect that the accused struck his father with the axe and from the wound it was evident that death was instantaneous, the skull being crushed and the brain protruding. It was also brought out in the evidence that the accused had not been acting normally since his return from the Canadian West about a year ago. The jury brought in a verdict of murder with the recommendation that the accused be examined by competent medical and mental experts to ascertain his mental condition. The late Anthony Mitchell, victim of the crime, was one of the best known and most highly respected Indians on Lennox Island. He had always been a leading part in Indian affairs, and will be greatly missed by the natives. He was fifty-four years of age. He leaves to mourn his untimely end a widow, formerly Mary Elizabeth Sark, daughter of Chief Sark, and the following family: Agnes, Elizabeth, Sarah, Madeline, Catherine, Veronica, John Henry, Daniel, Urban and Louis. The funeral on Thursday morning was largely attended. Solemn Requiem Mass was celebrated by the Rev. Dr. Gaucher, Palmer Road, with Father F. X. Gallant, of Egmont Bay, as Deacon, and Father J. A. MacDonald of Grand River, as sub-deacon, while the choir of which he was a leading member, sang most beautifully in rich mellown tones so characteristic of the Indian's voice. His body was then laid to rest in the cemetery adjoining the church. The pallbearers were Messrs. Michael Thomas, Shelton Sharp, Archibald Montgomery and Isaac Peters, N.

FIRE ALARM — An alarm was rung in yesterday morning from 190 Cumberland Street. The blaze was extinguished shortly after the arrival of the firemen and before any serious damage was done.

TRANSFERRED. — Mr. Harold W. McWilliams, teller of the Bank of Montreal, left yesterday afternoon for Chatham, N. B., having been transferred to the branch of the bank there. Mr. McWilliams during the time he has been in Charlottetown, has made a number of friends, all of whom will regret to hear of his departure and will wish him every success in his promotion.

SUDDEN DEATH OF ISLANDER IN B. C. — Mrs. Barbara E. Gregor, City, has just received a wire intimating the death in Revelstoke, B. C., of her brother, George Matheson, formerly of Brackley, Mr. Matheson's son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. James Campbell of Revelstoke are at present visiting on the island. The death was most unexpected and it is presumed was due to heart trouble. The Guardian extends sympathy to the bereaved family.

FIRE AT GRAND RIVER. — A bad fire occurred at Grand River, about 11, yesterday morning, when the barns and outbuildings, with crop and other contents were destroyed. The fire started shortly after 6 o'clock and the barns were burned to the ground before 9 o'clock. The cause of the fire is unknown. The Parochial house is close to the barns and only the splendid efforts of a volunteer fire brigade saved a much greater loss. Some of the Summerside firemen with the hand engine went out to save the barns. There is some insurance.

MITCHELL — McDONALD WEDDING. — A very pretty wedding took place at St. Bonaventure's Church, Tracadie, on Wednesday morning, September 8th, when Miss Helen Mitchell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Mitchell of Riverside, was united in holy bonds of matrimony to Mr. Elmer J. McDonald, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel A. McDonald, Scotchfort, the ceremony being performed by Rev. J. B. McIntyre, P. S. The bride looked charming in a gown of white crepe de chene and black hat. She was attended by her sister, Miss Mary Mitchell who wore a georgette dress of ashes of roses. The groom was supported by Mr. W. B. F. Harris. After the ceremony the happy couple motored to the home of the bride where a sumptuous breakfast was served to all the relatives and friends. They received many useful and beautiful presents which testified to the popularity of the young couple. A host of friends wish Mr. and Mrs. McDonald every happiness and success in married life.

HUESTIS MACKAY — A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Bowness, Kensington on Wednesday evening, Sept. 8th, when their daughter Jennie Mackay was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Mr. Charles Lyman Huestis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Huestis, Wilnot Valley, the Rev. Dr. Saint officiating. The house was very gaily decorated for the occasion with potted plants and cut flowers. To the strains of Lohengrin, wedding march skillfully played by Miss Ada Huestis sister of the groom, the bride attired in a beautiful gown of ivory crepe satin and silver lace with the conventional veil caught with orange and carnations, carried a shower bouquet of white and pink chrysanthemum, with maiden hair fern entered the parlour on the arm of her father and took her place under an arch of ferns, white asters and wedding bells. She was attended by her two bridesmaids, Misses Ruby and Ruth, who wore gowns of pale pink and blue with poke hats to match and carrying bouquets of pink and blue asters with maiden hair fern. The groom was ably supported by Mr. Magne Stewart of Norborne. Immediately after the ceremony about one hundred invited guests sat down to a bountiful supper prepared in the hostess usual good style. At the proper hour an unusually large number of spectators arrived who by their lively antics added much to the enjoyment of the evening. A large number of beautiful gifts were received showing the high esteem in which the bride and groom are held. The remainder of the evening was pleasantly whiled away in music and dancing until the wee small hours of the morning when all departed to their homes wishing Mr. and Mrs. Huestis many happy years of wedded life.

ATTENDING PRESBYTERIAL. — Among those attending the W. M. S. Presbyterial in Halifax from St. James Church are Mrs. R. J. Campbell, Vice-Pres. Miss Jessie Fullerton, Miss Bella Bagnall and Miss Margaret Irving.

WELCOME RESIDENTS. — Another English family has recently come to P. E. Island. They are Mr. William Everson, his wife and two children of Lowestoft, where Mr. Everson was engaged in farming and fishing. They have taken a 67 acre farm near Murray Harbour. This makes eighteen families from the Old Country who have located on the Island since 1925.

A new organist has been appointed to the Baptist Church in this city to fill the position vacated by Professor Hall. Miss Roberta Spencer, F. T. C. L. of Sydney, N. S., has been selected. Miss Spencer has had a very brilliant musical career. Her preliminary education in music was obtained in Canada. She then went to London, Eng., and became a student at the famous Trinity College of Music, where she obtained instruction from some of the most distinguished musicians of Great Britain, notably Charles Keith, in organ, and Mr. E. J. Every, the noted organist and composer, in organ. Mr. Oldroyd, in harmony and counterpoint, and Stanley Roper, King's Organist, in choir directing.

Miss Spencer won the David North Medal for 900 students passed through Trinity College during the period of Miss Spencer's training and she was successful in winning one of two fellowships awarded for organ playing. Mr. Edmond was organist and choir director of George Street Methodist Church, Sydney, for two and one half years and then filled a similar position with the United Baptist Church of the same city. Miss Spencer will assume her duties here on October 1st and will preside over a choir which for many years has been regarded as one of the best in this city. Miss Spencer's ability and brilliancy in music will doubtless enable her to continue the splendid musical services which has characterized the Baptist Church.

WEDNESDAY
TO ATTEND PRESBYTERIAL. — Mrs. George W. MacLeod, Vice-President of the Maritime Presbyterian, and Mrs. Allan Mitch, delegate from the W. M. S. of St. James Church, left yesterday morning for Halifax to attend the Jubilee Celebration of the Maritime Presbyterian of the Presbyterian Church in Canada.

What promises to be one of the best and most successful Provincial Exhibitions ever held in Prince Edward Island, was officially opened last evening by His Honor Lieutenant Governor Harris. Notwithstanding the rather disagreeable weather there was a very good attendance yesterday afternoon, and quite a good deal of interest was shown in the various exhibits in the main building. The judging of the different agricultural classes is already well advanced, and although, owing to the lateness of the farming season, some of the classes are not so well-filled as usual, still the quality of the exhibits that have been entered is of a very high standard.

There was a good attendance last night for the official opening which began at eight o'clock. The 7th Highlanders' Band was in attendance, and rendered inspiring music at intervals in the program. Owing to the dirty weather it was impossible to hold the circus performance in front of the grand stand, but the Band, which is a very fine musical organization, gave a delightful program of about an hour's length after the speeches had been concluded.

On July 16th there passed away to his eternal reward, Miss McDonald, in the 54th year of his age. She was in his usual good health until about a month before his death, when he entered the Charlottetown Hospital where he was operated on for Mastoid, from the effects of which he never fully recovered.

By the demise of Mr. McDonald, Peakes has lost a kind, hospitable resident, who was always willing to lend a helping hand to the needy. A widow (nee Miss Nellie Gorman.) and two children are left to cherish the memory of a loving and devoted husband and father. Four brothers and two sisters are also left to mourn.

The funeral which was the largest seen here for some time, took place on Sunday July 18th, to St. Teresa's Church. The services were conducted by the pastor, Rev. I.R.A. McDonald.

The pallbearers were: Messrs D. A. McDonald, P.O. McDonald, P.J. Connelly and Lemuel Hughes, well attended. The family acknowledged with thanks spiritual offerings from the following:

Rev. Bro. Paul, New York; Rev. M. E. Francis, Charlottetown; Mrs. Eliza McDonald and family, Boston; Mrs. Nellie McGillivray, Boston; Mr. and Mrs. D. A. McDonald, Peakes; Mr. Ray Hughes, Charlottetown; Miss M. A. Francis, Charlottetown; Mr. Geo. McDonald, Boston; Miss Mayme Gorman, Ottawa; Mr. Donald McDonald, Maple Hill; Mr. Joseph Monaghan, Charlottetown; Women's Institute, Peakes; Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Monaghan, Charlottetown; Mr. and Mrs. Jas. A. McDonald, Peakes; Mr. Alex. McDonald, Newport, R. I.; Miss Annie McDonald, New York; Miss Maggie McDonald, Boston.

The Preliminary Hearing into the case of William Brown, C. N. R. brakeman, charged with manslaughter, in connection with the death of the late Charles E. MacDonald at Bodden on the night of September 2nd, was opened in the Court House in Summerside yesterday morning at 11 o'clock before Judge McQuarrie.

Mr. Heath Strong, K. C., appeared for the Crown and Mr. Edgar Shaw for the defendant. The following witnesses were examined: — Wm. Davey, Dr. Bell, Willard McNeill, Mrs. Crosby, James O'Connell, Vernon Muttart, Morley Muttart, Victor McLean, Vernon Campbell, Mrs. Elen Campbell, Eldon Campbell, Willard Leard and James V. MacDonald.

The evidence was practically the same as has already been given in the Guardian. Mr. D.E. Shaw addressed the Court on behalf of the defendant and Mr. Heath Strong, K. C., for the Crown.

His Honor Judge McQuarrie consulted the defendant Brown for a moment at the next session of the Supreme Court.

Asked by His Honor if he had anything to say Brown said: "Not Guilty".

MITCHELL COMMITTED
The Preliminary Hearing of John Henry Mitchell charged with the murder of his father Anthony Mitchell was opened in the Court House yesterday before Chief Justice MacLeod, Mr. E. H. Strong, After 5 witnesses had been examined on behalf of the prisoner, the prisoner, when asked, said he had nothing to say.

Hon. J. D. Stewart, Attorney General acted for the Crown.

The dairy exhibits were judged at the Provincial Exhibition yesterday. The Judge, Mr. J. A. Maher, of Montreal, commented on the high standard of this year's exhibits.

Following are the prize winners: Cheese 1 Leo Hughes, Kensington 2 Cyril Connick, Hamilton 3 J. E. Cousins, Park Corner 4 H. Mulligan, Kinkora Creamery Butter, Solids Group 1 Rupert Hubley, Eldon 2 Ernest Hallett, O'Leary 3 M. Johnson, Bedouque 4 M. Jenkins, Dunstaffnage Group 2 Gordon Day, Lake Verde 3 W. E. Wood, Hazelbrook 4 Frank McNeil, New Perth 5 A. Ross, Tatamagouche, N. S. Creamery Butter, Prints Group 1 R. Hubley 2 M. Johnson 3 L. Jenkins 4 Gordon Day 5 W. E. Wood 6 A. Ross Dairy Butter, Solids 1 Miss E. Prowse, Brackley 2 Mrs. E. Vessey, York 3 John Gill Union Road 4 Mrs. Hamm Road, Winsloe Dairy Prints 1 Miss E. Prowse 2 Nellie Rodd, Winsloe 3 M. Davis, Rodd, Harrington

THURSDAY
FORMER RESIDENT. — Mr. H. G. Davison, District Manager for the Confederation Life Insurance Co., has recently located in Orillia, and is moving his family there from Belleville. Mr. Davison is a son of the late Mr. Milton Davison of this city, and has a wide circle of friends here.

The Presbyterial of P. E. Island met in the Presbyterian Church at 21st Valley on Wednesday, Sept. 21st at 2.30 p. m. for the induction of Rev. Andrew Brown.

A large gathering was present from the different sections of the congregations and the church was very prettily decorated for the occasion. Rev. G. S. Mitchell, moderator of the Tyne Valley session presided and conducted, Rev. M. Scott Fulton preached, Rev. H. Staver addressed the newly induced minister and Rev. W. B. Muir addressed the people.

ENJOYED VISIT. — Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Melvor of Kinkora returned recently from an extended motor trip to Boston, New York, New Jersey and Long Island. They enjoyed an excellent trip and started to finish. Mr. Melvor is one of the biggest potato growers on P. E. I. and no doubt combined business with pleasure.—K.

HARDY MANN. — On Saturday, September 11th, the Rev. Professor Kent, Pine Hill College, officiated at the marriage of Jennie Mary Mann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Mann, Birmingham, England, and Peary Wesley Allen Hardy, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Hardy, Litchfield, Annapolis county. The bride looked very charming in a navy blue crepe de chine dress, worn with hat and shoes to correspond. She was attended by Miss Hazel Symington, the groom being supported by Joseph F. McDonald, Charlottetown. P. E. I. Mr. and Mrs. Hardy will for the present reside in Halifax.

KERR-LARKIN. — First Presbyterian Church, Seaford, was the scene of a pretty wedding Friday evening when Beatrice Jean, daughter of Rev. Frederick and Mrs. Larkin, was united in marriage to Mr. Howard Hillen Kerr of Galt. The altar was banked with evergreens and pink cosmos pink and green being the prevailing colors. The costumes of the bridal party before the ceremony Mr. James Stewart sang "O Perfect Love". The bride who entered with her brother, Mr. F. R. Larkin, of Windsor to the strains of the bridal chorus "Lohengrin", played by Mrs. Milne Ronke, looked charming in a robe de style of white tulle and embroidered net with veil and coronet of orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of butterfly roses and lily of the valley, and wore the gift of the groom, a white gold wrist watch. Her sister Mrs. W. W. Moffatt, of Port Catherine, was matron of honor. Little Miss Barbara Best was a green-clad flower girl, and the ring-bearer was Mr. Ian Clark of Toronto. The groom was attended by his brother, Mr. Gordon Kerr, of Buffalo and the ushers were Mr. Leslie Kerr and Mr. Gordon Kerr of Toronto. The service was read by the bride's father, Dr. Larkin, and during the signing of the register Miss Florence Beattie and Mr. James Stewart sang "Until". After a reception at the home of the bride, decorated with pink roses and cosmos, Mr. and Mrs. Kerr, who are both formerly of Alberton P.E.I., where they have many relatives and friends, left for Muskoka, the bride travelling in a dress of navy charmeline with needle point trimming and a black English felt hat. On their return they will reside in Galt. — Toronto Globe.

FRIDAY
REASSURING NEWS. — A telegram received from Miss M. A. Bentley, formerly of Kensington, now residing in Miami, Florida, brings assurance that she is safe and well but that many are killed and hurt and the City is in ruins.

DECLARATION DAY. — Tuesday was Declaration Day for the Federal elections in Prince County. The proceedings took place at Summerside in the office of the Returning Officer, Sheriff Wright, when Mr. A. E. MacLean was declared elected for Prince County by a majority of 1721 votes. The total votes cast were: For McLean, 7392 for Wyatt, 5611. The total vote was 13,074 out of which 71 votes were rejected and spoiled. Between 800 and 900 more votes were polled in Prince County this election than in the election last fall.

The death occurred in this city Wednesday morning of Mrs. Mary Ellen McIntyre Wilson, widow of the late George Wilson, who, after almost reaching the four score and ten mark passed peacefully away at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Blois Andrew.

The deceased was one of the oldest and most respected members of Zion Church, being one of the thirteen members who joined when the boards and blocks at that time constituted the seats for the worshippers.

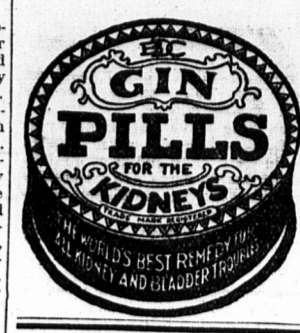

Deceased was the last of the thirteen to be spared a long life of usefulness, during which time she lived a true Christian life to the end of her earthly career.

The late Mrs. Wilson always took a deep interest in church work and although in late years was somewhat incapacitated by deafness her seat in front of her pastor was seldom vacant, and her services will long remain with those who are left as one of the lights of her age before.

Her funeral will be held from the home of her grand-daughter, Mr. Blois Andrew, 151 Euston Street Friday afternoon, leaving the house at 2.30.

On account of the absence of her pastor, services will be conducted by Rev. Bruce Muir of St. James' Church.

Rheumatism gone -20 years younger. Includes an illustration of a person and text: 'Please send me $2.50 worth of Gin Pills. I had Rheumatism so bad that I had to crawl to the wash room on my knees, and I could not sleep at night from pains in the back. I only had two boxes of Gin Pills and I feel twenty years younger. Thanking you so much, I am, William A. James, 2347 W. Fuller Ave., Chicago, Ill.'

Mrs. J. R. Muny, Marshfield, left Tuesday for Halifax to attend the Presbyterial. While away she will spend a week at Sheriff Hall with her daughter Charlotte who is studying medicine at Dalhousie.

BURIED YESTERDAY. — The funeral of the late Douglas McIsaac, whose remains arrived from Boston Wednesday night, was held yesterday morning at St. A. Honnessey's Funeral Home to St. Dunstan's Cathedral where a Requiem High Mass was celebrated by Rev. A. L. Sinnott. The remains were then conveyed to Vernon River where interment took place.

GLOVER-JAY. — The marriage was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Fanning Brook, of Mr. Wendell Willard Glover and Miss Ella Pearl Jay on Wednesday evening, Sept. 22, at 7.30 p. m., in the presence of the immediate relatives of the bride and groom. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was very prettily gowned in a taupe satin dress with silver lace trimmings and carried a shower bouquet of sweet peas. After the ceremony the guests enjoyed a jointly served affair by friends of the bride. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward P. Jay of Fanning Brook, and the groom is a son of the late Robert Glover, and Mrs. Glover of Mt. Stewart. Rev. M. K. Charman, minister of St. Stewart United Church officiated.

The sun broke through the clouds yesterday and shone down with a smiling face on the Provincial Fair grounds, to which people have gathered from all parts of the Province and Mainland, making the day in truth the biggest yet of the Exhibition.

The second day's racing was a big attraction and drew thousands of people. Not only was the main grand stand filled to capacity, but both bleachers held large crowds. On the outside fair grounds the main centre of attraction was the big midway, which drew a large patronage, and kept hundreds of people in amusement all the afternoon.

The judging in the different classes was completed yesterday and the judges from the mainland, in commenting on the live stock and exhibits, speak for the high standard of Prince Edward Island raised cattle in any competition.

The death of Mrs. John T. Warren took place at her home in Long River, P. E. I. on Aug 28, 1926, aged 53 years. She was formerly Flora Ann MacFadyen, eldest daughter of the late John and Elizabeth MacFadyen of North Granville, P. E. I. Mrs. Warren was a lady who by her manner and cheerful disposition endeared herself to all her friends and they will all greatly regret her death and sympathize with those who mourn.

The deceased lady had been in failing health for the past 20 years, she underwent two operations, but never fully regained her usual health. Although she was able to attend to her household duties until complications set in which terminated in death, the best medical skill and loving care being of no avail.

There are left to mourn besides her husband four children, D. Preston of Moncton, N. B., Garnet of Charlottetown, Roy H. and Tillie Ora, at home. Also one sister, Mrs. Mary E. Heartz, Concord, N. H., and a host of other relatives who mourn not as those without hope.

Owing to the large crowd which gathered to pay their last respects to the deceased it was essential to have the services at St. Thomas' Church of which the deceased was a member, her Pastor Rev. Mr. Spriggs officiating, after which she was laid to rest in the family plot in the cemetery adjoining the church, beside her son Chester and two infant daughters pre-deceased. The pall bearers were: Robert MacLeod, Edgar Gillespie, Samuel Connelly, George Ferguson, Samuel James' Church.

SERVICE. The service rendered by Ford cars and trucks and Fordson Tractors is well matched by the service of dependable Champion Spark Plugs, which have been standard Ford equipment for 15 years. To insure continued maximum power and endurance in Ford engines, be sure that you install a full set of Champion at least once a year.

CHAMPION Dependable for Every Engine. A Canadian-made Product Windsor, Ont. 80. Includes an illustration of a spark plug.

The Rogers Hardware Co., Ltd. DISTRIBUTORS. The death took place at York Jersey U. S. A. on Sept. 17th, 1926 Mr. Charles E. Robblee, formerly of Tryon and son of the late Alexander and Mrs. Robblee at the early age of 53 yrs. He leaves to mourn a widow, also three daughters and three brothers, namely, Mrs. Louis Duff, Moose Jaw, Mrs. Fannie Gage, Haverhill, Mass., Mrs. Jas. A. Chisholm, North Tryon, P. E. I. Mr. Albert Robblee, Caley, Alberta; Mr. Delmead Robblee, Newton, Mass.; Howard Robblee, Ottawa, Canada. The Guardian joins in sincerest sympathy to the bereaved family.

LEAVES FOR HOME THIS AFTERNOON. — Mr. William Wilson, one of the foremost sports of Cape Breton, who has been spending a few days in the city, leaves this afternoon on return to his home. Mr. Wilson is a keen judge of boxing and is an announcer par excellence in Cape Breton rings. His voice is marvelous, clear and his services are in demand all over the province. It is quite likely Mr. Wilson will do the "Joe Humphries" act at the Mitchell-McTigue bout in Halifax next week.

for tired Nerves DR. CHASE'S NERVE FOOD. Includes an illustration of a person and text: 'By George McManus'.

BRINGING UP FATHER. A comic strip with dialogue: 'OH, EXCUSE ME!', 'CAN'T YOU SEE WHERE YOU'RE GOIN'', 'THAT'S TOO BAD!', 'RIGHT ON MY SORE FOOT!', 'OH EXCUSE ME!', 'OUCH!', 'EXCUSE ME!'. Includes an illustration of a man tripping over a shoe and a dog.